NOON DAY BELL TO TOLL FOR PRAYER

Daily Call Upon People of This Community to Pray for Those Who Fight and Die for Us

In view of the universal demand of the Christian heart for fellowship in expressing its deeper desires to God in an hour of national and world need, and in unison with the many others in towns all over the country who have adopted a plan of setting a part a brief daily period for such, the bell of the Presbyterian church will be tolled each day at noon until peace is proclaimed as a call upon the people of this community to unite their prayers for those who fight and die for us, for an appreciation of the issues involved in the war, for strength to finish the task of winning a just peace, for those who loyally serve and sturdily sacrifice at the home front, for individual and worldwide cleansing of the sin which leads to war, for the coming of the kingdom of brotherhood and goodwill.

Fighting Abroad, Saving at Home

THE SUCCESS of the fighting of two million American soldiers abroad hinges largely upon the conduct in the matter of saving and conserving of ninety-eight million American civilians at home.

A successful army in the field is the one which is well trained, well fed, well clothed and well equipped. It needs and must have the undivided support of a patriotic people at home, ready, willing and eager to save, conserve and sacrifice.

Every loyal American should adopt the policy of avoiding waste and saving a fixed amount of the weekly income. That policy adopted, this conserved income should be placed in the old reliable bank where it earns interest and at any time can be withdrawn for war support.

You know and trust the bank.

TELEPHONE COMPANY APPLIES FOR LOCAL RATE INCREASE

Throughout these long years of war, with the price of every commodity constantly advancing; with every kind of material used in the telephone industry from the smallest bolt to the largest cable, together with the thousands of different pieces of equipment used in the construction of the telephone system having doubled, and in many cases trebled in cost price; the Telephone Company has constantly endeavored to uphold its obligations to subscribers and maintain efficient telephone service at pre-war rates.

During the past year expenses have continued to rise and the net revenue to decrease by many hundreds of thousands of dollars. Today the margin of profit has ceased to exist, and on the contrary, the Telephone Company has for many months past been operated at a net loss.

Throughout the protracted period have received due consideration. It was recognized by the Company that they could not support themselves and their dependents on their former, peace time wages.

During the years 1917 and 1918 the Telephone Company, to meet the increased cost of living has successively increased wages to employees, which increased the operating expenses by more than half a million dollars per annum in the Illinois exchanges outside of the City of Chicago, to which must be added, the increased cost of all materials and apparatus used in the upkeep of the Telephone plant.

Nearly all Telephone material prices have increased from 100 to more than 200% during the last three years; which means in simple language that material costing $1.00 in 1915 today costs $2.00, and in many cases $3.00. A glance at the following schedule of some of the essentials of telephone equipment will show the enormous cost increases during the past three years.

Underground cable has increased in cost 136.9%; Aerial cable 139.2%; cable conduit 176.5%; pipes 229.5%; copper wire for toll lines, 171%. A further schedule for all material used in the construction of the Telephone system would show corresponding increases.

The time has now arrived when the Telephone Company must seek relief through an application to the Public Utilities Commission of Illinois for an increase in rates for local telephone service in order to pay war time wages to employees in the Telephone industry; purchase necessary equipment to maintain a high grade of service.

Telephone service is vitally necessary to the Government and to the nation particularly at this time. Material must be purchased at these abnormally high prices to care for the needs of our Government, as well as the normal industrial development, and further Telephone employees should receive adequate wages adjusted as nearly as possible to those prevailing in other industries.

It is under these unusual financial conditions that the Chicago Telephone Company is making application for an increase in its rates for local service. The Telephone Company has held out as long as possible before asking this relief, but has now reached a condition where the interests of the service, employees and the stockholders make it imperative that the revenue be increased.

This application does not cover a permanent increase in rates but will provide temporary relief, which may be discontinued in whole or in part according to the circumstances, when the conditions which are responsible for the present stress are modified or entirely cease in the judgment of the Public Utilities Commission of the State of Illinois.—35—adv.
