HIGHLAND PARK BECOMES BURIED IN SNOW DRIFTS

If the city would furnish help to load it on flat cars. The work was started yesterday. The estimated cost of the removing of the snow is $600.00. All the work was finished last evening. Old settlers, of course "swapped" stories on the storm telling of the earlier days when similar storms were quite the rule, rather than the exception. Of course we can't say exactly, but suffice it to say that it was about the worst storm Highland Park has seen in twenty years.
