MORALE COUNTS

The "Morale" of our men in service will save the nation or lose the victory of the great world war; and the morale of the men means good courage and decent recreation between times of strain. The Y. M. C. A. and the other organizations represented in the United War Work Drive are the means of giving just this to the men of our army and navy. It is YOUR chance to give that your boy and the boys that he is thrown in contact with, may have a warm room to go to in a rest billet, that they may have a good book to read on the steamer coming home, that they may have a doughnut and a hot cup of coffee some cold night in an out-of-the-way, God-forsaken corner of the world. This time of the year it is good to sit by warm fires after eating comfortable dinners. And the men who are fighting are the men who are used to just this, and whose sacrifices of all these good things can only be fully recompensed by victory. Will you give to the United War Work Campaign and help bring all the good things possible to the fighting men? Your contributions may be deposited in a box on the delivery desk of the Public Library. Ten cents will pay for some man's cup of coffee. A dollar will buy a book to read which will remind him of home. Fifty dollars might put a second hand piano in some desolate hut. Two hundred dollars will furnish a traveling library for the trenches. What will you sacrifice for victory? This is the week of the United War Work Drive. Bring your contribution to the Public Library today.

The exhibit of pictures of the Camp Libraries which is hung in the Public Library will continue until after the end of the United War Work Campaign. These pictures are very clear and the men are easily recognized by any who happen to know them. They illustrate the libraries all over the United States. On the Bulletin in the main room, is a map showing the location of the forty-three camp libraries having 30,000 volumes or over, the 315 smaller libraries, and the branches at 148 naval and marine stations. This does not include, however, the 350 libraries and branches overseas. Such things as this free and generous lending of books on the honor system, are what our allies look at in wonder and astonishment. You can't send books to your boys for Christmas this year unless you limit your little Red Cross box, but you can give a small fortune to the United War Work Campaign, and the A. L. A. will see that books are in every hut and camp and hospital, and your boy knows it.

Rioting with fun are the letters of Streeter, "Dere Mabel," which has been added to the new books at the Public Library. H. G. Wells' new novel, "Joan and Peter," has also come, and promises to be one of the most popular books of the autumn in spite of the fact that so many of us are a bit disgusted with our ally, the author, and his late publications.

Beaming with his familiar, beloved grin, Douglas Fairbanks introduces his "Laugh and Live" which he so simply dedicates: "To My Mother." The Parents' and Teachers' Guide to The Book of Knowledge has been issued to make even more useful that very useful book of miscellaneous information, "The Book of Thrift," by L. MacGregor, has found great favor because of the suggestions on this important topic, and the pleasing manner in which the book is written. Another thrift book is the old standard brought up to date, Samuel Smiles' "Thrift," which is full of anecdote and practical application. Gerard could not get half of what he wanted to say in "My Four Years in Germany" so he has issued another book to fill out his stirring message, and he calls it "Face to Face With Kaiserism," although one feels when reading that perhaps kaiserisms behind his back were even worse than those with which Mr. Gerard came face to face.

Through the generosity of a friend the Public Library has added another set of Miss Alcott's books. Other friends have so generously given old text books in grammar and arithmetic, and old spellers that the members of classes for illiterates (which number nearly twenty) have been well supplied with books. Anyone else who may wish to add to the collection may do so at any time. These army camp classes are taught by volunteer civilian men and women who have been teaching all day, and the students are using their one hour of recreation to gain the advantages of this great opportunity of education which has assumed importance to so many of them for the first time.

The new and interesting pamphlets are: "The League of Nations," by Viscount Grey, and "The Woman's Part," "A Record of Munitions Work," by L. K. Yates. The latter is amply illustrated and surprising in its many revelations as to that all-inclusive and very indefinite term, "Munitions Work." Another pamphlet's arrival which must not be overlooked is by F. S. Oliver on that new-old problem, "The Irish Question."

The Highland Park Public Library, one block south of the Post Office, is open every day, except Sunday, 9-12, 1-6, 7-9.

Evangelistic Meetings

The special evangelistic meetings will begin next Sunday, Mr. Norman Camp, the lawyer-evangelist, will preach at 10:45 a. m. and 7:30 p. m. Services will be held every evening next week at 7:45, Saturday evening excepted. Afternoon meetings for adults will be held on Tuesday and Thursday at 2:30. Meetings for the boys and girls will be held on Wednesday and Friday afternoons after school. There will be plenty of good singing. The pastor is encouraged by the desire for prayer expressed by a number and the deep interest in God's Word.

We are thankful that the great war has come to a close. The imperative need of the hour is to strengthen the moral and spiritual forces. This can be accomplished only by the faithful preaching of the gospel of Jesus Christ and its hearty acceptance by the people. The Scriptures teach that natural deterioration always has its beginning in a departure from God. Departure from God leads to political disorganization and is naturally followed by social chaos. A number of nations present a striking illustration of this today. A true patriot is one who loyally supports his government according to the Divine standards and principles. Godly people are the light of the world and the salt of the earth. If there had been ten righteous people in Sodom it would have been spared. Sin is a reproach to any people. Sooner or later it will bend the neck of any people.

The people of Highland Park are cordially invited to attend the special meetings of the First United Evangelical church. There will be comfort and encouragement for anxious and troubled hearts. The secret of peace and joy and hope in a world of uncertainty will be fully explained. Come, bring your friends. You will receive a cordial welcome.

The program of services for next Sunday is as follows:

- 9:30 a. m., Sunday school.
- 10:45 a. m., sermon by Norman Camp.
- 6:45 p. m., Christian Endeavor meeting.
- 7:30 p. m., song service followed by a special sermon by Mr. Camp.

WAR CAMP COMMUNITY SERVICE

Last Saturday evening, November 9, about four hundred, including soldiers, sailors and young ladies attended the dance at the Deerfield-Shields High School in the boys' gymnasium.

It was a big party and everybody entered in with the right spirit. There were lively circle games as well as the dancing.

Down stairs in the girls' gymnasium table games were played by those that did not care to dance. Several young ladies from Evanston had charge of these. The beat of the whole affair was the ten-piece jackie orchestra that played for the dancing to show their appreciation for all that the North Shore people had done for them these past months and also to promote the spirit of the work of the United War Work campaign for the comforts of the boys "over there."

The young people were entertained by James McSherry, a sailor from Great Lakes, who clogged and jigged. Captain Martin recited several original war time poems.

At the height of merriment Mr. Stewart Reed Brown announced thru a megaphone that word had been received by wireless that the Kaiser had abdicated. Great shouting, cheering and whistling followed and the jackie orchestra showed their enthusiasm by playing the Kaiser's death dance.

A large party will be given next Saturday evening, November 1, at the D. S. H. S. The boys' gymnasium will be used solely for dancing and all games will be played in the girls' gymnasium. The high school orchestra will assist down stairs. It will be out good fortune to have with us again the jackie orchestra on next Saturday evening.

A Towanda, Penna., man choked to death while eating meat pie. That is a danger to which many of us are not subject at present prices.

Germans Make Great Discovery
Columbus discovered America October 12, 1492. A later discovery of America was made by the Germans July 18, 1918. It cannot be said that the Germans will celebrate their discovery by declaring a national holiday.
