

MEN!

House Cleaning Time is Here!

Are you going to let the women folks do all the hard work? Are you going to let them do the family washing, clean the rugs, try to do the dry cleaning or dyeing, besides the scrubbing and other work? We don't believe you are.

You are going to be considerate of your wife's health and make her love you more by insisting that she send the laundry work, dry cleaning, dyeing and the rugs and draperies to us to be cleaned well.

It is easier and better to pay laundry bills than doctor bills and you get more for your money.

Just when we begin feeling blue and sort of friendless and think all of our friends have forgotten us, it surely is a gloom slayer to think that we have forgotten to mention about an entertainment. Last Saturday afternoon a very delightful program was given at the Patriotic League at its smileage campaign. Those who took part in the program were Chaplain Renler, Mr. Meyers and Mr. Dale. The Highwood service flag was also unfurled at that time. Some very delightful selections were also given by the Fortieth Infantry band and Miss Elizabeth O'Connor gave a reading. Following the entertainment supper was served to the people who took part in the program.

The Westminster Guild of the Presbyterian Church will meet next Monday afternoon with Mrs. Carl Pfantstiel of Woodpath Ave. Mrs. Pfantstiel will have as her guest, Miss Harriet Bradley, who is engaged to marry the Rev. Frank Pitt who has just accepted the pastorate of the Presbyterian Church. All members are urged to be present.

Miss Charlotte Brand will be hostess tomorrow evening to the Friday night club.

Mrs. E. B. Metzler entertained the embroidery class at her home yesterday afternoon.

The Five Hundred Club was entertained last Thursday afternoon by Mrs. Louis Shetzley of Highwood.

PARENTS AND TEACHERS ASSOCIATION

The High School Division of the P. T. A. will meet on Tuesday, April second. Visiting day is to be observed in charge of the social committee, Mrs. Richard Carqueville, chairman. The business meeting will be held in the English Club room at three o'clock.

Official News Notes on all War Work

The Red Cross
"Garments here, and garments there, Garments, garments, everywhere," sang a Red Crosser as she picked her way carefully between stacks of overcoats, and piles of shoes, on her way to the shop up stairs, and the busy workers looked up to smile, from their sorting and folding, and to call out that they never saw such a fine lot of things in their lives, and they only wished they were "Belgium Reliefs."

With 14 huge boxes already crated and more to follow, the shop took the first real time out to breathe in days and told Ye Editor that the response had been simply wonderful, and that she was pleased to thank you all kindly for your splendid cooperation in this great drive. We know of at least a few dozen Belgians large and small who will not go about shivering this coming winter thanks to generous Highland Park.

The shop is about to open a new department of Civil Relief garments, to be given out to organizations which wish to do work outside. Anyone interested in this phase of the work will please confer with Mrs. Rex L. Jones, directly, who is in charge.

The surgical dressings department is very glad to be able to announce that on Monday, which begins the new month, the workers will begin to make the new "front line" dressings, which are to be used in the emergency dressings stations, called by the French "Poste de secours." No longer can the war be 3000 miles away for any of us, then. We are all there, in the thick of the fighting, in the midst of the field of mercy. Your hearts are with this work, come as you have never come before to give the work of your hands, as well.

The Navy Relief

Perhaps at the end of a long day's work, the women may get a little tired of making bathrobes so steadily, but there is one thing certain, the men at the hospital at Great Lakes, do not tire of the comfort they afford them. 10 were finished on Tuesday, and 28 were delivered last week.

The Army and Navy Center

Easter activities are in full swing this week at the Center. Little candy bunnies to decorate 300 cakes, which are to be prepared for the men in the service who will fill the rooms on Easter afternoon, were to be seen yesterday when the Board met to discuss many things. The men are to have the privilege of hearing Mr. Kreidler sing, in the afternoon, and ice cream cones, coffee and cakes are to make them merry.

In planning for the men, those laid up in the hospital have not been forgotten. Easter baskets, containing fruit and other delicacies as well as a bunny, just for the fun of the thing, are to be taken personally by Mrs. Jacobson to all the patients. If you have not all ready planned to do so, wont you take part in this Eastertide bit of happiness for the men, by bringing your offerings of fruit, flowers or delicacies to Purdy's any time before three on Saturday afternoon?

On Sunday evening, also, the men are to have a concert at the hospital, with Mrs. Carleton Vail, and Mr. and Mrs. George Jones as the entertainers.

The hostess for Saturday will be Mrs. Richard Carqueville, and on Sunday the Committee will receive the men.

Food Conservation

After Monday of next week, conservation cook books and other material will be available free of charge at the Red Cross shop. Come to receive and stay to give.

LINCOLN SCHOOL

On Saturday, Miss Hammond will take the pupils of the fourth grade into Chicago to the Field Museum. The children have recently been studying the Viking stories and so they are especially interested in the Viking relics at the Museum.

The pupils of the third grade with Miss Tschergi in charge, visited the lumber yards Tuesday and studied the various kinds of lumber used in building.

ST. JOHN'S EVANGELICAL

Good Friday services will be read at 7:45 p. m.

Easter service is at 10:30 a. m. according to the new daylight law.

On Monday evening, April first, there will be an Easter Social in the church parlors. The social committee of the church will be in charge. The Easter spirit will be carried out, light refreshments will be served.

Brost-Litovsk in Russia seems to have been a poison gas works instead of a Chautauqua center.

DEERFIELD NEWS ITEMS

On Thursday afternoon at four thirty o'clock occurred the death of Mrs. George Karch, a very well known and well liked citizen of Deerfield. Mrs. Karch was born in Brooklyn, New York, July 19, 1860 and has been a well known resident of Deerfield for the past nineteen years. The funeral services were held in the Holy Cross Church, Saturday morning at nine thirty o'clock with a Solemn Requiem High Mass. Father Quinn the former priest of the Deerfield Catholic Church and now of Joliet, officiating. He was assisted by two priests of Techy and four altar boys. The Misses Fanny, Bessie and Grace Carolan sang during the mass. Father Quinn gave a very appropriate speech for Mrs. Karch who was a prominent member of the Church and the Altar and Rosary Society. The burial place was St. Mary's cemetery just east of Deerfield. The pall bearers were Messrs. B. H. Kress, John Klemp, James Ryan, Thomas Duffy, Sr., William Steffis and H. Haunschild. Deerfield M. E. Church

Mr. McGinnis of the Anti Saloon League talked in the United Evangelical Church Sunday morning. He said that a beer soaked town was a dead broke town. The only people who are benefitted are the saloon keeper and the brewer. Every dollar paid for license must be supplemented by fifteen dollars to pay for delinquency and crime caused by liquor. There are two and a half million sub-normal people in Illinois on account of the drinking habits of the parents.
