Constance McCormick Shields

(Continued from Page One) Culver and Robert Shields, all in the service. James Shields is at Paris Island, South Carolina, engaged construction of cantonment for Marines; the other two brothers at in France. Culver Shields is secon lieutenant, Field Artillery, Headquar ters, 58th Brigade, and Robert M. Shields is first lieutenant, Co. C. 30

Constance Shields was the daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. James H. Shields, for many years valued citizens of Highland Park. She grew up with a large family of brothers and sisters in the beautiful Shields home on Prospect Ave. and the lake. She attended Highland Park Schools and went for a short period to Rye Seminary, New York.

Funeral services were held at the Shields residence. Wednesday afternoon at 2:45. The presence of number of army nurses in uniform and the display of the American Flag lent military dignity to the funeral. A number of friends gathered at the home and were seated on the porch while Rev. P. C. Wolcott conducted the service. The burial at Graceland Cemetery was private.

This chronicling of a few facts in a life such as Constance Shields' is but a poor little sketch in black and white of a beautiful flower, the warm tints of which remain unrevealed. I does not even furnish a key to the imagination of one who did not know her, her modesty beauty and grace; the warmth of her affections, the tender and spontaneous generosity, so habitual to her in the friendships she loved to cultivate; the deftness of her fingers and her rich artistic side the struggle for several years with lack of physical strength to do the things her fine spirit aspired to do; and, finally, the heroic idealism that prompted the offering of herself in the hardest department of war service. But to those who knew and loved her, the memory of her life will remain as the fragrance of flower, a something too delicate to Her passing out of life with hosts of stricken soldiers in training suggests the rich bloom the poppy amongst the ripening wheat that Longfellow sang about in
