HIGHLAND PARK'S WAR PLOT BLOWS UP
 Mysterious Item Published in The Press on March twenty-eight Is Explained
 Highland Park's war plot blew up recently and the long expected Hun holocaust proved to be nothing more dangerous than the loud explosion of a family row.
 For four weeks several of our patriotic citizens have been conducting a still hunt for German propagandists Hinton G. Clabaugh of the department of justice, on the strength of representations brought to his office, ordered a thorough inquiry.
Paragraph Starts Fear
 The first suspicion of a plot came with the publication of the following paragraph in the Highland Park Press on March 28.
 "Thirty years ago, the 22d of April a baby girl, Alice Elizabeth, was born to Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Kurtz of Milwaukee. The baby lived fourteen days, when she passed away, leaving Mr. and Mrs. Kurtz childless."
 A half dozen citizens picked up our paper the night of its issue and all reached the same conclusion. It was a notice of some new outrage that the Huns were planning. Similar paragraphs, they remembered to have heard, had been published before the blowing up of the Lusitania and prior to other debacles hatched by Teuton devilishness.
Key Is Discovered
 "It's a German message in code," was the decision of the investigators, but the key had not been found until two weeks ago. It was furnished by Mrs. Fred Maechtle of Laurel Ave. "I sent in the notice," she said. "I sent it in to serve notice on a woman named Mrs. William Grassie of Derby, N. Y., that she is not my daughter, as she believes herself to be. I told her I would surprise her one of these days. She married a Scotch gardener against my wishes and because my husband's relatives wanted her to. I am no plotter. I just wanted the notice in the Press where she could read it, for she takes the paper. I did not put the notice in any other newspaper."
 "My name thirty years ago was Mrs. Joseph Kurtz. My baby died and they put Alice Elizabeth in its place. I never learned the deception myself until she was 13 or 14 years old. Then I learned it from some letters my husband had. He is dead now and so is Alice Elizabeth's mother. The girl never knew until she read it, that she was not my own daughter."

WINDY CITY ECHOES FROM 13th ENGINEERS A. E. F.
 Press is in receipt of interesting Monthly Publication issued by the Boys "Over There"
 On Monday morning, Mr. A. Stupp brought into the office a copy of "Windy City Echoes", a very neat little paper published by the 13th Engineers Ry., with the American make the date of publication agree with the number of the regiment the editor, S. L. Beckwith, issues on the 13th of the month. The men insist, however, that it's the "lucky thirteenth"—such optimism! Each company of the regiment has its space for news and each item tingles with wit.
 The following is some of the "funny stuff" contained therein, "choice bungalows, for rent, with all modern conveniences, except water, light, heat, floors and bathroom. Large knot holes, provided for rain drops, ventilation unexcelled."
 The way that these "dauntless engineers" mix the French language with the English, would shock the ordinary French scholar in America, but it amuses us.
 Nor is the little publication all fun, part of it is devoted to editorials of the most encouraging spirit, words, written by company commanders, who thus speak through the paper to all the men.
 One article is in appreciation of victrola records sent to the boys, mentioning the name of Mrs. Stupp as one of those who had generously sent her store of records. It says that the records could not have been more appreciated anywhere else.
 On the whole the paper is very good, it shows what is being done for our brave American Sammies.
