YOUNG MEN, ENROLL IN BOYS' WORKING RESERVE

"RAISE THE 1918 VICTORY"

Make Your Slogan, "No Idle Illinois Boys While So Many are Dying for Democracy"

By Burrige D. Butler, of Highland Park, Illinois
Illinois Director, U. S. Boy's Working Reserve

From the United States Government comes the patriotic call to every young man in Illinois—16 to 21 years of age—to join the U. S. Boy's Working Reserve and help win the war.

This call is made to all of 'Reserve' age whether attending school or employed in non-essential work. Every full-blooded, patriotic young man who is under military age is called upon to enroll during this week. Let there, not be an idle boy in Illinois while so many are giving their lives for Democracy.

This week will be general enrollment week, and boys who can be spared from other non-productive work they are now engaged in are urged to enroll as "Reserve Volunteers" and get ready to answer this call for work on farms.

This great war is a war of sustenance and endurance. It is a food war and our farmers will not be able to raise the crops expected of them unless they get good help from the towns and cities.

Herbert Hoover has called the U. S. Boy's Working Reserve "Our second line of defense." Prof. Spillman, Chief of the Bureau of Farm Management, says "Push as hard as you can." Every school teacher, every "Reserve" director and worker is expected to do his utmost to answer this call.

Parents are urged to encourage their sons of 'Reserve' age to undertake this work for their country. These boys will go to good Illinois farm homes and will live under wholesome moral and social conditions. Every agency in the state is being employed to look after their welfare and see that every 'Reserve Volunteer' on an Illinois farm is encouraged to do his best and is happy and contented.

School principals and teachers, public librarians and executives of the Y. M. C. A., Knights of Columbus or other organizations, will be authorized with proper credentials as enrolling officers.

Enlistment of 'Reserve Volunteers' can now be made at the Illinois State Council of Defense Building, in Chicago, in person or by letter, and literature can be obtained there, giving the details of the U. S. Boy's Working Reserve.

The men have set as their standard, 100 members by the end of the first month. Mr. John H. Nichols is the campaign manager and has as his workers, Mr. F. B. Flynn, and Mr. R. G. Smith. A great deal of enthusiasm has been shown and no doubt with the proper spirit the men can easily make their quota.

CHRISTIAN SCIENCE LECTURE

must appear in relation to the true understanding of God, as inevitably as the figure four appears in relation to the numbers two times two.

Definition of Law
The term law may be defined in various ways, but in its true and highest meaning law may be said to be that which manifests or makes known the enduring stability of truth, the perfect continuity of Life, the unchanging unity or oneness of Love; in other words, the authority or potency of all-inclusive creative Mind, or God.

Matter: Instability, Disappearance
The endeavor to arrive at the permanent origin, ultimate form, or primal state of what is called matter, physical science has come upon numerous disappointments. To illustrate: Until not so very long ago physical science looked upon the atom as representing the ultimate form, or primal state of matter. Of comparatively recent date, however, advanced physicists are quite in agreement that what is known as the electron, first discovered and displaced the atom as the ultimate form of matter. The electron has never been seen by the practical senses; in fact, but very little indeed is known concerning the electron, except that it is present in the atom, and what yesterday was looked upon and accepted my physical science as the permanent state of matter.

Of comparatively recent date, however, advanced physicists are quite in agreement that what is known as the electron, first discovered and displaced the atom as the ultimate form of matter. The electron has never been seen by the practical senses; in fact, but very little indeed is known concerning the electron, except that it is present in the atom, and what yesterday was looked upon and accepted my physical science as the permanent state of matter.

Further, one views the immediate or local forms of matter with which humanity has been acquainted, and the residue of ancient ages, and discovers in each of these emphatic evidences of the fact that matter is in a constant state of flux, and is crowded inevitably to the conclusion that there is no force continually at work and destroying the assumed stability of material laws.

Scientific Deductions
Mrs. Eddy did not arrive at her understanding of the fundamentals of Christian Science from any such material basis. As a child she had been taught as the year 1866 she made the denial of the substantiality of matter, and today fifty years thereafter physical science has pronounced the disappearance of any ultimate form or primal state of matter, recognize to the physical senses, the fact that matter is in a constant state of flux, and is crowded inevitably to the conclusion that there is no force continually at work and destroying the assumed stability of material laws.

Scientific Healing
That is all very interesting, remarks an inquiring friend, but what is that to do for the man who has pain in his head? And here is the answer. The trouble is not with the head, but with the material so-called law, which is the effect of false material conceptions of matter. The "murderer from the beginning," which "abode not in the truth, because there is no truth in him." Therefore there can be no real, enduring property of equality of law in anything that belongs to this false consciousness, or false materiality, or "beginning," because "there is no truth in him."

But what are you going to do about it, persist our inquiring friend. The law is established, you cannot change it or escape it. But with all kindly deference to our friend, that is not the scientific method. Science proposes to do, and is doing in every case of healing and regeneration. Law which fails to maintain itself is no longer law. When the fact of its stability appears, it ceases by reason of that fact, to be law.

Turning away from that which has proved its insufficiency and instability,—in the language and spirit of the Bible, "forgetting those things which are behind,"—we look elsewhere. When the sick man is healed in Christian Science, something has taken place. It cannot be said that that which has destroyed a condition of discord and disease, and established a condition of health, harmony, and happiness, is nothing. Effect implies cause. Therefore that which has destroyed sickness and disease, and established health and harmony, must be truly substantial; must be at least the substance hoped for by the weary sufferer; must be the evidence of the gift of creative Mind, or God,—the law which manifests and makes known the enduring stability of Truth, the perfect continuity of Life, the unchanging unity or oneness of Love. And this is the law, my friends, which Christ has discovered before you. The law which, when properly understood and applied, abrogates and sets aside the false material conceptions of matter, and sets aside the false material law, which together with the evidence of the gift of health, harmony, and happiness, appears, and God's will is done. In this way, and in this way only, will the fact of the stability of Truth, the perfect continuity of Life, the unchanging unity or oneness of Love, pass away.

Christian Science Assurance
When we speak of the real man, the real existence, and the real law, please do not understand that it is the purpose of Christian Science to destroy or to take away from you anything which seems necessary and good to you. It is not the purpose of Christian Science to destroy, but to fulfill; to bring about the recognition and demonstration of man and the universe as created by God.

Relation to the Bible
The question is sometimes asked, Why do Christian Scientists refer so freely and continuously to the Bible? There are several reasons for this. In the first place, the Christian Scientist has learned and is learning daily what the Bible contains. He has come to love with a sincere devotion this book, the leaves of which have been turned and studied by our fathers and forefathers, and yet, for the most part, he is learning that it has a message of definite good which interpreted rightly, and in the light of the Bible, is bringing to him glad and infinite meanings.

Early Study by Mrs. Eddy
In her work, "Retrospection and Inspiration," (p. 24), Mrs. Eddy informs us that in the year 1866 she was healed of an illness, the result of an injury which neither medicine nor surgery could reach. At that time she withdrew from society for a period of three weeks, in order that she might search the Scriptures, seeking to know how she had been healed, for she realized that her healing was not due to any medicinal law. During this period, she informs us, the Bible was her only textbook; it answered her questions, and she learned that the Scriptures had for her a new meaning, in which she apprehended the spiritual power of Jesus' teachings and demonstrations.

Bible Studied Consistently
It is a recognized fact that Christian Science has made more Bible students than any other cause in the world of modern times, and the Christian Scientist is the most active, consistent, and happy student of the Bible to be found anywhere in the world. He is

Relation to World War
We are living today in a period of Revolution, the unfolding of Christian Science, which reveals man governed by Principle, Truth and Good. It is also well to recognize in this connection that there never has been a conflict and accident, or a covering of error. Against the autocratic evils of personal control the nations of the world are waging today a tremendous warfare, and men and women who are consecrated to the ideals of Principle and Truth are under the obligation to see to it that none of these evils of personal control shall arise out of the conflict and accident, or a covering of error. The autocratic evils of personal control, political, ecclesiastical, medical or otherwise, might be restrained against in human history.

Giving
If there is one word which might more than another indicate something of the character and purpose of Mrs. Eddy, I think it might be the word giving. Mrs. Eddy was always ready and willing to give to a cause that was worthy. Above all, she was always giving, giving, giving the gift of Christian Science which had been so freely given to her. And in the final disposition of her estate to be made by her will, she has accounted well for her stewardship, and has left behind her an eternal legacy of enduring love.

Simplicity and Consistency
Mrs. Eddy's faith and trust in God, and her confidence in the ever-presence of divine love, was the simple faith and trust and confidence of a little child, and this, together with the courage, strength, and zeal of one who had caught the vision of a great purpose, made her the most tender and consistent of all. Her faith and trust in God, and her confidence in the ever-presence of divine love, was the simple faith and trust and confidence of a little child, and this, together with the courage, strength, and zeal of one who had caught the vision of a great purpose, made her the most tender and consistent of all.

Application

Men and women who are sick and suffering from any form of so-called incurable illness, suffering from the unending bitterness of sorrow or grief, lives may likewise come into yours. To any such I would say, any friend or acquaintance of yours who is a Christian Scientist, any Christian Scientist wherever they may be found, will be willing to share with you the inspiration and help of their experiences. You may avail yourself of this healing and regenerative law of Truth, of Life, of Love.

It is quite important that this should be clearly understood, since Christian Science is not engaged in a work of proselytizing, and whether or not a person ever becomes a member of the Christian Science church will depend upon something more on his part than mere inclination or passive assent to become such a member. That this be more clearly understood it may be well for me to read a few lines from the Christian Science textbook.

It is the will of God the purpose of infinite Mind, that man should know the truth. And you may begin at once in Christian Science to discriminate between the unreal and the real, to reject and deny the suggestions of false material consciousness or "murderer from the beginning," and instead to appropriate as yours, the things that belong to immortal man, the things that forever reflect the eternal creative Mind, or God, and the deity thus established to be free!
