A Place to Live

THE CHARM THAT HIGHLAND PARK holds for her people is expressed in that homely, oft-repeated remark that Highland Park "is a good place to live in." Those who speak thus of Highland Park unconsciously pay her the greatest tribute in their power. For, after all, what one desires is "a good place to live in," where the air is pure and fresh, where the sun can look in through the windows on the east and on the south and on the west side of your home.

No city has more beautiful streets than Highland Park. In the heart of the city you may ride on streets bordered with refreshing plots of grass and trees; and go in any direction and you will pass through one charming section after another.

No greater satisfaction can come to the home-maker than to feel that his property represents a profitable investment in a city which he has helped to make a "good place to live in." One can feel justly proud, if, by improving a piece of property, he has helped to make his town a "good place to live in."

But you have another obligation to your community. You owe it to Highland Park to "BUY IN HIGHLAND PARK" everything of any description you may require. You CAN buy it in Highland Park. WILL YOU?

It is not a question of loyalty or civic pride entirely. It means money to you when you patronize the merchants of your home town.

The following firms of Highland Park, co-operating in this "Buy and Bank in Highland Park" campaign, invite you to look at their merchandise and compare goods and prices. They can show you that it is to your advantage to buy from them.
