

NUMBER 41

DR. FRANK GUNSAULUS TO SPEAK HERE SUNDAY

AT THE COMMUNITY SERVICE

Prof. Maria L. Sanford to Speak at the Presbyterian Church Monday Evening at Eight O'clock

Dr. Frank W. Gunsaulus, of the Central Church, Chicago, will speak at the Community Evening Service next Sunday night. Lecturer, author, preacher, and teacher, Dr. Gunsaulus is known all over the United States. Born in Ohio in 1856 and graduating from Ohio Wesleyan he began his ministry in the Methodist Church. Later he was called to the Plymouth Church, Chicago, and then, after some years in that pastorate, became the minister of the Central Church where he still preaches almost every Sunday. The Central Church is entirely independent and its congregation is largely made up of those who have no direct affiliation with any recognized denomination. Since 1893 Dr. Gunsaulus has been president of the Armour Institute of Chicago. It was at his suggestion that the late Mr. Armour gave the money which made the Armour Institute a possibility. Highland Park may welcome any opportunity to hear this remarkable man next Sunday night at the Presbyterian Church.

Miss Marjorie Dodge Warner who recently sang at the Women's Club will be the soloist. Everyone should avail himself of the opportunity to hear her as she comes highly recommended.

Prof. Maria L. Sanford to Speak on Monday Evening

Next Monday evening at 8 o'clock, Professor Maria L. Sanford, Professor Emeritus of Minnesota University, will speak at the Lecture Room of the Presbyterian Church under the auspices of the Woman's Missionary Union. It will be an open meeting and everyone in Highland Park is invited to be present. Her subject is "The Beauty of the Bible."

Prof. Sanford is so well known here from her previous visits that she needs no special introduction. Born in New England in 1836, she won her education with much difficulty, her father dying when she was quite young and leaving to her the support of her mother. She distinguished herself as a teacher in the schools of New Haven in the fifties, meeting some of the best-known Americans of the time, notably the philosopher John Fiske. In 1871 Miss Sanford was elected to the chair of history at Swarthmore College and found herself the only woman professor in the United States. Nine years later she was called to the University of Minnesota where she occupied the chair of rhetoric for twenty-nine years, retiring as professor-emerita in 1909. During her whole professional period Miss Sanford has lectured on the average of one night a week, speaking to large audiences all over the country. Perhaps the crowning triumph of her long life was on that occasion two years ago when the University of Minnesota held a special convocation in honor of her eightieth birthday. Her friends on the faculty and among the alumni gathered together to offer her their praise for her remarkable achievements.

Miss Sanford's life may be the best summed up, perhaps, by quoting some words she spoke in an interview two years ago. "Work is life for me. It always has been and always will be. I am hoping that my health and strength will hold out for another ten years to enable me to do things for others that I have always longed to do, but never yet have had time." I passed through many periods of mental tribulation regarding religion while I was a mere child, but I have kept my faith unchanged for seventy years and shall keep it until I die.

Highland Park may well count it a privilege that this wonderful woman will bring a message next Monday night.

Last Sunday's Service
Last Sunday evening, Professor John A. Scott of the Northwestern University spoke at the Sunday evening service on "The Results of the Armistice." The lecture was distinguished by a large number of facts

MILITARY WEDDING AT TRINITY CHURCH

Mr. and Mrs. George Moseley Left For White Sulphur Springs, Following Reception

Last Saturday afternoon at four o'clock occurred the wedding of Miss Ethel Spencer and Ensign George Moseley. Miss Spencer is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Earle Spencer, and Ensign Moseley is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Carleton Moseley—the two families long resident in Highland Park.

The marriage was solemnized in Trinity Church with Bishop Anderson and Dr. Wolcott officiating.

The bride wore her mother's wedding dress with a veil of Brussels lace. The Misses Gladys Spencer and Marion Moseley, sisters of the bride and groom, were the only attendants.

Lieut. Robert Moffett was best man and the ushers, all in uniform, were Edward Small, Ballenger Fyffe, and Frederick Spencer.

It was a true military wedding both in spirit and form since Ensign Moseley has just returned from eighteen months active service at the front. The American flag followed by those of our Great Allies, bore a deep and peculiar significance, and the singing of the last verse of "America" after the ceremony was beautifully fitting.

A reception to relatives and intimate friends followed the service at the home of the bride's parents on Wade street.

The original wedding plans were postponed because of Ensign Moseley's delay in getting home from France, the date of the ceremony having been set for November 23rd.

On the night before the wedding Ensign Moseley received word that he need not report again for foreign service, but was instructed to report at Washington in three weeks. The young couple left for White Sulphur Springs, W. Va., where they expect to remain until Christmas.

BASE HOSPITAL TO BE AS ORIGINALLY PLANNED

Accommodations for 4,800 PEOPLE

Two Thousand Doctors, Nurses and Attendants Expected. Also Four Motor Fire Trucks and Men

The Press is informed on unquestionable authority that instructions have been received by the Constructing Quartermaster at Fort Sheridan to push the work through on the new hospital as originally planned.

This means that accommodations are to be provided for 4,800 wounded men together with a personnel of two thousand doctors, nurses and attendants. The buildings while far from fire proof will be made as safe as possible and to this end will be furnished throughout with an automatic fire alarm system while some of the buildings will be equipped with sprinkler systems. In addition to this four motor fire trucks manned by expert firemen will be always on watch. The water and sewer systems will be very comprehensive and the most modern sewage disposal plant will be installed. The underground work alone will cost half a million dollars when completed, and our citizens need have no fear of lake contamination if science can prevent it.

In addition to the buildings now under construction some others will be built and a great laboratory of reinforced concrete will be added. This latter building will be permanent.

A number of wounded men from overseas have already arrived and a large number will come as soon as the new hospital is ready.

"A SALE OF DAYS" WHAT WILL YOU BUY?

Bazaar Substitute Under Auspices of Dorcas Society. Checks Payable to Mrs. Rex Jones

Every year it has been customary for the Dorcas Society of the Presbyterian church and the Trinity Guild of Trinity Church to hold bazaars, each society holding them alternately, every other year. Everyone remembers the lovely bazaar held last year at Trinity Parish House. This year the Dorcas Society is featuring a bazaar substitute, "A Sale of Days." A card is distributed to friends of the society, with the question, "What will you buy?" Under this is the sale list, including year, season, month, week, holiday, and day with the price after each. Anyone who wishes to subscribe marks the amount which they wish to contribute with a cross. Checks may be sent to Mrs. Rex Jones, treasurer, 255 Linden Park Place, Highland Park.

INFLUENZA EPIDEMIC AGAIN THREATENING

HEALTH OFFICERS MEET

Authorities Say the Present Conditions in Highland Park do not Justify Quarantine Action

Owing to the general recrudescence of the influenza in Chicago and vicinity, the Health Department of Highland Park called a meeting yesterday afternoon to confer on the local situation.

While they found there was a slight increase over the low point, yet the number of cases will undoubtedly fluctuate during the winter.

A careful summary of the situation was made and it was unanimously decided that the present condition in this city does not justify quarantine action. All cases are being promptly reported and the situation is carefully watched. If the epidemic condition should attain a threatening aspect, immediate action will be taken.

CAPTAIN MOFFETT LEAVES FOR NEW DUTY

Many Gather to Say Goodbye to the Former Commandant of Great Lakes Naval Station

Followed by the best wishes of every officer and man on the station, Captain William A. Moffett, former commandant, had farewell to Great Lakes Saturday morning.

Coming after a stay of four years, during which time the personnel of the station rose from 5,000 to 50,000, the departure of Capt. Moffett was an impressive occasion.

Practically every officer at Great Lakes and a number from points in the district, were on hand at the main gate to bid the former commandant goodbye personally. As Captain Moffett alighted from his auto, the officers came to a salute. Then he went down the line shaking hands with most of them.

As Captain Moffett passed through the Main Gate, over which the Station's service flag had been unfurled, the band struck up "Auld Lang Syne" and followed with "The Navy Forever." Nearly every musician on the Station was on hand.

LAKE COUNTY TO GET 917 NEW HALF DOLLARS

Will be Sold For $1.00 Each. Proceeds for Memorial for Lake County War Heroes

Who want an Illinois Centennial half dollar?

Lake County is asked to take 917 of these historically interesting coins the only "cents" coin that has ever been issued. They are to be sold at $1 each. The legal tender value is 50 cents and the other 50 cents is to be used toward the financing of a suitable memorial for the Lake county men and women who have lost their lives in the late war.

Only 100,000 of these coins were minted and when these are sold no more will be obtainable. Every patriotic Illinoisan should possess one of the Centennial coins.

Edward H. De Wolf, secretary of the Lake County Historical Society, has been asked by the state centennial commission to look after the selling of the coins. He, assisted by J. W. Harwell, guaranteed the funds which are to be placed in the banks of the county for sale.

No individual receives any commission for selling the coins, the entire action being a purely patriotic one. Orders can be left at the banks, and when the coins arrive distribution of same will be made.

After the supply becomes exhausted they undoubtedly will command a premium above the sale price of $1. They are an artistically designed coin and the government approved their issue which makes their intrinsic value 50 cents.

FREE DELIVERY ON ALL ORDERS OVER $1.50

Merchants Do Away with Ten Cent Charge on All Orders Over That Amount

The war being over and the grocery and meat merchants desiring to give their patrons peace-time service as far as conditions will permit, will after December 15th, deliver free any order amounting to $1.50 or more. In order to give this free service and keep prices down, they will continue to charge ten cents for delivering any order amounting to less than $1.50.

It is felt that with a reasonable amount of forethought on the part of the people in ordering, they can make the plan practically an all-free delivery.

There will be one free delivery a day. Orders should be given before 11:00 a. m., and where possible, orders should be given the day before.

334 MEN ENTERTAINED AT D. S. HIGH SCHOOL

There were 334 men in uniform entertained at the high school gymnasium by Highland Park committee working under the War Camp Community Service. The week-end activities are a great success. Mr. and Mrs. Good Citizen, if you have not seen this work, it is suggested that you drop in at the high school for a few minutes Saturday night, and then offer the Hospitality Committee a little assistance, not of money, but of service.

ALL-STAR VAUDEVILLE FRIDAY, DEC. 20TH

HIGH SCHOOL GYMNASIUM

Proceeds to Defray Expenses for the Addition of a Rest Room to the Army and Navy Center

There will be an all-star vaudeville performance at the Deerfield-Shields high school in the girls' gymnasium on Friday evening, December 20th. It will be given as a benefit by the executive committee of the Army and Navy Center to defray the expenses of the rest room which is now under construction at the south end of the present large recreation room.

For a long time there has been a great need of more room at the "Center", but now with the wounded soldiers returning daily and in face of an ever increasing demand for a quiet resting place for the convalescents, this delightful living room is gradually taking shape under the workmen's hands and becoming an accomplished reality.

The war is over, it is said, and yet the most poignant feature of war's reality is daily coming to our doors—the return of the wounded men. A special hospital train with no stops runs from Jersey City to Ft. Sheridan bringing the disabled men. And the return of these wounded men by train leads to Fort Sheridan has a dramatic significance. There, in the spring of 1917, little more than a year ago, the First Officers' Training Camp was opened to which the very flower of American young manhood was shipped by trainloads in hundreds and thousands. The sight of those men in uniform became a familiar object on the streets of this city, and the men were welcome guests in almost every home.

Mr. Fletcher donated the use of his building for the benefit of the men in service, an executive committee was formed with Miss Blanche Mason as chairman, later Mrs. George R. Jones, to equip and furnish the Center and look after the comfort and entertainment of the men. The Center grew in direct ratio to the increasing agency for such a place in Highland Park. The Officers' Training Camps came and went, and yet there was always a need for the Center—always very definite work for it to do.

Today, but a peculiar turn of fate, wounded men, shell shocked patients, and cripples are being shipped into Ft. Sheridan in contrast to those splendid troops who came little more than a year ago. And similarly the shell shocked patients together with their attendants are becoming more and more a familiar object on the streets of Highland Park. As a consequence the need for a homelike headquarters, for the kindness, attention, and recreation afforded by the Center was never so urgent and imperative. These men are coming in by trainloads, and in a short time there will be five thousand in the great rehabilitation camp which is daily expanding its facilities at Ft. Sheridan.

The room which is now under construction as an annex to the Center is large and homelike, an old-fashioned rough brick fireplace at one end, a soft brown wainscoting on the lower walls with tan colored burles finish above, comfortable chairs, shaded drop lights, books, and view.
