Patriotic Highland Park

Highland Park has responded to the call of the Nation in her volunteers and her selected men for the National Army in a manner that thrills every citizen with pride and satisfaction. Highland Park has been called upon to mourn the tragic death of one of her noble sons. He died a hero in the service of his country. The first gold star on the service flag will appear shortly in honor of Dumaresq Spencer. Almost his last words written to the family of a comrade, expressing his sympathy for the loss they had sustained, were "Be of good cheer, your son and my comrade died that his country might live," and his last message home contained those two wonderful words used by our English Allies "Carry on." In the words of the parents of our hero he was taken away from us "a Christian, a Soldier and a Gentleman," for he left a record for bravery and courage that will be unsurpassed in the history of the war. All honor to the parents who gave him birth. In due time the City of Highland Park will erect a monument to this brave soldier and to all others who will be called upon to pay the supreme sacrifice for Liberty, Humanity and Democracy.

Stop Grumbling

For the love of Mike stop grumbling! When it isn't the war it's the weather and when it isn't the weather it's the war. If you go to the store and can't get sugar, get something else that's sweet. There is syrup, or molasses and hosts of other things that will replace it. If you go to the dairy and can't get milk—smile. It's much cheaper and pays better in the long run. If you can't have sugar for your dessert don't growl about it. If its so cold that your feet feel like stone don't say anything about it. There are hundreds and thousands of people who are worse off than you. The boys in the trenches in the camps, on board battle ships, have all "got it on you" when it comes to hardships and sacrifices, and how do they bear it? They declare its great—they write home long letters saying that they would not exchange a bit of their experience for anything. That's how they bear it. If they can endure all this and more, can't we go without quantities of sugar—coal—milk, without grumbling over it? "Somebody is always taking the joy out of life" "is that somebody you?"

Virtue is its own reward—and it always pays its dividend.

We Agree

It is often said that we are not called upon to stand when America is played, as it is not our National Anthem. That may have been true a year ago, but now when we hear it, should we not take it to be God Save the King and stand in compliment to our British Allies? In any public place you see people rise at the first note of the Marseillaise.

THRIFT JINGLES

By Ring Lardner
There was a foolish man
And he bought a foolish block
Of Yaki Hula common,
A foolish mining stock.
And now he dines on field mice
And pals with other tramps,
Which never would have happened
If he'd bought War Savings Stamps.

LITTLE THRIFTERS

Let every week be a thrift week in your home.
One of the Kaiser's arms is paralyzed. Paste the other behind his back with War Savings Stamps.
The candy kid has disappeared; he buys War Savings Stamps instead. Illinois boys and girls are all becoming philatelists, but it's Thrift Stamps they are buying nowadays.

COMPANY C

Private Scott has been called to Dayton, Ohio, on business and will probably be gone for several months. He will endeavor to join a similar organization in that state, in which case of course he will probably receive an honorable discharge from Company C.
Company C is ordered to be reviewed by Governor Lowden and the colonel of the Regiment on February 22nd at the Municipal Pier, Chicago. The men will go in full uniform, overcoats and will be fully armed.
The men were asked to wear their uniforms on Tuesday, Lincoln's birthday. As a result many of them appeared on the streets in their attractive khaki.
The examinations set for the 16th have been postponed two weeks.
Regular officer's school takes place this evening. Any interested privates may attend.

Y. W. C. A. NEWS

A very interesting Lincoln Vesper service was held Sunday afternoon under the direction of the Aster Club who furnished the program.
Two new club leaders are greatly needed. This work must be done by volunteer leadership and two clubs are in process of formation. We cannot lose these girls for want of some capable young woman who has time and ability at her command. No especial amount of training needed. A love for girls and a desire for service are the chief requisites. Anyone who can supply these two will be welcomed in this much needed field.
The Aster Club entertained their friends Friday evening with a Valentine party in the gymnasium, which was prettily decorated for the occasion.

EVAN. LUTHERAN CHURCH

Next Sunday we will observe an Army and Navy day, for the purpose of raising the necessary funds to minister to the moral and spiritual needs of the Lutheran men in the service. President Wilson says: "I learn of the service planned by the Lutheran Commission for Soldier's and Sailor's welfare with a great deal of interest and wish not assure you that it has my best wishes."
