"FULL value" is the magic word that has brought a lot of good customers to this shop. They were told by their fellow townsmen that our services were dependable, that we carried a standard line of plumbing merchandise and that our prices were satisfactory.

Official News Notes on all War Work

Fund for French Wounded

THE CLIPPER'S LAMENT

When sending more rags
Put in a fresh thumb,
For the one that I have
Is most painfully numb.
And also include
A finger or two,
Mine feel as if they
Had worn a tight shoe.
This pressing a scissors
For hours at a time.
Is not what I'd call
A pastime divine.
But all of "us girls,"
Who aren't able to knit.
Must mince up some rags
And thus do our bit.

(Editor's Note: Mr. Egan, besides being a gardener of national reputation, is developing into a "Clipper" of international fame. Each week he receives his goodly quota of scraps from the French Wounded, and each week returns them snipped to perfection and accompanied by some such delicious bit as that quoted above.)

Are you keeping our poet plentifully supplied with material? We shouldn't like to miss our weekly poem due to an under supply. Also are there not other ardent gentlemen who would like to keep their "spade hand" in practice?

There has been excellent contributions of garments made to the French wounded, more are always in demand. Did you know how useful the long silk stocking was in the army? (They don't specify the color, but we shouldn't exactly recommend sky blue. It might attract the Zep. The L. B. S. is always good, and brown is quite the rage, this year). Off with the feet, tie a knot in place of an ankle, and presto! a cap results to cover the ears of the army when the wind blows chill and the night are cold. Have you not a pair, otherwise worthless that is so patriotically minded?

The Y. W. C. A.

Mrs. Searey the general secretary, has been on her vacation, but returns today, and with her comes new enthusiasm for the New Year's activities. The Association Home used last summer to supply the war demand for rooms and meals, has been rented to two officers from the Fort, Lieutenants Bergen and Graves, who will occupy it with their wives.

The Navy Relief

25 comfort kits, and a number of sweaters were taken to the hospital this week. The chapter supplies yarn to knitters, and Miss Insull will be glad to give instruction in knitting to anyone who desires it, either at her home or at the home of the would-be knitter, if that proves more convenient. Any who desire to take advantage of this offer, may arrange with Miss Insull by calling 300. The chapter meets for an all day session today, not wishing to forfeit the time lost in holiday week.

The Red Cross Shop

You must roll your last this week, for next into favor comes the 12x24 pad and a brand new sponge, quite the cleverest thing devised yet. Since fashions change rapidly with the surgical dressers, the entire output at the shop will be given over to these two, new requirements. What versatile folks we shall be when the war is over!

There has been good attendance in both departments during the holidays, showing that Santa did not completely monopolize the attention this year. A large consignment of knitted goods is about to be sent in.

Would that we had more Ribe Mitts among them, which are so urgently needed. Experienced knitters only need apply, but are not most of us in that class these days?

Among those New Years Resolutions we trust you included setting side an hour a day, or its equivalent at one time, for work at the shop. When every woman in Highland Park is doing her bit to this extent the work will have taken on a real war outlook. Women attention! present arms! (ready to serve at the Red Cross shop).

Daughters of the Flag

Surely no one has forgotten that all important meeting on January 5th. If you are not a Daughter (provided you are between 10 and 18 years of age) and wish to be one, now is the best time in the world to become one.

The Chapter meets at the home of Mrs. Robert Forgan on Saturdays, promptly at ten.

The Army and Navy Center

Last, but by no means least, we have much to tell you of the Center. In fact there is so much to be said each week that sometimes important items get crowded out, and we realize too late that we missed the fun last week of telling you about Mrs. Jacobson's trip to the Fort hospital with her machine heaped high with gifts for the men confined there. They let her deliver the Center's 72 bags of Christmas cheer personally,even opening the forbidding doors that lead to the quarters where sick prisoners are kept. She was delighted with the way she found the boys cared for and says their gratitude at being remembered was good to see. Leaving also a goodly supply of delicacies the town had been more than generous—she went on to the Guard House where she gave 35 bags more to be distributed among the prisoners.

The Center held open house on New Years day, and as usual proved its popularity and great usefulness.

Owing to the illness of Mrs. Winston, Mrs. George Jones has been made chairman of the committee in charge and Miss Miriam Steever takes her place as treasurer.

Friends of the Column, and Fellow Workers, we wish you the most useful of New Years, since thru usefulness these days we are all finding our greatest happiness.

MY CHOICE

By M. G. Moss, Hicks Field, Texas

I would rather lose my good right arm,
On a shell torn battle field,
Where real men fight for a cause that's right
And none but cowards yield,
Than to hide behind excuses rank
And lie like hell to stay
At home with ma to support my pa,
As a great many others say.

I would rather fill a soldier's grave,
Just die as a soldier should,
Where rifles speak, and the wounded shriek,
I would, by God, I would,
Than to be a slacker safe at home.
Hiding behind a skirt,
While the flag of the free
That has sheltered me
May be trampled in the dirt.

I would give the balance of my life
Just to be with the U. S. troops,
When they march into old Berlin,
Amid a million whoops
And that day is coming "Don't cher know."
Just when, I cannot tell.
But it's on the way, and it'll be some day
For Willie will sure catch hell.

—Sent to Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Ralph from their son Arthur S. Ralph, who is in the aviation corps.

Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Dobson spent New Years in Marion, Ind., visiting relatives.

Please note that the Kaiser is not postponing anything, and we who are upholding the world's liberty must move quickly.

We have an idea that if the Kaiser wins he'll sue the world for libel.
