

A New Year's Resolution

Suggested by "Billy" Sunday's Song

Resolved: That I will "brighten the corner" where I am

My corner is in Highland Park.

Encouragement brightens and builds up just as surely as fault-finding tarnishes and tears down.

When the City Fathers do something that pleases me, I shall call them up and say so.

I shall encourage and support the churches, schools and all other good institutions of my home town.

I shall be the gainer by this.

The Merchant will smile when I enter his Store, for I shall trade in Highland Park.

The home Banker will meet me with friendly courtesy, for my Account is with him.

The Garage Men will hasten to attend to my wants.

My Patronage will help to reduce Prices and increase the Stock in local Stores to the advantage of all.

The town will grow and my Property will become more valuable.

Yes, I shall "brighten the corner" where I am.
