

WOOL

Clothing Must Be Conserved

The Government has commandeered the Country's entire supply of Wool—must have it for our boys "over there."

This means economy in woollens heretofore unknown.

Here is where the Master Cleaner can perform a real service. Thorough cleansing at proper intervals almost doubles the life and usefulness of any woolen garment.

Call the Reliable Laundry, Master Cleaners. They can keep your new garment new or make your old ones do. Be sure you call a cleaner who displays the Master Cleaner emblem. It is your guarantee of master service—the service that is the need of the hour.

SONS IN SERVICE

It will be welcome and gratifying news to the friends of Culver Shield and the readers of this column to know that he has been singled out from many worthy fighting men and commended for bravery by the commanding general. The particulars describing the manner in which this Highland Park boy distinguished for bravery are told in greater detail on the first page of this issue.

Following is a copy of a letter written by Charles Culver Shields, 56 F. A. Brigade to his aunt, Mrs. A. S. Tillman:

My Dear Aunt A:
Friday, the 13th, has come and gone badly for the Boche. I was with Col. Hackett, and circulating with him and his regiment during the battle. We were before Mount See on the left wing of our advance before Toul, and we did a good deal of damage to the Hun positions, preparing the way for the Infantry. The barrages were wonderful as also were the tanks and "Hell truly broke loose" just as the tanks went over the tops with the dough-boys at their heels. Nothing could possibly stop the attack from succeeding and Helnie knew it. I guess, and his troops certainly hurried away. If that was an "orderly retreat" as he prints it I'd hate to be in a rout.

One outfit captured on Mount See wore Red Cross brassards on their arms and carried machine guns, and were lucky to be spared as captives. I found some Hun rifle bullets with one-quarter of the end nipped off making the finest kind of dum-dums. They are certainly devils incarnate in their devices of treachery, but we are on to him now, and don't take any chances.

It was an awful night to start the big show, but even though the elements were against us, rain and mud, we went through just the same. We drove the Hun back so fast that we had to leave practically all our baggage behind and just took food and a blanket for the three days' party.

They certainly left some wonderful domiciles around Nonsard, Pannes and Henticourt which helped keep the rain off our already soaked bodies.

Just a hurried note as I'm on the move again and more anon.

Affectionately,
CULVER.

The following is a copy of a letter written by the King of England facsimile copies of which in the King's own handwriting were given out to the men of Bty. D, 330 Field Artillery, just after his majesty had reviewed the troops.

This particular letter is in the possession of Martinus Sorenson and was sent to his sister, Augusta Sorenson for safe keeping. It was through her courtesy that the Press is able to give it to the public.

On the outside of the envelope are the words: "A Message to you from His Majesty King George Vth."

Windsor Castle
Soldiers of the United States, the people of the British Isles welcome you on your way to take your stand beside the Armies of many Nations now fighting in the Old World the great battle for freedom.

The Allies will gain new heart and spirit in your company.

I wish that I could shake the hand of each one of you and bid you God speed on your mission.

GEORGE B. I.

April, 1918.
Addressed to: Martinus Sorenson, Bty. D, 330 Field Art.

Envelope contains words, "A message to you from His Majesty King George Vth."

Following is a letter from Edward Fay, Co. L, 356 Inf., A. E. F., September 24, 1918.

Dear Brother:

Received your letter some time ago while on the big drive. We sure had a grand time going over after the Hun. The day and night before we started it rained like everything and we had this as a fine start. Had to wade through mud and water up to our knees which made us feel like fighting.

We started one morning early and drove for two days, about eight or ten miles through fire and water. Our big guns were blazing away and they were enough to scare a fellow to death without going over.

Well, it came out all O. K. at the end. Made our point in about one day where we were to have been in two.

I wrote to mother. . . . Say hello to all for me. I can't say much, and can't write very much for paper is scarce and we have not moved back where can get everything yet. Will write more soon and tell you more.

Read the paper I sent Wollie for our drive is all nicely written up in it. We sure had a merry chase. It was all unexpected.

Well, all is well. Tell the bunch I have had my chance of it and am still looking for another. If I get back next time, I can say I will be lucky, and then I may be through. Love to all and tell Hontzie I still think I will come back.

EDWARD FAY,
Co. L, 356 Inf., A. E. F.

Corporal Harold Smith, who is with the 46th Infantry stationed at Camp Sheridan, Ala., has been seriously ill with pneumonia, and as we go to press he is very much improved.

Kenneth Melville, who is a member of the Great Lakes Band, has returned home from a trip in the east. Early next month the band will go to Canada to assist in the Liberty Loan drive being launched there.
