WORK OF ARDEN SHORE

It was planned last winter, to keep open house in the fine new building for convalescent men, fathers of some of these same children whose acquaintance was made in the summer. Because of the shortage of coal this was impossible, but for six weeks in the spring this plan worked most beneficially, and from sixty to eighty men were cared for.

Through the summer, also, convalescents are taken, and naturally the care of them is more expensive. Two extra meals each day are provided and the laundry work of that section is a large item.

In the kindergarten each morning about one pint of milk per child has been consumed.

Some little folks are very underfed when they arrive and can scarcely walk, but before the two weeks have passed the difficulty is to keep them reasonably quiet.

Nearly always in years past a fete or fair has been given for the benefit of Arden Shore, but because of the many war activities this year, the directors have felt that their reliance must be placed upon subscriptions. There is greater need of the work this year than ever, for wages have not been raised sufficiently to be commensurate with prices; the women of those districts have not learned the newer recipes of conservation; and the need of keeping home fires intact during these transitional times is greater than ever. Three dollars and twenty-five cents has been found to be the cost of the maintenance of one person for one week at Arden Shore, and every one who visits the place feels that this is a small bit to spare for the love to the treatment dweller.

Let us Highland Parkers have a big picnic there on August 12 and see what is being done.

Let us take enough in our basket luncheon to give the eighteen noble helpers a treat also, so that they may, if possible, have a spread and cold-party after we have gone.

$3.25 keeps a mother and little baby one week.

$5.00 keeps a mother and small child one week.

$40.00 cares for a convalescent child or boy all summer (special care).

Subscriptions may be sent to Mrs. Robert E. Gregory of Highland Park or may be handed to any one of the following ladies who may live near:

PHOTOGRAPHS WANTED OF MEN LOST IN WAR

Navy is Collecting Likenesses of Those Who Have Lost Lives in Serving Our Country

Through the Bureau of Navigation the Navy Department is now collecting photographs of all men of the service who have lost their lives in service against the enemy. To perpetuate the memory of these men who have made the sacrifice their pictures are to be preserved in the various training stations of the country. Secretary Daniels has requested that these photographs be sent to the Department by the next of kin.

As rapidly as these pictures are received copies are made and the originals returned to the owners. A photograph of each man is then forwarded to the training station where he began his career in the service. There, a memorial gallery of honor or a hero's corner is formed so that for all time the faces of the men of the Navy who have made the supreme sacrifice may be honored by the youths of the future sent to the station for training.

Relatives of men who have been lost in the present war who have not received requests for pictures are asked to mail them to the Department for this memorial. All pictures should be securely wrapped after they have been marked with the name, branch of service and training station the young man entered after enlistment. These should be addressed to the Recruiting Division, Bureau of Navigation, Navy Department, Washington, D. C. When copied the photograph will be returned to the sender with one of the copies.

MORE BOOKS WANTED FOR SOLDIERS AND SAILORS

Fiction, Biography, Poetry and History, Desired. Leave at Public Library for Forwarding

"What do soldiers read?"

The experience of A. L. A. camp librarians proves that one might as well ask, "What grows in the United States," and expect a brief answer. Find what the American public reads and you will find what the American soldier reads.

The answer is that he reads everything. Camp librarians are called upon one minute for modern fiction, the next minute they are looking for an advanced textbook on engineering.

"Donors of books for soldiers should remember that the American soldier wants all sorts of books, so long as they are good books," is the advice that comes from headquarters of the A. L. A. War Service in the Library of Congress.

Textbooks offered must not be out of date. Those published before 1910 are not generally acceptable. Salacious books will never reach the camps. It is useless to send them. Fiction is always in demand, of course. But the soldiers want poetry, too. Many expensive 1918 books, especially on technical subjects, must be purchased. Every volume of fiction, biography, poetry or history donated will release more money from the A. L. A. War Service Fund for the purchase of books of instruction.

Persons responding to the call for books can apply the test, "Would the men of my acquaintance enjoy this book?" If the answer is in the affirmative it's a good book for camp libraries.

All books may be left at the Highland Park Public Library. From there they are sent direct to the camps.

LAKE COUNTY AND NEARBY NEWS NOTES

mobile accident last week. Mrs. Moroy was well known among teachers of Highland Park, as a faithful attendant at county institutes. For a few years past she has had supervision of primary work in Waukegan. This summer she has been in constant attendance upon a disease-stricken father. On Wednesday, July 24, Dr. and Mrs. L. E. Thomas invited her to go with the family for a ride to Lincoln Park. It was the first pleasure trip Mrs. Moroy had allowed herself for a long time. At the corner of Milwaukee and Carmen avenues another auto collided with the Thomas car. Mrs. Moroy was thrown out in such a way that she landed on her head so that her skull was fractured back of her ear. She was taken to St. Elizabeth Hospital and operated upon. No one else in the party was seriously injured. Mrs. Moroy survived the operation and has periods of glimmering consciousness. All Waukegan is watching with anxiety the daily bulletins concerning her condition published in the Waukegan papers.

"FRANCE, OUR ALLY"
BOOK GIVEN OUR BOYS

In Europe by Y. M. C. A. as Corrective of Ideals Presented in French Musical Comedy

All of the Lake County people who are interested in the boys "over there" will be further interested to know that a million copies of a book let entitled "France, Our Ally," are being distributed to every soldier and sailor in Europe. It is said to be a step toward getting the soldier away from the musical comedy of the French people and an effort to present the true ideals and proportions of that remarkable nation. The book which is given free by the Y. M. C. A. to all enlisted men, is also intended to overcome any lack of understanding of the French.

Every dollar spent for Y. M. C. A. war work is a dollar spent toward the comfort and education of our boys.

Not Built in a Day

A SUBSTANTIAL, successful and trustworthy financial institution cannot be built in a day. When you deposit your money, expecting it to be available, prudence and sound judgment will dictate that you select an institution with an established reputation for strength, safety and banking ability. This bank was not built in a day. Its foundation was laid way back yonder in 1899. Ever since, faithfully, persistently, uninterruptedly it has been building—building in strength—building in public confidence—building in quality of service to its patrons. Our reward for such building comprises: depositors numbering several thousand, capital, surplus and undistributed earnings reaching $100,000, total resources hovering around the million dollar mark. Are you a customer of this bank? If not, why not?

THAT FISHY SMELL

Well, the great olfactory mystery of Lake Michigan is again reopened. Comes now Dr. Charles E. M. Fischer of the Fischer laboratories in the Marshall Field annex and puts an innocuous question upon the astero-nellastomatocyst-chlorophyceae theory advanced yesterday in The Tribune by Langdon Pearce, official bacteriologist of the sanitary district.

That daily fishy smell that has been assailing the nostrils and imaginations of Chicagoans emanates from the little diatoms, which is now summing in our midst some billions of trillions strong. The diatoms is a vegetable microscopic plant, and is present in all waters, but the exceedingly warm weather of the last few weeks has caused it to increase or reproduce here in abnormal ratio to the quantity of water. Therefore the smell. It will have little effect upon the city health.

For those who are considering buying gas tanks Dr. Fischer issues the prediction that the odor will gain strength and volume as the water will continue to become warmer, as the summer days roll on.

YOUTHFUL AVIATOR

The war has produced many youthful aviators, but Great Lakes has the youngest of them all in the person of "Billy" Modett, eight-year-old son of the Commandant.

"Billy," after diplomatic negotiations extending over a period of weeks, persuaded Lieutenant Lee Hammond to take him for an aerial spin Sunday. Ensign L. A. Vilas also was a passenger. The flight was made in one of the Station seaplanes.

Starting from the lake shore near the bathhouse, the plane made a long swoop out over the lake, circling back over the Main Station buildings. At one point an altitude of 1,000 feet was reached. "Billy" was radiant during the entire trip, his only disappointment being that the flight lasted only half an hour.

"Gee, that was great," was his comment on reaching home after the trip. "It felt just like going up in an elevator."

"And," he added later, on helping himself to his third piece of cake and a third slice of watermelon, "it certainly gave me an appetite."

LAKE CO. BOYS IN DRIVE

That the Illinois' famous Prairie Division, of which Col. A. V. Smith's men from Waukegan are a part, is in the fighting "up to the neck" is indicated by the constantly increasing flow in the casualty lists of names of men who trained with it at Camp Logan, Houston, Tex. The lists tell of the sacrifices of men belonging to the old "Dandy First," the old 2nd regiment, and others long famous in Illinois national guard history. That they spent the Fourth of July in heavy action is indicated also by the fact that several of them are reported to have been wounded on that date.

A total of 16 names of men from Chicago and vicinity are contained in Friday's lists or unofficial reports—three dead—two killed in action and one dead of wounds—11 wounded, one gassed, and one missing. Of these two were not in the official lists.
