The Social Side of Life Local Affairs of the week

By the Observer

We United States citizens men and women, have become conscious of much that we were dead to before the ominous war cloud lowered above our horizon. Patriotism itself lay more or less dormant in many of us until the cloud broke over our heads. One of war's great compensations is that it binds all classes more closely into one to mutually help one another in the acute season of distress. The consciousness that one can help even by so slight an act as abstaining from indulgence in sugar tends to quicken a proud sense of proprietorship in this glorious country of ours. A wise and thoughtful woman, Miss Mary Wood Hinman, addressed the members of the Good Comrade Club Monday evening and told them that if they went to the soldier and sailor dances, bent only upon the "love game," they were pro-Germans; that what our country needed now were strong women who, during the war, would submerge the sex sense and be as willing as men to lead the hard, abstemious life, no white bread-and-butter-and-sugar till Peace should reign again. Last Saturday night at the Highland Park Club, the "Good Comrades" entertained over one hundred men in "blue and khaki" at a dance, skillfully conducted by Mr. Eugene Bourinque. The latter half was a cotillion. Some of the girls felt at first that it was a hardship to be obliged to refuse to allow the uniformed men at the dance to see them home. This is one of the rules of the club, that no soldier or sailor shall be allowed to escort a lady home from the dance, unless he shall have been received previously in her home. Naturally many of the capable young women of the club felt that they were abundantly able to judge for themselves and take care of themselves in such matters. But when they were reminded that such a ruling might save a weaker sister, they acquiesced like sensible girls. Miss Hinman said that some of the fellows had confessed to her that the arrangement was a relief to them, as it enabled them to dance until the time limit without any suspected omission of gallantry in not offering to escort the ladies to their respective abiding places.

Other animated signs of a civilian population still alive were the gala golf game at Old Elm Club Sunday, where the fees amounted to about $5,000.00, all to be given to the Red Cross, and the well-attended grand opera at Ravinia Park, with a sporty time Saturday afternoon, when the Municipal Pier Jackies came out and competed in games with our Great Lakes fellows. The usual Saturday afternoon dance for uniformed men at the casino was spiritedly conducted under the chaperonage of Glencoe ladies, who also served.

A very patriotic spirit and much enthusiasm was shown by the great number of people who attended the "Jockey Band" concert and Thrift Stamp campaign Friday evening at the School Assembly Hall. Many patriotic songs and popular airs were played by the Jackie band. Mr. Munson and Mr. Hawthorn of Waukegan and Mr. Sedgewick of Highland Park gave a few short addresses on the absolute necessity of purchasing Liberty bonds, War saving stamps, etc., to help our boys win this war. War saving stamps to the amount of seven thousand dollars were sold to the people of Deerfield. Everybody readily responded to the sales. Over one hundred dollars in thrift stamps were sold on the floor.

Mr. Arthur Ender had charge of the thrift stamps and Mrs. Alex Willman, Misses Hermina Haunschild, Elda Hornberger, Ruth Kress and Mr. Ralph Horenberger took part in selling the stamps. Mr. B. H. Kress, Mesdames Eugene Ender, B. H. Kress and Miss Clara Ender had charge of the refreshments.

Dancing followed the program and concert music being furnished by the band.

A lot of credit is due Mr. Arthur Ender who made every effort to make the meeting a success.

PATIO AND GROUNDS OF OLD ELM CLUB

Proceeds of Last Sunday's Golf Match and Reception $5,000. To be Given to Red Cross

Old Elm Club must be a fascinating place, according to a Chicago reporter who prettily paints the patio in these words: "A miniature fountain, an abundance of ferns and flowers, little canary birds flitting about make an entrancing spot."

The members of the Illinois motor corps, under the direction of Capt. Helen Walton, met the trains and motored the guests to the club. The Misses Caryl Dunham, Florence Folds, Margaret Pirie, Betty Hoyt, Marion Osborne, Lolita Armour, Catherine Casselberry, Helen Hoyne, Katherine Pierce, Adelaide Pierce, Dorothy Derby, Elizabeth Carpenter, Marion Clow, Alice Bradley, Elizabeth Adst, Barbara Granger, Martha Granger, Catherine Blossom, and Margaret Strawn served ice cream, and cake, and punch after the match.

All during the afternoon a jackie band from the Great Lakes played beneath the old elm trees, entertaining those who preferred to sit on the terrace rather than follow the match. The beautiful grounds were almost as enthusiastically admired by the feminine part of the gallery as was the clubhouse, although the perfect greens and sporty bunkers and hazards could not erase from the memory the picture of the unique clubhouse.

One might judge from this account that interest in the golf match was secondary to that in the club, but the gallery that followed the players was large and greatly interested in the match.

Mrs. W. A. Alexander was in charge of arrangements and assisting her as hostesses were: Mrs. C. T. Boynton, Mrs. Benjamin H. Marshall, Mrs. George E. Marcy, Mrs. Cyrus Hall McCormick, Mrs. R. Harvey McElwee, Mrs. Donald R. McLennan, Mrs. W. Irving Osborne, Mrs. Sillie H. Strawn, Mrs. William V. Kelley.

Hutchinson and MacDonald won the match. John Reid, of Racine, former vice-president of the United States Golf Association, was referee. The proceeds of the affair amounted to about $5,000.00, and these were contributed to the coffers of the Red Cross.

Y. W. C. A. NEWS

Miss Mary Wood Hinman gave an address to the Good Comrade Club Monday evening at the Y. W. C. A. Gymnasium that attracted a great number of young women, who carried away with them many ideas worth while in this work that appeals to women and girls at this particular time. It seems too bad for any girls to miss an address of this kind, as Miss Hinman is so splendid in dealing with the problems that confront the public-spirited girls. Miss Ruth Beardsley, the club president, had charge of the meeting. Miss Helen Coale gave a vocal solo and Miss Pownall a piano selection.

Miss Ann McKenzie enlisted the aid of the club in helping to furnish a rest room at Detention Hospital, Great Lakes, for the Jackies.

Miss Hinman said: "I belong to an older generation and no one talked to me as I am talking to you. I have had my day and look upon these boys in the light of sons; on the other hand, you may be their wives, unless you marry slackers. Don't play the love game now. Do nothing that will send those men back to the camp, thinking of you and wishing they need not go 'over there.' If you do you are a German. Play the game fair. Abandon coquetish tactics that at other times would be your privilege."

The Mothers' Club picnic at Ravinia last Thursday afternoon called out over sixty mothers, children and Board members.

The day was ideal, the concert and children's program most enjoyable, and every one had a delightful time.

Miss Mary Colton gives bird talks to the Junior girls Friday afternoon at 3 P. M. at the Association Gymnasium. She is the daughter of Mrs. Colton, who has been giving such wonderful talks on birds to the adult members on Tuesday evenings, and the children enjoy it quite as much as the older people. The regular monthly Board meeting will be held Tuesday morning, August 13th, at 9:30 A. M., in the Gymnasium.
