The Highland Park Press

NUMBER 25

HIGHLAND PARK, ILLINOIS, THURSDAY, AUGUST 22, 1918

VOLUME 8

BUY-AT-HOME CAMPAIGN TO BE LAUNCHED HERE

NEED CO-OPERATION OF ALL

Purpose to Create a Desire in The Minds of All Our Own
People to Trade in Highland Park.

It is with a certain feeling of pride that the Press announces the launching of this big, vital civic campaign with the hope of bringing to our citizens a realization of their community obligations and the fact that Highland Park will profit therefrom, which make co-operation a vital necessity under the peculiar economic conditions brought about by the war.

We take pride in the fact that this newspaper has been the first to promote this question of "BUYING AT HOME" in a comprehensive and well planned campaign and that so many of our progressive men are lending their co-operation to the movement. With a full realization of the tremendous responsibility such a campaign involves us, we are ready to "put our shoulder to the wheel" and do or utmost for its success. We ask the consideration and co-operation of all loyal citizens—men, women and children, that you take this matter to heart and resolve that you will do your part toward making this a bigger and better city.

It is the purpose of this campaign to create a real, definite sentiment in the minds of our people to the end that it will take concrete form, being evidenced by the conclusion of each individual to spend his or her money in Highland Park.

Our city is full of energetic, live and loyal citizens and we deem it only necessary to awaken in them a feeling of community obligation in order that they will see and know the fallacy of sending their money away from Highland Park.

Our city is singularly blessed with enterprising merchants. They pride themselves on the completeness of their stocks and the accurate attention to styles. Their prices compare favorably with other cities, and they are striving to render complete and satisfactory service to their customers. Yet, with all these advantages, thousands of dollars have been going out of this city for merchandise which could just as well have been purchased here.

The business men have therefore joined the buy-at-home movement in launching this campaign for the purpose of setting forth facts that will be of intense interest to the citizens of Highland Park.

This is not a sentimental plea—rather, it is the purport of this campaign to show wherein it is more advantageous to spend money made in Highland Park with local firms.

We want service at home. We demand a certain amount of service in our home town from our home merchants. Everyone knows that these home merchants are working against constantly changing conditions, brought on by the war, and in most cases imposed by the Government. They realize the fact that these changing conditions are inevitable, and quite necessary to the effective prosecution of the war. The people, however, do not realize this. Our local merchants have a right to more than a supplementary business. They should have the trade of Highland Park.

Now citizens of Highland Park, this is a matter of vital concern to you and yours. We ask that you heed Continued on Page 4

EXMOOR TOURNEY NETS $5,000 FOR DOUGHNUTS

Auction of All-Players and Entrance Fees Yield Goodly Sum for Salvation Army.

Approximately $5000 was added to the Salvation Army fund of the Exmoor Country club by the invitation handicap tournament of eighteen holes staged there last week by John H. Cullter and Charles H. Hermann. Following the luncheon there was an auction at which each of the ninety-five players was bid on. Bidding was brisk, the prices ranging from $25 to $250. Champion Charles Frans, Jr., brought the top price. The money thus realized was added to an entry fee of $10.

K. C. TO OPEN NEW RECREATION CENTERS

One is Planned for Waukegan, Five for Great Lakes and One for Chicago.

Another war recreation camp is to be located in Waukegan and the money already has been raised for the purpose. The project is under the supervision of the Knights of Columbus and consists of the establishment of a recreation house sufficiently large to accommodate soldiers and sailors in the most comfortable manner.

The money is already at general headquarters in Washington and all that is necessary to start the project is detailed report of what is to be done there and how much is needed. It is a part of the program which means, besides the recreation camp in Waukegan, five at Great Lakes and one in Chicago.

The Waukegan committee in charge is attempting to secure either a large building down town or an adequately large residential property, which can be converted to the best advantage.

The recreation center will be conducted along lines similar to the Jolly Tars, Navy Clubs, Jewish Navy Club, and similar institutions.

PRESS TO INAUGURATE SONS-IN-SERVICE COL.

Extracts, from Letters, Experiences, Description of Places, Changes, Etc., Are Solicited.

In order to perpetuate the name which originated in Highland Park, and in order to keep the parents of the boys in service in closer touch with news of all the boys sent to the service of their country from our town, we will open a column in next week's issue of the Press called Sons in Service. We shall widen the term to include all sons of the city of Highland Park, and shall endeavor to give all news items of interest concerning these men. Mrs. Fayette Munro will conduct this column. All those receiving letters from men in service are requested to send them in to the Press or telephone Mrs. Munro, extracts from letters, accounts of experiences, description of places, changes or promotions. Mothers are particularly requested to help with this column. If it is not convenient for them to come to the Press office please notify us and a representative will call at your home. We believe that this column will go a long way toward brightening dark corners and vacant places.

Our city is full of energetic, live and loyal citizens and we deem it only necessary to awaken in them a feeling of community obligation in order that they will see and know the fallacy of sending their money away from Highland Park.

Notice to Subscribers

Owing to the heavy increase in skilled labor, paper, metal, ink and every factor which goes to the making of a newspaper, publishers all over the country found it necessary a year ago to raise their subscription prices. The Highland Park Press, in the face of this increasing necessity which daily grew more imperative, has withheld until this time from making such a raise in subscription prices. It now becomes necessary to announce that, after September 1st, we shall raise the yearly subscription of this paper from one dollar and fifty cents to two dollars.

Special Inducement for August.

All new subscriptions received before September 1st will be entered at the old rate of one dollar and fifty cents. All those renewing old subscriptions, whether they are due now or any time next year, will receive the benefit of this special August rate.

WAR CAMP COMMUNITY SERVICE HEADQUARTERS

BASKET PICNIC AT ARDEN SHORE, SUCCESS

ARMY AND NAVY CENTER A $3,500 DEFICIT TO BE MET

Board of Directors Thank All Who Have Aided This Year. Letters of Appreciation Are Received.

The last basket picnic of the Arden Shore Board and its friends was held Monday, August 12th at the camp, with the largest and most enthusiastic attendance of the season. There were about seventy present. All were much entertained by the program given by the kindergarten, the boys' section, the convalescent ward and the waitress group. Possibly the boxing match provided the greatest amount of merriment. Many made the most of the opportunity to wander about and inspect the buildings and note the improvements. The season closes Friday, August 30th, with the deepest regrets of the entire camp.

The Board of Directors wishes to thank all those who have helped, either with gifts or with funds, to make the year a success. To show the benefits of the out-door life for the children and tired mothers at the camp, the superintendent is pleased to be able to quote from a couple of letters she has received this past week from the city. One from the Hannahman Hospital is as follows:

"One of our patients gained twelve pounds in one month at Arden Shore. What more could we ask?" The other from a large concern in Chicago which had sent some of its employees for an outing:

"The workers in our office want to express our gratitude to you and all who are helping to make Arden Shore such a special happiness and benefit to our people this year. We do appreciate the lengthening of time for such a number and everyone, this year, is simply enraptured at the good times they have had. They never forget to mention how nice the food is."

The receipt of these and similar letters and of the oft repeated words, "May I come back next year?" have made the Board of Directors realize how necessary and how far-reaching the work is and hope that the deficit of $3,500.00 will be promptly met by the friends and loyal supporters along the North Shore.

Contributions, large or small, can be sent to Mrs. Wm. G. Hubbard, Jr., Willow Street, Winnetka, Ill. or to Miss Edith Boynton, Highland Park, or to Mrs. Charles H. Thorne, P. O. Box 221, Lake Forest, Ill.

Miss Fannie J. Cross Instantly Killed Near Arden Shore, Yesterday. Had Been Visiting Here.

Miss Fannie J. Cross, one of the teachers on the Elm Place school staff, was struck by an electric train near Arden Shore station, yesterday afternoon and instantly killed. She had come to Highland Park earlier in the day to have a conference with Mr. Smith and arrange for a home for the coming school year. Then she went to Arden Shore to call on friends and afterwards to the station to take a car for Libertyville where it was her plan to visit her niece. Miss Cross had substituted at Highland Park from February to June, 1917, and in June of this year was given a permanent position here. Her untimely death deprives Highland Park of a woman of great promise. Her nearest kin are a brother and sister in Idaho.

HIGHWOOD GIRLS TO BEGIN MILITARY DRILL

To Start Course of Training Under Officer of S. A. T. C. at Fort Sheridan.

All young ladies in Highwood who are interested in military drill are urgently requested to meet at the Patriotic League rooms next Wednesday evening, August twenty-eighth, and from there proceed to the Fort Sheridan Reservation where they will begin a course of training under the capable direction of an officer of the S. A. T. C. at Fort Sheridan.

The committee in charge of arrangements were in despair after an interview with one of the officers who said, "I am afraid it will be hard to furnish you with an officer who isn't profane," but they were greatly relieved when, after some serious thought, he recalled an officer who did not swear much, who was very strict with military discipline and who would not even remember a girl's name or the color of her dress. So girls, there's no chance for rivalry. Be patriotic and attend. Remember to meet at the League rooms next Wednesday evening to form a corps which is desirous of military drill.

STREET CORNER MEETING OF SALVATION ARMY

SERGEANT STANLEY TO SPEAK

Waukegan Fire and Drum Corps Will Furnish Music Saturday Night, Aug. 24. No Collection Taken.

The Salvation Army is coming to Highland Park! They will inaugurate their drive here in true street-corner fashion next Saturday evening at 8:45 on the corner of First and Central Streets.

Sergeant Stanley, who is one of the eight survivors of the Princess Patricia's Light Infantry of 2,500 and who has been wounded eleven times, will speak at this open air rally. State's Attorney James M. Welch will preside.

The Liberty Pipe and Drum Corps of Waukegan will furnish the music. No collection will be taken at this time. The meeting is called for the purpose of organizing a drive for war funds which will be launched next week.

That the work of the Salvation Army is heartily endorsed by President Wilson, General Pershing, Field Marshal Haig is not at all surprising to the American public. For years the poke-bonnet and the uniform have been a familiar auxiliary of every American city. They never court attention. They have no press-agents. Modest, self-effacing, and wholly devoted to the direct and simple method of saving souls, they go about their business.

The Governor's Testimony. "Simple and sympathetic," says Gov. Lowden, "they give with one hand the pie or the doughnut, which the mother would give if she were there, and with the other the hearty handshake which reminds the boys of home. This is a war for democracy, and for humanity. And no agency which has so far engaged in this war better typifies the spirit of democracy and humanity than the Salvation Army."

When Judge Lindsey was passing through Chicago last month on his way home from a six months' visit at the front, seeing an appeal in the Chicago Tribune for the Salvation Army, he went direct to the newspaper office and delivered himself of a store of accumulated impressions in regard to their noble work over there. His heart was full of the subject, and he was anxious and grateful for a medium through which he could convey his appreciation to the public.

He has eaten their doughnuts, their chocolate, pie, and coffee. There is no such thing as a doughnut in France except those that are made by Americans over there, and such as our boys love pie, the American pie is an unknown quantity.

Often as he passed them in the trenches or back of the lines, the boys would call out, "Judge, when you get home tell the folks not to forget the Salvation Army. They are the real thing."

The Judge has eaten their doughnuts and knows that they are the real thing. "I have shared with the boys," said the judge, the doughnuts and chocolate and coffee that seemed so much better than any other doughnuts or chocolate or coffee I ever tasted before. And when it seemed so wonderful to me after just a mild sort of experience down a shell swept road, through the damp and cold of a French winter day, what must it be to those boys after trench raids or red-hot scraps falling in rain soaked trenches!

"How well I remember after the "Battle of Shellsprey," as our boys called it, following with one of them an exciting chase around dead man's curve down from the heights of Beaumont, to draw up breathlessly in a shell torn village to be welcomed by the gang with a wild joyful acclaim. "Come this way, Judge, the old Salvation Army is sticking with us like a brother—sinkers and chocolate and coffee!"

Visited them in a Cellar. "And down around, the broken buildings with shell still whizzing overhead, I was rushed by a group of cheery doughboys to meet Miss So and So, and Miss So and So, (their names somewhere in my note book) down an old cellar cleared of debris.

"Over the cheeriest fire I ever saw, boiling in good American lard, were the finest fried cakes I ever put in my mouth. In America two of them— Continued on Page 4
