Hundreds of thousands have already visited the wonderful U. S. GOVERNMENT WAR EXPOSITION at Lake Front. Every feature of the WORLD WAR is vividly depicted—life in the trenches, "Over the Top," the tank "Britannia" in action, aerial combats, etc., etc. September 15th is the closing date for the Exposition. You can get there most conveniently by traveling via the North Shore Line. Limited trains running on fast schedule convey you directly to Chicago's Loop; it is but a few minutes' walk from the Grounds.
