

Highland Park's Honor Roll

Hut to the hero, when his sword Has won the battle for the free. Thy voice sounds like a prophet's word; And in its hollow tones are heard The thanks of millions yet to be.

WILL LIBERTY BONDS NOW RISE IN VALUE?

In 1888 United States 4 per cent Interest Bonds Sold for As High as $130.00 There is every indication that Liberty Bonds, issued during the war, will greatly rise in value with the establishment of peace. In 1888 a $100 United States bond, bearing 4 per cent interest, sold in the open market for $130. In 1901 it brought more than $139. The most conservative will agree that Liberty bonds are sure to go above par in value, now that the allies have brought the war to a victorious end. The allowed and unscrupulous, the birds of prey in finance, realize the worth of Liberty bonds, and are using every effort to secure them from those who are uninformed in financial matters. Their favorite method is wildcat companies—stock that is absolutely valueless—in exchange for Liberty bonds. Some of these get-rich-quick schemers offer to lend their prospective victims money, whereupon to buy the goldbrick stock, taking Liberty Bonds as security. This of course is only a thinly disguised attempt to obtain Liberty bonds for worthless stock. The United States owns some 5,000,000 acres of oil lands and 52,000,000 acres of coal lands, the title of which belongs to the Federal Government. Since all owners of Liberty Bonds are part owners of this Government, it would be palpably foolish of them to exchange their Liberty bonds for oil or coal stocks of doubtful value. Before disposing of his bonds, the holder thereof would do well to consult a banker. Such consultation will not deprive the take stock concerns, but it certainly will prosper the bond holder.

SAILORS CAN RESIGN TO GO TO COLLEGE

Secretary Daniels has just announced that men who left college to enter the naval service and who now desire to resume their college courses will be permitted to resign from the service. Such men, Mr. Daniels said, should make application to their commanding officers. When the people get tired of heavy taxation, the government can always borrow money; and when the people get tired of paying off debts, the government can increase the taxes. Locomotive engineers will miss the war news, as now they can't make us in the middle of the night by blowing their whistles for fake news of victories. As the Germans are so very hungry, we might give them the use of the land from which their shells removed all tillable soil. A friend asks what has become of the woman who on Thanksgiving Day used to display 100 pies stored away on her shelves? Dunno, but her daughter last heard from was kicking on the high size of the bakery bill. The boys who have lived in the open air army life will not be satisfied to settle down to work in close rooms, with windows hermetically sealed so that no draft shall blow on the girls' mosquito netting waists. With Christmas presents to be bought, many people are asking for a 30 day armistice with their creditors. Most of the politicians that opposed the war have learned that their presence is earnestly required in their home towns after March 1.

WILLING SACRIFICE BY AN AMERICAN MOTHER

Letter to Commandant Moffett by Kentucky Woman Who Lost Her Son Recently

The spirit of American Motherhood is shown by a letter received by Captain William A. Moffett, commandant, from a mother at Lexington, Ky., whose son died at Gt. Lakes during the recent influenza epidemic. The letter follows:

Dear Sir: "I herein tender my heart's deepest gratitude to you for your letter of condolence, touching upon the death of my son, seaman second class, U. S. N. R. F. Believe me, the tender spirit of your message reaches to my heart's deepest need, bringing to me the solemn inspiration that is ever the fruit of true sympathy. To know that my son's record was satisfactory and the promise of his usefulness assured gives me the greatest possible comfort I could now experience.

MISS BESS T. BOWER WEDS ROWLAND DUNN

Bride a Well Known Employee of the County Clerk's Office for Many Years Past

A courtship of fifteen years reached its climax last Thursday morning in the wedding of Miss Bess T. Bower of Waukegan, and Rowland C. Dunn, of Milwaukee.

To those who frequent the court house, Miss Bower was well known. She has been in the employ of the county place she was sixteen years of age.

She formerly was employed in the county treasurer's office, but for 12 years she has been an employee in the office of Lew A. Hendee. She was considered a tax expert.

The bride in her official capacity has issued thousands of marriage licenses, but when Mr. Dunn made application for one she was obliged to get Mr. Hendee to issue it, as she was a contracting party.

The bride expects to retain her court house position and they will return to reside in Waukegan after a short honeymoon trip.

Met 37 years old and over don't have to make out questionnaires now, except to their wives.
