ARMY AND NAVY CEN- TER IS HIGHLY PRAISED

IS MEETING GREAT NEED

Sergeant Francis Ames of 40th Infantry Band, Fort Sheridan Appreciates What is Done for the Boys

The following letter was received by us recently in which the writer states his appreciation of the Highland Park Army and Navy Center.

Dear Sir:

Just a few words to try and make up for the lack of appreciation that the boys of the army seemed to have shown toward you, the good people of the city of Highland Park. We, the men of the Fortieth Infantry, U.
S. Army, recently from Fort Snelling, Minnesota, and now stationed at Fort Sheridan, Ill., close by your little city, wish to thank you for your earnest and hard working efforts to make us feel at home during our stay with you, which let us sincerely hope, may be of a long duration.

It was while visiting the Army and Navy Center, which I do almost daily, and seen so many soldiers recreating and enjoying themselves with the facilities at hand, that I bethought me that whereas there were many taking advantage of the pleasures afforded, there was very few returning to offer thanks for the many bounties received, and which puts us on the same plane as the ungrateful ones in the Bible who followed the Lord for favors but seldom returned to offer thanks.

So I take it on myself to answer for this oversight of the regiment and assure you that it was unintentional and that we do appreciate all you and yours have done for us and we trust that during our stay up to the present, we have in no way given you cause to regret our presence among you and wish our immediate departure.

We are not an old regiment, and consequently, lack a whole lot of that discipline and Esprit de corps that always will be found in an old organization, and as the regiment is but six months old, and composed of almost entirely, raw material, therefore there are bound to be a few short comings among the men who do not possess that pride that goes with the trained soldier.

Now inasmuch as this is not my first time among you, I wish to refer you back to several years ago while the cavalry and field artillery was stationed here and as it was in those days when the saloons were not closed, and when they used to cut up and act a trifle unruly, still I remember that we had a very good name among the people of Highland Park, tho we were handicapped by the closeness of Chicago, which was wide open and filled with many temptations which would turn the brain of any young soldier away from the tender and loving influence of home and mother.

But thanks to the good Lord, the saloons are closed to the soldier and we can now take our place among the best of them and demand respect.

It has been seven long years since I was among you but let me assure you that I have never forgot you, and I cannot recall that during that space of time, have I ever seen a town that I liked better than Highland Park, unless of course, it was the little town in which I first saw the light of day.

During these seven years away from you, I have been stationed in many cities and mingled with the residents, but although they treated me with respect and offered me no affront, still they lacked that cordiality and good fellowship as shown by the people of Highland Park, and the other towns close by.

Especially the ladies, by the ladies I do not mean the girls, but the grown ups who lavished every attention upon us and acted like a mother to us one and all.

It is nice indeed to know that one can step into town on a Saturday or a Sunday afternoon and hear music free of charge and be served with coffee and sandwiches.

It is also nice to have the ladies mingle with you and invite you to their church and offer you privileges of their own private pew.

And not only the Center, but many other places that I have not time to mention, such as the Christian Science Church, the Public Library, the Young Men's Club, the Highland Park Club, and several other churches are to be thanked for their cordiality to the soldiers of the Fort.

So here's to you the grown up ladies of Highland Park and thereabouts, and may you always be happy in your good work toward the soldiers as I have every reason to believe you will be, as the Lord loves a cheerful giver and surely He will not forget all you have done for the poor boys who are far away from home and mother, and the old Home Town.
Sincerely,
Francis Ames, Sgt. 40th Inf.

DEATHS

Mrs. Carrie C. Beardsley
In the death of Mrs. Carrie C.
Beardsley, January twenty-fourth, one home in Highland Park lost in one person a wife, mother and grandmother.

So precious and beautiful was she in all three capacities that the surviving members, notwithstanding their keen sense of loss, feel that to have had her all these years has bestowed upon the home a blessedness, the memory of which can never fade.

Born in Ogdensburg, New York, in 1848, Carrie Forsyth came to Chicago with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. James Forsyth in 1855 and still has many devoted friends in this city where most of her life has been lived.

In 1899, she moved with her family to the home where she died in Highland Park.

Rev. D. H. Cornell of Glencoe, at the funeral spoke fittingly of the type of woman Mrs. Beardsley was.

George Elliot also painted a vivid picture of the significance of such a life in the following words: "The effect of her being on those around her was incalculably diffusive; for the growing good of the world is partly dependent on unlikable acts; and that things are not so ill with you and me as they might have been, is half owing to the number who lived faithfully a hidden life, and rest in unvisited tombs."

The funeral services were held at the family residence, 547 St. Johns Ave. on Saturday, January, twenty-sixth, at 2:30 p. m.; interment at Rose Hill cemetery.

Mrs. Beardsley leaves to survive her, a husband, Jerome C. Beardsley, two daughters, Mrs. Abbie B. Bastin and Miss Ruth Beardsley; two granddaughters, Mrs. Dorothy Brotherton and Mrs. Rowena Bennett.

Mrs. Barbara Kathrina Zimmer

Mrs. Barbara Kathrina Zimmer
(nee Funk) wife of the late Jacob Zimmer and a resident of this city for the past forty five years passed away on Friday, January twenty-fifth at her home on N. Second St., following an illness of several weeks duration. She was born in Niederlinxweiler Prussia, Germany, April 8, 1838 and came to this country in April 1872. In the early spring of the following year 1873 she came to Highland Park where she has made her home ever since. Funeral services were held Monday morning at eight thirty o'clock at the Immaculate Conception Church with Dr.
O'Neill officiating. Burial was made at Mooney's cemetery.

Mrs. Zimmer leaves to survive her one daughter Mrs. M. K. Rothacker of Chicago and three sons, George Zimmer of Watertown, S. D., Mr. P.
W. Zimmer and Mr. Frank Zimmer both of this city.

Mr. W. H. Miller

News reached this office on Tuesday morning of the death of Mr. William H. Miller, one of Highland Park's oldest residents, in Geneva, Switzerland, on January 20th.

Mr. Miller, a successful lumber merchant of Chicago for many years retired a number of years ago and with his wife Mrs. Margaret Pratt Miller went to Europe in July 1914.
During the three and one half years they have visited different places on the continent and for a number of months have been in Geneva.

The Press is unfortunate in not being able to secure more definite date as to Mr. Miller's death.

It is thought that Mr. Miller's health has been failing of late. Mr.
Miller leaves a widow to survive him.

CAMP GRANT NOTES

Company A
Lieut. Gordon A. Van Riper has the distinction of being the first officer in Camp Grant to use snow shoes on duty. As officer of the day, he inspected the guard over the tops of snow drifts.

The Prairie Regiment and the Kaiser
By Corporal V. O. Winkenweerd,
Company A

Just to make you folks wiser About when we'll get the Kaiser.
The 342nd has this say.
About that all eventful day.

Our regiment of Prairie boys Will certainly create some noise.
When it's turned loose Against that fat Boche goose.

There'll be some clash of steel.
Every Boche will take to heel.
They'll turn Berlin upside down.
And make it a U. S. A. town.

Stars and stripes they will raise.
And start to live American ways; American rags will fill the air.
No more militarist worry and care.

Khaki boys will run the town, Till every Kaiser is pulled down.
And when they come marching home, Freedom and liberty will have gained its own.

Beginning Friday, February 1st, We Are Going to Adopt the

Cash and Carry Plan

WE HAVE noted that the "Cash and Carry Plan" has proven very successful in many other cities and have decided to try it in Highland Park. In some sections of the country the cost of food has been reduced as much as ten per cent by simply reviving the old-time custom of going to market with a basket and taking the purchases home instead of having them delivered.

CUSTOMER TO GET THE BENEFIT

We intend to co-operate with those who express their desire to reduce their living expenses. By paying cash and carrying home your meat orders you will see a noticeable reduction in our prices.

We know that such a system is fair to both our customers and ourselves, for we reduce our expenses of delivery and of keeping accounts. One customer will get the benefit of this saving and will not have to share the extra expense of the charging and delivery service.

Please bear in mind that we do not intend to lower anything but the price. The quality of our meats will continue to be of the same high standard which has well earned our name.
