COMMUNITY MEETINGS TO BE RESUMED SUNDAY

AT PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH

Chaplain Bernard Iddings Bell the Next Speaker. Hymn Singing to be Led by Mr. Carl Booth

The series of five Community Sunday Night Meetings held last November and December in the Highland Park Presbyterian church had such a high average of attendance that the committee of laymen who were in charge of that series have decided to hold a similar series beginning next Sunday night. The speaker will be Chaplain Bernard Iddings Bell of Great Lakes. The community hymn singing will be under the leadership of Mr. Carl Booth. The hymns will be thrown on the screen from a lantern in the body of the church auditorium.

Bernard Iddings Bell is a graduate of Chicago University and Theological Seminary. He became well known as Dean of the Cathedral at Milwaukee, writing several articles for "The Atlantic Monthly" on the religious significance of present-day tendencies. When this country entered the Great War, Dean Bell became a chaplain at Great Lakes where he still carries on his work. Dean Bell has interviewed every young man entering the Naval Station and has ministered to the members of all denominations. His message next Sunday night has come to him out of this experience. His subject will be "What the Church Can Learn from the Men at Great Lakes."

In the January number of "The Atlantic Monthly" Harry Emerson Fosdick has told us what the Church can learn from the men who have been in the trenches in France. Dean Bell will tell us what these men expect of the Church who have served in the trenches at home.

Last May 30th Chaplain Bell spoke at the Community Service at the Highland Park Presbyterian Church. It was a memorable occasion for those who were members of the large congregation. The President had asked that Christians everywhere observe the day for prayer and worship to Almighty God for an Allied Victory. The speaker thrilled us with a message of prophetic vision. Let us hear him again, then, next Sunday night.

H. P. BUSINESS MEN HOLD ANNUAL ELECTION

Mr. O. G. St. Peter Is the New President. Several Recommendations Are Made

The Annual Meeting and Election of Officers of the Highland Park Business Men's Association was held at Witten Hall on Tuesday evening. The newly elected officers are: O. G. St. Peter, President; C. F. Grant, Vice-President; Albert Larson, Treasurer; James H. Duffy, Secretary; William Witten, James Bowden, and John L. Udell, Board of Directors.

Mr. George F. Bock, who had conducted the affairs of the Association so well during the past two years, is the retiring president.

In taking the chair, Mr. St. Peter briefly outlined some of the work before the Association during the reconstruction period, including the hearty co-operation, not only between members, but with the city government and the general public.

The matter of the Community Christmas tree was discussed at length and a recommendation will go to the Christmas Tree committee suggesting that they purchase a tree and plant it in a permanent and central place.

The almost impassable streets in Highland Park since the last big snow was also the cause of considerable discussion and it was decided to ask the city council to use the big 16-foot plow in the streets in case of another big storm.

The post office will be asked to make a collection of mail in the business district between five and six in the evening in order that mail will reach the wholesale houses in Chicago by the first delivery in the morning.

Following the business session a splendid luncheon was served by the refreshment committee.

LT. CHARLES WINSTON MARRIES SOUTHERN GIRL

When the influenza epidemic struck Texas he volunteered for service in the army hospital, where he met Miss Harkness whom he married following a month's acquaintance.

J. B. GARNETT TAKES OVER MEYER-DOBSON STORE

Was For Six Years Credit Man for The Marshall Field Wholesale Department

The Meyer-Dobson department store has recently been taken over by Mr. J. B. Garnett, of Evanston. Mr. Garnett is a graduate of Northwestern University, and for six years served in the capacity of credit man for the Marshall Field Company. He is in every way a man well qualified to organize and equip the various departments of this fine store, and to give to Highland Park in these days when shopping at home has become almost imperative, a trading center adequate to her growing needs.

For the past five years Mr. Garnett has been operating his own establishments in Chicago and Fort Atkinson, Wis., but has now disposed of his business in the latter place in order to live in the suburbs and give his family the advantages of the north shore.

It is the earnest wish of the officers of the church that everyone will join them in giving Mr. and Mrs. Pitt a hearty welcome to Highland Park.

THEODORE ROOSEVELT

Governor of the State of New York 1899-1900

AH, TEDDY DEAR— (An editorial reprinted from The Post of the day after the Republican convention in 1916.)

Ah, Teddy dear, and did ye hear the news that's goin' round? They say you've gone from off the stage, that strange cold men, whom we respect but love not, must be our meat for all the campaign days to come.

Gray is the prospect; dull is the outlook. Our hearts are broke. We need you, and we want you every minute.

Ah, the fun of you and the glory of you! Where lies the American whose passion or whose imagination you have not set a-tingling? Who else has meant the savor of life for us? Who but you has taken us and set our feet upon the high places?

Before you came, all in politics was set and regular. Those who were ordained to rule over us did so with that gravity with which stupid grown-ups repress the child. No one ever talked to us as you did. They called us voters or constituents or such big names as those. They never took us by the hand and played with us as you did.

They never understood us. They could preach Sunday school and arithmetic, but the good Lord never gave it to them to speak to the heart.

Dancing down the road you came with life and love and courage and fun stickin' out all over you. How we loved you at first sight! And how you loved us!

Friends we were, tho you lived in the White House and we were making mud pies. Friends we were together with nothing to come between us.

Your love would let no harm come near us, and we knew it. With your courage you fought for us. With your life and your fun you took us out of the drab grind.

You told us of the birds in the air and of the fishes in the sea. The great tales of the old heroes, Sagas of the past, you spread before our astonished eyes. You gave us new words—delightful words—to play with, and jokes—delightful jokes—to make us laugh.

How we wanted you back when you went away! But they stole our right from us, and they wouldn't let you come back. So we followed you, 4,000,000 of us, in a fight, the like of which we never knew. Joy and religion were in it in equal measure. Hymns and cleanliness and color and battle were all jumbled in it. The good of it is set forever into the life of the nation.

But the school master beat you and the great war came to crowd you from our thoughts. We thought only of ourselves, because you no longer were there to make us think of our country. At last we turned to you—when it was too late.

So now we are not to have you. We must go stumbling on alone, hoping that the men they've given us would show something of that fire and strength upon which you taught us to rely.

HOSPITAL ADDITION SUGGESTED AS HIGHLAND PARK MEMORIAL

MR. BALDWIN ADVANCES IDEA WORTHY OF EMULATION

Would Re-dedicate Highland Park Hospital as a War Memorial, Also Name Memorial Rooms for Each of Heroes Who Have Given Their Lives.

Highland Park Press, Highland Park, Ill. Dear Sirs:

After consulting with the Highland Park Hospital Advisory Board, I wish to present to your readers for careful consideration the suggestion made by the Trustees of the Highland Park Memorial Association at a joint meeting held January 3rd, with the Highland Park Hospital Association's Advisory Board, which is as follows: If it should be decided that the memorial now under consideration shall be something which would be of service to the community instead of an ornament, then if the Memorial Association with the aid of the Hospital Advisory Board will raise a fund of $50,000 or $60,000, to be used for an additional building for the care of contagious and infectious diseases, the Hospital Association will take the necessary steps to re-dedicate the Highland Park Hospital as a War Memorial, changing its name to the War Memorial Hospital or Soldiers and Sailors Memorial Hospital, or such appropriate name as may be decided upon. This plan would also contemplate the naming of memorial rooms for each of the heroes who have given their lives, such rooms to bear suitable bronze tablets. It would also be possible to record the names of all who served from our community on a suitable tablet or monument, to be placed either outside on the grounds or inside the building.

Now, as to the need of such an addition: We opened last July with accommodations for 14 patients; have since crowded in six additional beds, making twenty, and have been obliged to refuse patients. In less than six months we have admitted 150 patients. The operating room has been used for over 50 surgical operations (many of them major operations), and there have been about twenty births. This is entirely exclusive of the 150 patients from Highland Park that were taken care of at the Elmhurst Emergency Hospital last October.

Is there not more need in Highland Park for this than other things which have been suggested and should we not direct our funds towards the enlargement and support of such an institution, rather than start something else which would cost several thousand dollars yearly to maintain? Could we more fittingly memorialize our soldiers, sailors and Red Cross nurses than by such a memorial, which would be a lasting benefit to the community?

Yours respectfully, WALTER H. BALDWIN, President.

CASH AND CARRY STORE TO OPEN JANUARY 15

To be Located in Bock Building. Chris Niebuhr, Prop. Fresh Fruits and Vegetables.

Mr. Chris Niebuhr, who, for the past nineteen years has been in the employ of George F. Bock, will open a cash and carry store with fresh fruits and vegetables, in the Bock building, first door west of the Post Office on Central Ave. next Wednesday, January 15th. All former patrons of Bock's Grocery, who were acquainted with Mr. Niebuhr, will no doubt be interested in the opening of this new store. Nothing but the very best goods will be sold.

The store will be open daily from seven o'clock to six, on Thursdays from seven to twelve thirty and on Saturdays from seven a. m. until nine p. m.

JOINT INSTALLATION HELD TUESDAY NIGHT

Annual "Homecoming" of Sheridan Lodge No. 662; also Saerls dan Rebekah Lodge.

The Hall at Sheridan Lodge No. 662 was the scene of a very pleasant gathering on last Tuesday evening, when the officers of that Lodge and the officers of the Sheridan Rebekah Lodge No. 301 were jointly installed into their offices for the coming term. Chas. A. Sanborn as the executive officer of the Subordinate Lodge, with Orren Keech as his assistant and Miss Emily Krumak as the executive of the Rebekah Lodge with Mrs. Wm. J. Brown as her assistant together with the other elective and appointive officers were impressively inducted into their several offices by Edward Bolding, Deputy Grand Master and Mrs. George Goodman, Deputy Grand President, assisted by A. W. Yowell and Mrs. Sadio Curtis as Grand Marshalls, in the presence of about 150 members and guests of the lodges.

The installation was followed by the Annual Roll Call which was responded to by members present and by letters from many of those who were absent.

The dining room was the next attraction where good cheer was dispensed in the form of a turkey supper prepared by the Entertainment Committees of the two lodges. These two lodges, like all other such organizations, have closed a notable and strenuous year with more to be thankful for than most fraternal organizations. With about one-fifth of its members in the military and naval service in Honolulu, the Philippines, Siberia, France and the U. S. A., almost encircling the globe, none of its members have yet made the supreme sacrifice that the flag has put his mark on several who have been in the thick of it in France and over the top. Even with the additional influenza menace to health and life, the lodges have lost but three members by death.

The Lodges, therefore, enter upon the new year with a spirit of most devout thankfulness and the determination to dedicate their efforts anew to the principles for which the Order stands and to do their utmost to bring about the time when all people will be united in the bond of a Great Universal Brotherhood.
