THE MYSTERIOUS TALE OF A BOSTON BULL

"Boots" Is Lost and Won by the Mere Matter of Two Inches in Evanston Trial

Evanston's experts on dogs' tails yesterday foregathered in the court of Justice William Shatz. There gathered also Robert T. Morton of Evanston and Ensign William Braze of the Great Lakes Station, who represented Fred Blackman, also of Evanston. Mr. Morton opened the dissertation on dogs' tails when he took the witness stand. He explained that "Boots" his $50 Boston bull terrier, disappeared six months ago. He insisted that he had located the dog in the Blackman home.

When the Blackmans denied the identifications Morton sought a writ of replevin. "I know its 'Boots' by his tail," he said. "Boots' had hardly any tail at all."

Three Inches or Five
"Your dog had a five-inch tail," countered the first expert, H. P. Stone, lumber man and defense witness. "I have a trained eye for inches. You can't fool me."

Other witnesses declared "Boots" had a tail of three inches, which is the accredited length of the Blackman dog's tail.

"My dog's tail was as straight as a plane," Mr. Morton testified. "Your dog's tail was of the screw type," another expert testified.

"Screw type tails curve up—are characteristic of Boston bulls."

A Stricken Dog
Ensign Braze here explained that the dog in question was ill with the "flu" and so could not appear in court. He showed to the jury, however, a number of photographs taken recently.

Mr. Morton also showed many photographs of Boots taken before his disappearance.

The tall experts and the jury scrutinized the pictures. Micrometers and magnifying glasses were used. Analytical mathematicians plotted the curvature of the tail on both sets of photos.

The case went to the jury. In a moment the jury returned and handed in its verdict—for the defendant.

The jury heard its own verdict and was torn with commotion.

"That ain't what we wanted," one shouted.

The retired again and presented a corrected verdict—$40 for the plaintiff.

Mr. Morton is known to practically all of Highland Park's business men as the "Towel Man." He furnishes the entire North Shore with towel service. He has also been a breeder of Boston terriers for twenty-five years, which was the cause of the above law-suit.

It is not true that the Germans will not be permitted to participate in the peace conference, as after the allies have made up their minds, the Hun delegates can come in and listen as long as they want to.

After paying more money for poor Christmas gifts in Chicago stores, some people wonder why Highland Park does not grow faster.

The Germans will now be weeping over peace terms not half as severe as they would have imposed had they been victorious.

An extra session of Congress seems inevitable unless garden seeds are mailed on time to all prominent citizens.

It is noted that President Wilson waited a number of days after Thanksgiving dinner before venturing on the heaving ocean.

ANNUAL REPORT OF VISITING NURSE ASSN.

Presented to the City Council at Their Regular Meeting Last Friday Evening

To the Honorable Mayor and Commissioners of Highland Park:

Please find enclosed the report of the Highland Park Visiting Nurse Association for the year beginning November 1, 1917, ending October 31, 1918. Also the report of the treasurer.

Due to the recent epidemic of influenza the High School decided to employ a nurse half time in addition to its regular contribution to the Visiting Nurse Association. Elm Place also employs a nurse half the time in addition to its regular subscription. Since October the Visiting Nurse Association has employed an extra nurse who spends most of her time doing community work. The influenza epidemic showed clearly the need for a nurse whose time could be spent in making home calls. This gives Highland Park at the present time three nurses. We hope to be able to keep this number, at least through this winter, and trust we can do it permanently.

I wish to speak particularly of the splendid co-operation of the staff of the City Hall during the influenza epidemic. Without the willing and cheerful help at that time the work could not have been done so successfully. The Marshall made it possible for the nurses to care for the many sick patients at home by taking them about in the City car.

Respectfully submitted,
Elinor Ballinger MacKenzie,
President.
