SALVATION ARMY IN OPEN AIR MEETING

DRIVE NOT COMING HERE

Wankegan Committee in Charge. Capt. Kranz and Sergeant Stanley Give Stirring Addresses.

Last Saturday evening, according to announcement, the Salvation Army under the auspices of a Waukegan committee came to Highland Park and held a typical street corner meeting. The Liberty Fife and Drum Corps marched from East Central to the appointed place on the corner of Central and First. It was a lively meeting and one that was vide themselves with the following well attended.

Mr. James Welch opened the meeting from an improvised platform and introduced the speakers. The first was Captain James Kranz of the Salvation Army, who opened his remarks by saying "The boys over there have said that the Salvation Army has done more work than any other organization and asked for nothing from the people." He modestly disclaimed this tribute but added that it was true that they were first in the field 'over there' and last to ask for assistance.

He spoke of the fact that people in America were getting "fed up" on war drives and war demands. By this he meant that they had been accosted so much and had given so much that they were in danger now of not feeling the urgency of appeals. than 9:30 to get their guns and On the same principle a man from the country gives to a beggar on the street corner the first time he sees him, the next day he does not feel quite so sorry for him and gives less, by the fourth appeal his sympathy impulse has ceased to function. The American people are in very grave danger of adopting this same attitude toward the constant demands Captain Turpin, who took sick will on its pocket-book. "But if we are bronchial pneumonia while at Camp getting tired of demands for funds Steever, Lake Geneva, The captain to carry on this war, what are the boys feeling 'over there'! It is a thing that has come into our lives to thrill us, said the earnest Captain, it is a duty that has come to' us to help save our country and prosecute this war to the end. It is not charity. It is our share."

Sergt. James Stanley, one of the eighty-eight survivors of the noted learned some of the latest army tac-Princess Pat regiment, who has been tics while away and at the Monday wounded eleven times, told something night drill Company C was of his experiences in the two battles through the latest tactics in open or potatoes, red kidney beans, cabbage of Ypres. The enthusiastic crowd der work. responded loyally to his fervent appeal. Time after time, the hat was passed and emptied of crisp bills. One woman who had failed to bring money with her, and whose husband had only a little change, left the crowd and went home to get an offering adequate to the demand upon her conscience.

Drive Not Coming to Highland Park Ninety dollars was raised on the street corner Saturday night. Our quota was $1750. It is said that

Highland Park people have already

RESERVE MILITIA WILL GO INTO CAMP

Co. C to Entrain at Ten Thirty Saturday Morning, August Thirtyfirst for Camp Logan.

The First Regiment, Illinois Reserve Militia, including Company of this city will entrain Saturday morning for a three-day campment a Camp Logan.

It was hoped that it would be pos sible to go into camp for a couple of weeks at least, but as most of the regiment is composed of business men it was found almost impossible for most of them to get away for that long a period. However, the three days will give our boys a taste o real army camp life.

The men of Company C will pre

CITIZENS OF HIGHLAND PARK

We have failed in the Red Cross Drive. We have lagged behind in the War Savings Stamp Campaign. The Salvation Army, that noble body of hard-working, self-effacing patriots, has not inaugurated a drive here at all. The gates of our city were

What are we going to do? Shall we submit and go down in the history of this war as a purely venal wealthy suburb of a great city? True, our quota is determined according to the wealth of our population. Every man of means in this town unless he contributes his pro rata share commensurate with his income, has laid just that much of his own burden on the citizens of his community. Their heavy tonnage has been added to our little craft, but their hands are not at the oars.

It is too late to recall our failures in the other drives, but it is not too late to do something about the Salvation Army They are an army too like our army of "boys." They are fighting for justice and humanity too, as well as our boys. Shall we let

Let those who have patriotism-let those who have civie pride-prepare to show it now!
