

HAVE you a treadmill in the shape of a laundry in the rear of your house and a couch in the front for your better half to rest her weary limbs and aching head after doing the family laundry or do you send your laundry work to THE RELIABLE LAUNDRY and make your home a workshop of joy where your children derive more and better education and you find joy, comfort and inspiration from your family when you arrive home after your day's work?

Make your home an ideal place to live in. Cut out the drudgery by sending the family wash, rugs, and dry cleaning to THE RELIABLE LAUNDRY. Your laundry work is done by the pound. It recommends itself. Try it.

The Young Musicians' Club, made up of the little people who study music with Estelle A. Philleo, gave a Woodland Concert at the home of Junior Lafean, Moraine Road, on Saturday afternoon. The little folk played selections in which were expressed the music of the sunshine, the rain, the flowers and birds. The whole program was simple and pretty, made up of pieces chosen with care and played with understanding. A delightful feature of the playing was the touch of finish, manifested in the memorizing and the lack of superficial work. There was a remarkable recognition of melody and harmony, very unusual in child training, shown. The children who took part, reflecting a great measure of credit on their teacher were, Edith Vail, Marjory Van Schaek, Louise Carr, Helen Boynton, Sarah Margaret Mills, Everett Mills, Fritz Boynton, Woodward Boynton, Edgar Snow, Junior Lafean.

Ravinia Park is going to be a military center this summer, not of war operations, though. There are going to be many hundreds of soldiers and sailors there—not stationed there, you know, just guests of the Ravinia Club. The Club has some mighty nice plans laid for our boys in service, and judging from the royal way in which they are to be entertained we would not be at all surprised if that fact alone would go a long way toward recruiting lots of young men into the army and navy. Suppose you are beginning to wonder what these plans are. Well these are so many and they are all so grand that we hardly know where to begin. First of all, it's not the Ravinia Club entirely who is doing this work, it gives you all a chance to help. The Club is selling, along the North Shore, books on the basis of two for ten dollars, to be used for soldiers and sailors, when they wish to go to Ravinia, (and let us hope that, for lack of tickets no soldier will be unable to go when he wants to.) Then the club will turn over the baseball grounds to the use of the boys, Saturday and Sunday, except of course during a concert, because there are to be reserved seats for the boys during the concerts and they will want to be in their places. And then the best surprise yet is the plan to open a club room on the second floor in the Casino for the boys. Doubtless this "sanctum" will be absolutely closed to anyone except a soldier or sailor. Dancing and supper parties at the Domino Casino will also be included on "our boys" program for this summer's season at Ravinia. If there is a stone yet unturned, leave it to the Ravinia Club, the real life of the park, to turn it over, and remember that the Club gives everyone a chance to help. Wonder where the nearest recruiting station is, guess we'll recruit.

The Westmaster Guild of the Presbyterian Church will meet with Mrs. George W. Childs on Monday afternoon, next, at 2:30 o'clock. Lieut. Col. W. P. Moffett, Sixteenth United States cavalry, now in Fort Brown, Texas, and Mrs. Moffett, Fort Sheridan, announce the engagement of their daughter Helen, to Lieut. John Huljug Jr., Nineteenth United States Infantry stationed at Fort Sam Houston, Tex. Miss Moffett is in the sophomore class at the University of Chicago, and was a student of both Elm Place and the Deerfield-Shields High School of this city. Lieut. Huljug was graduated from the University of Chicago in the class of 1917 and was a member of the first officers' training camp at Fort Sheridan.

Miss Florence Warner will be hostess to the Friday night club tomorrow evening. Mrs. Charles Freberg was hostess last Thursday afternoon to the Five hundred Club.

Mrs. William Kopp of Lincoln Ave. was hostess last evening to several friends in honor of her birthday anniversary.

A delightful surprise party was given on Tuesday evening for Miss Isabelle Keeler at the home of Miss Irene Booth. There were twenty four guests present. Games were the features of the evening.

The Camouflage party which was given last Wednesday evening by the Young Ladies Patriotic League of Highwood was a very successful affair. Decorations were appropriate to Christmas and a program of recitations and songs appropriate to a Christmas entertainment were given. Everyone enjoyed a most delightful evening.

A very delightful Sunday evening tea was held at the home of Mrs. Arthur VanSchaek this week. Mr. and Mrs. Paul Bird of Winnetka, formerly of this city, were out of town guests.

Official News Notes on all War Work

The Red Cross

The knitting is slow. There is no use dodging the issue. It may be due to spring house cleaning, or spring fever (including grippe), or a general relaxing of effort because the thermometer no longer registers below zero. What ever the reasons, the fact remains, and must be remedied. This is no time for slacking, be it failing to oversubscribe the 3rd Liberty Loan, or failing to produce the necessary weekly output of knitted goods. See to it that you are turning in a pair of socks a week, as an irreducible minimum, or its equivalent, and "Hew to the line, let the quips fall where they may." Forget your dislike of criticism, forget your nerves, if you are unfortunate enough to have any, forget everything that prevents you from doing your utmost. If you don't know how to make socks, learn! If you do know how, everlastingly keep at it.

Knitters, attention! Present neediest. Cast on sixty, knit two, purl two. Carry On!

The Red Cross Shop at Highwood has finished its own quota of surgical dressings, consisting of 200 pneumonia jackets, and 2000 compresses, and has begun work on dressings for Highland Park. The shop is open 4 afternoons and 2 evenings with an average attendance of 15, and is turning out excellent work.

The Ravinia Shop, which is open every night and 2 days, has also finished its quota and is also at work on dressings for Highland Park. "We're working our heads off," reports the Chairman.

The Patriotic League at Highwood gave a Camouflage Christmas Party to the boys at the Fort last week. There was a Santa, and all the jovial good times that invariably accompany him. Each Sunday afternoon a musical program is to be given in addition to the refreshments served by the girls to the men at the Fort who come as guests to the rooms. Two hostesses will also be on hand. This week they will be ladies of the Spanish War Veterans.

The new room which the League has rented for expansion purposes, is very nice, but still very empty. It is fortunate enough to have curtains, but for active girls, curtains do not alone suffice, as furnishings. A table, some chairs, a rug and a picture or two, now, would come in most handy. We think we mentioned this some weeks ago, but house cleaning time is a fine time to repeat the suggestion. Phone Miss McQuillan, at the Patriotic League rooms, 1340, should you be able to donate anything of the sort to this first class, gilt-edged profit-sharing war activity.

The Army and Navy Center

This afternoon Miss Hinman, who is on the War Recreational Board, and has herself personally visited every camp in the state, will talk to the committee of the Center on recreational work for men in the service. The committee is extremely glad of this opportunity to hear not only an exceptionally good speaker, but to keep in touch with the latest results that have been obtained in this line of work.

The dancing class for soldiers and sailors that has been going on for some weeks past under the direction of Mr. Bournique, will give a dancing party at the Highland Park Club on Tuesday evening, April 30. The girls will be provided by the committee, who will also be in attendance. Good music, plenty of refreshments, and a general good time will be the order of the program.

The back porch of the Center still needs furniture. We meant to say, last week, that the giver could be sure it would be put to immediate use of the boys over here, but the printer couldn't refrain putting that accustomed to in, making it seem as if the articles were intended for immediate shipment. Nevertheless, porch furniture, porch rugs, and hammocks are needed here, and if you have any to spare, please call Miss Everett at 12.

The Allies are holding the line in France. Are you helping to hold the line in Highland Park?

Look out for more crime in the Cities. The Turks are preparing to restore order there.

The cry of the Civil War "we are coming Father Abraham two hundred thousand strong" is being repeated by the negroes in this world war. Eighty thousand have been called to the colors and two hundred sixty four have received citations for bravery in France.

In an excellent treatise on the American Negro, Miss Josephine Woodman gave facts about the black man, once a burden and undesirable citizen, but now a valuable asset to the south. Mrs. Ira Gardner told of the home life of the negro at the meeting of the Woman's Missionary Society held at the home of Mrs. T. L. Knaak Thursday afternoon. Reports of the annual Home Missionary Society meeting at the Bohemian Settlement, house auxiliary, were given by Mesdames F. H. Meyer, T. L. Knaak and E. H. Johnson respectively.
