WAR CAMP COMMUNITY SERVICE

It seemed refreshing to go into things again, at any rate everybody felt and acted in that spirit on last Saturday evening, November 2nd, at the Trinity Parish House when the young ladies of the Good Comrade Club assisted by a number of other young people, under the direction of Miss Lucille Calkins, helped to give the Army and Navy Boys a jolly good time at a Harvest party and Farmer's Supper. There was fun for every one. Those who did not care to dance were entertained in an adjoining room with various games, such as cards, ping-pong, puzzle games, etc., under the able management of Miss Ethel Spencer. For those who chose it, the dancing was not continuous, as frequent stunts intervened.

There were relay races between couples lined up along the hall; they shoved a croquet ball with a thin club to the platform at one end of the room and back to the next couple and so on, and again, rolling of a small papier-mache hoop was conducted in the same manner. There was something going on every minute. No one had a chance to feel lonesome or left out or be a wall flower unless he chose. Many unique circle games were played. In one two young ladies were blindfolded and were asked to point with a tempin which they held, to a gentleman in the circle. The two couples left the room, then reappeared with huge heads upon their shoulders, one a rooster and the other a hen, made of card board and crepe paper. The roosters danced awhile with the hens then each hen was asked to choose another rooster and each rooster another hen until the entire circle was transformed into dancing couples again. Refreshments consisting of doughnuts, cider and luscious red apples were served. Miss Myrtiam French was chairman of the refreshments committee. Credit must also be given to Miss Margaret Merryweather who was chairman of the committee on decorations. Corn stalks and pumpkins suggested harvest time and Halloween. For a time dancing gave way to a pleasing musical program: Miss Helen Dahn whistled several selections with bird-like trills and warblings. Miss Kish accompanied her on the piano. Mr. Krukner sang several classical numbers with Mr. Marvis at the piano. These gentlemen were from Great Lakes. Mr. Paul Lanning, a Jackie, accompanied by Mr. Mavis, whistled amusing selections. Mr. Lanning and Miss Dahn gave several clever whistling duets with popular music accompanying. Mr. Leo Pelletier of the Great Lakes sang entertaining popular airs. A young sailor boy known as Bobby O'Neil, sang comically a popular song.

"Now you may all choose partners for the 'cake walk,'" announced the director, showing a large cake made of orange crepe paper. So round and round the hall the couples pranced, before the critical eyes of the judges. Miss Johnson of Ravinia, and a Jackie, Mr. Winkleman, "took the cake," and walked away to the strains of a wedding march, causing great laughter. The partners for one dance were determined in a novel way: Two small jack-o'-lanterns were placed, one at either end of the hall and a large one in the center. The young ladies drew from the end pumpkins, and the gentlemen from the center one, neatly folded papers, on one side of which was inscribed their fate, on the other a number. This number matched with another matched the couples for the next dance.

The hosts and hostesses for the evening were:

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Seyfarth, Mr. and Mrs. John Putnam, Mr. and Mrs. James Watson, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Drake, Mr. and Mrs. Stewart Reed Brown, Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Shipnes, Rev. and Mrs. Frank Pitt, Mr. and Mrs. F. M. Terry and Mrs. Paul Chapman, and Miss Clara Sands and Miss Irene Jones.

Rev. P. C. Wolcott announced at the close that the next party would be held in the Girls' Gymnasium at the Deerfield-Shields High School on next Saturday evening, November ninth, at 7:15.

Sunday night a Halloween party was given at the Army and Navy Center to a packed house. Mrs. McGregor Adams gave a most generous supply of decorations and from every shelf and corner Jack O' Lanterns, witches black cats and other weird objects looked down upon the crowd. One of the chief attractions was the Chamber of Horrors in the back room. The walls of this gloomy abode were draped in black with real skulls and cross bones suspended at intervals. Master Edwin Chapman, attired in a suit of brilliant red, with a mask and horns made a most efficient devil. One guest at a time blindfolded, was permitted in this room and when he came out he freely admitted it was a den of horrors.

All the regular stunts of Halloween were indulged in, including a tug-of-war between the Army and Navy. The Army finally won as they were much heavier than the Navy. Miss Frick of Evanston in a very appropriate Gypsy costume, told fortunes. Mr. Bobby O'Neil and other blue jackets sang.

Cider, pumpkin pie, peanuts, popcorn and apples were served. There were a great number of the new motor corps men present and they all agreed that Highland Park is just about the nicest place they have found. Our big dance at the high school will accommodate two or three hundred. These dances will fill a long felt want as there have been so few places where the men in uniform could dance and practically all of them enjoy this diversion. Cots will be provided so that men who desire to spend the night in Highland Park will have a place to sleep.

Mr. Eugene T. Lies, who is head of the War Camp activities for Cook and Lake Counties, came out and looked over the high school and other places that we expect to use in the work. He was very enthusiastic over the prospects. Mr. Lies delivered a short address to the Woman's Club in which he emphasized the importance of the work that is to be done after the war. It is the post bellum period that will call for the most active efforts of the War Camp Community Service. Don't let anyone forget this fact when the big drive is made this month for funds by the six big war activities.

ANOTHER LIBERTY LOAN COMING

Secretary of the Treasury McAdoo has announced that no matter what the results of the pending overtures for peace may be, there will be another Liberty Loan. To use his expression, "We are going to have to finance peace for a while just as we have to finance war."

There are over 2,000,000 United States soldiers abroad. If we transport these men back to the United States at the rate of 300,000 a month, it will be over a year before they are all returned. Our Army, therefore, must be maintained, victualled, and clothed for many months after peace is an actuality.

The American people, therefore, having supported the Liberty Loan with a patriotism that future historians will love to extol, will have an opportunity to show the same patriotism in financing the just and conclusive victorious peace whenever it comes.

Not for a moment, however, is the Treasury acting on any assumption that peace is to come soon. Until peace is actually assured the attitude of the Treasury and the attitude of the whole United States Government is for the most vigorous prosecution of the war, and the motto of force against Germany without stint or limit will act up to until peace is an absolutely accomplished fact.

One more Liberty Loan, at least, is certain. The fourth loan was popularly called the "Fighting Loan," the next loan may be a fighting loan, too, or it may be a peace loan. Whatever the conditions, the loan must be prepared for and its success rendered certain and absolute. Begin now to prepare to support it.

The people who kick because fire insurance costs so much are often the same ones who deposit hot ashes in wooden barrels.

The people who made the most effort to buy Liberty Bonds are commonly the same ones that people will make the most effort to do business with.

Being urged to conserve labor, some people are conserving it by waiting until the wind blows the leaves on their neighbors' lawn.

Some people's theory of how to raise money for Liberty Bonds is to raise the prices on everything they have to sell to the people.

Plow or spade that garden plot this fall. It will be better next year. Work in some manure but apply the commercial fertilizer this spring—not this fall.

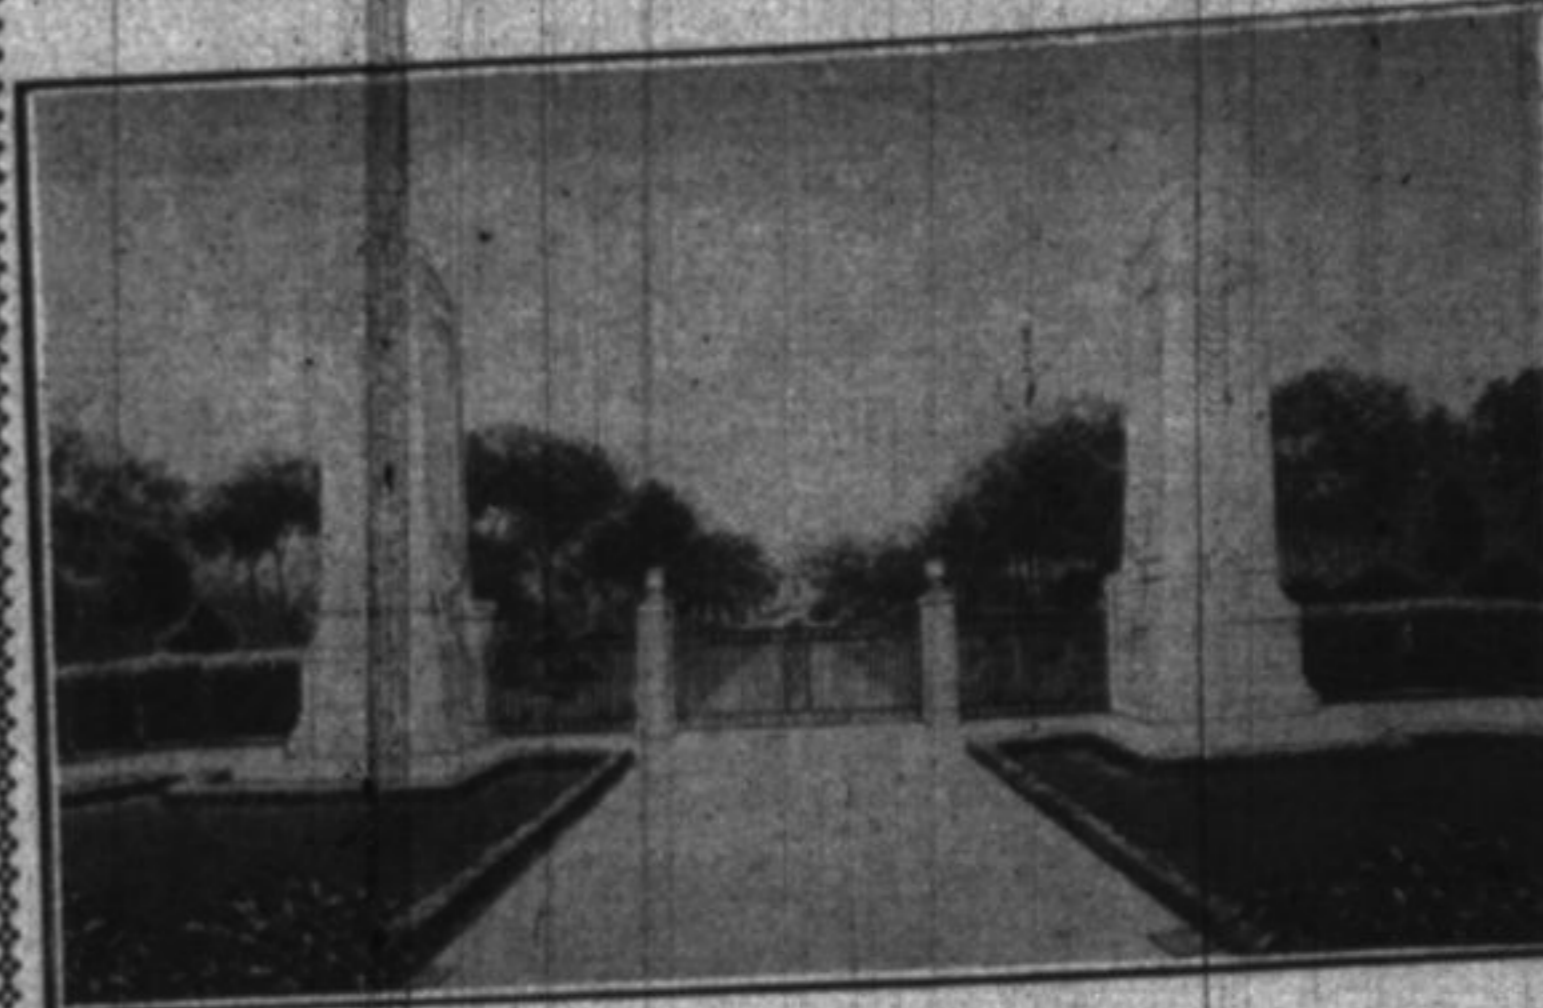

The surest way to encourage the boys who create the Halloween disturbances is to get out and undertake to chase and punish them.

Some men feel that they are working very hard for the war, as their wives are helping regularly at the Red Cross.

The American consul to Bulgaria has side whiskers, but so long as he doesn't wear a ruffled shirt, it will not be advisable to start a movement to recall him.
