SOCIAL ACTIVITY

Mrs. William S. Peters entertained at an informal tea yesterday afternoon in honor of her sister-in-law, Mrs. Archie Mason, of Lake Bluff. Mr. and Mrs. Mason are making their home in the A. O. Mason residence during the winter.

Miss Jennie Olson was given a pleasant surprise Monday evening by the Morning Glories.

Miss Virginia de Anguera entertained twenty of her friends last Friday evening at a coasting party. Refreshments were served and the young people enjoyed dancing for the remainder of the evening.

Miss Ethel Hill entertained a few of her girl friends at Sunday dinner in honor of Miss Verna Swanson of Chicago.

The Cradle Roll of the First U. E. Church were entertained in the church parlors yesterday afternoon from three to five o'clock. A short program was given followed by a social hour.

Mrs. M. Dietrick announces the marriage of her daughter, Emma R. Fossender, to Lieutenant R. C. Daventport of Camp Grant. The couple were quietly married in the Fourth Presbyterian Church of Chicago by Rev. John F. Stone.

Paul Blanchard, Jr., entertained a few of his friends at a pretty dinner party in honor of his tenth birthday anniversary on the afternoon of January fifteenth. Following the dinner the children enjoyed games.

Mrs. T. H. Decker was hostess to the Philathea Class of the United Evangelical Church Tuesday evening.

Mrs. R. J. Beatty entertained a few friends informally last Sunday afternoon. A very delightful musical program was given.

Mrs. Fred Tucker will be hostess to the Five Hundred Club this afternoon.

SERVICE STRIPES AND WHAT THEY MEAN

Since the signing of the armistice and the return of soldiers a great many are interested in knowing what the various service stripes signify. Sometime ago the Press published the information but it was incorrect.

Each gold stripe on the right arm signifies six months foreign service. One gold stripe on the left arm indicates a wound.

A blue stripe indicates less than six months service.

A silver stripe indicates six months domestic service.

A red stripe denotes honorable discharge.

A silver star represents a volunteer for service.

SONS IN SERVICE

News of the return of men in service, whether on this side or overseas, is earnestly solicited for this column.

The following letters are from Harry Stuppel to his mother. He is with the U. S. Naval forces in Bordeaux, France.

December 6, 1918

Dearest Mother:— I have at last been stationed. I am living in a chateau and it seems almost like home. We are what is known as the Naval Patrol and it is an organization used mainly to stop riots and fights.

We have already planned a big celebration for Christmas. We are going to have a dance and banquet.

Wish you would send me some cigarettes if possible. I will send you some souvenirs, that is, as soon as I get paid which is the twentieth of the month.

Wish you would send me some Highland Park papers. Bordeaux is certainly a queer town. By the time I come home I ought to speak French pretty well.

I don't know if I told you about meeting Frank Tory, did I? Well, I saw him and went to Hempstead and saw the whole Powell family.

We left New York on the 20th and reached Bordeaux on the 30th. Had a fine trip.

Will close now. With best love to you all, and especially you, Mother dear.

Your loving son,
HARRY STUPPEL

Dearest Mother and All:— I am dropping you a line to let you know that everything is all right. We certainly have a great time here. We are here to do police duty and take care of the traffic and drunken soldiers and sailors. How is everybody? I am going to try and write you a few lines as often as I can. I am picking up the French language fast.

They call this country "sunny France" but I have seen the sun only twice since I landed here.

Tell the boys they can say all they want to about Europe but give me Chicago all the time. I only wish I had taken French when I was at high school. Last night there was an oil tank sunk off out in the Gironde river. It just naturally sunk right off the docks. There were two or three men drowned.

Well, mother dear, write as soon as possible and as often. Tell the boys to write.

Your loving son,
HARRY

December 29, 1918

Dear Folks:— I met a young woman from Highland Park a couple of days ago. She was in the uniform of the Y. W. C. A. It was Miss Sedgewick. You don't know how fine it is to meet someone from home. But best of all she had a Highland Park Press, an old one, but it had a lot of good news in it and I read it all through including advertisements.

We are stationed at the Brest air station but not permanently. We really belong in the Chateau of Brest, an old castle started in 600 B. C. and finished by Louis XV. We are detailed as stevedores unloading army and navy supplies. There are 200 of us and half work days and half nights.

Have got a few souvenirs to bring home and I am going to send some more if possible.

Will have to close now or lose out on chow.

With love,
HARRY

UNITED EVANGELICAL

The report of the Home Department of the Sunday school was given on last Sunday morning and it shows that there is a steady growth. Much credit is due to Mrs. Botker and Mrs. Schulz for the good results achieved.

Five men have contributed a sum of money sufficient to support a native worker in Nyasaland, Central Africa, for one year. Their voluntary contributions to missions is greatly appreciated by the board.

The Day of Prayer for world-wide missions, observed last Thursday, gave us a larger vision and broader sympathy. It made us feel that when God's love is fully shed abroad in our hearts we have an interest in people in every land. The speakers did exceptionally well in presenting the subjects assigned to them.

Bishop M. T. Maze will preach for us on Sunday morning, Feb. 2nd. This will be his first visit to our church and it will be a great privilege to hear him.

The services for next Sunday are as follows:

9:30 a. m., Bible School.

10:45 a. m., Sermon on "Three Historical Instances of Apostasy: Cain, Balaam and Korah." This message will bring additional light on the subject of the peril of departing from the "faith once for all delivered to the saints."

6:45 p. m., Christian Endeavor meeting. Subject, "Books that Have Helped Me." Prov. 2:1-9. Miss Ada Fritsch, Leader.

7:30 p. m., Song service and sermon on "Where Will You Spend Eternity?"

The prayer meeting is held on Wednesday evening at 8:45.

Those not attending any other church are cordially invited to these services.

EBENEZER EVANGELICAL

Prayer meeting every Wednesday evening at 7:30.

Teacher Training Class meets at 8:00 p. m. on Wednesday evening. Sunday school session at 10:00 a. m.

Preaching services at 11 a. m. and 7:30 p. m.

Six miles of advertising signs removed as result of anti-bill-board ordinance at Los Angeles, Cal. The people of that resort have at last awakened to the fact that tourists don't spend their good money to come and gaze at the face powder and fly screen stuff.

Someone wants to know what has become of all the billion cent pieces the mints coined in the past six years? Well, it is a close race between the slot machines and the contribution boxes to see which gets the most of them.

YOUNG WOMEN'S PATRIOTIC LEAGUE—HIGHWOOD

A new Girls' Work Secretary has risen on the horizon of the Young Women's Patriotic League. Miss Helen Moses, who has been connected with the League since last June, first as a full-time secretary, and the last few months on part time, has had to give up the Highwood work and devote all her time to the Y. W. C. A., at Lake Forest. To take up her work and branch out in new club work, Miss Lois Dick of Minneapolis has been engaged. Miss Dick took up her duties last Thursday. Come and get acquainted with her. She has curly, golden hair, is very petite and—but I mustn't tell you all. You want to see her for yourself.

On Thursday nights, beginning on January 30th, all club girls and all girls who want to become club girls are invited to meet Miss Dick at the Girls' Gymnasium at the High School for an evening of basket-ball and swimming. Are you going to be one of them? The gym will be open after seven o'clock. There can't help but be pep aplenty, for the girls of the Highland Park Y. W. C. A. will also be there with Miss Reynolds.

D. A. R. NEWS

The North Shore Chapter of the Daughters of the American Revolution held their monthly meeting on Thursday, January 16, at the home of Mrs. George McBride. Mrs. Frank Green read a delightful paper on Lowell's Commemoration Ode and other poems, and Mrs. Henry Mason told the ladies of the work to be done at Fort Sheridan in the way of assisting and entertaining the disabled men from overseas. As there is no hostess house at the Fort near enough for the more seriously wounded to reach, the room occupied by the library association and the Red Cross is the only place available for any work of this kind at present, and it is far too small to meet the rapidly increasing need.

The D. A. R. voted to assist Mrs. Mason and to interest their friends in this very necessary service. A good book and a little chat over a cup of tea makes a wonderful difference in the length of the day to some convalescent with many days of monotonous hospital life before him and it is to the women of the North Shore that the men at Fort Sheridan must look for this bit of brightness.

A social hour followed the program.

"Churchgoer" writes to ask what has become of the man with the squeaky boots who used to take up the collection. Last heard from the owner of that warm and comfortable footwear is still alive at the age of 100, while the thin soled shoe man who succeeded him got influenza and died.

Mr. Hoover has appointed Mr. E. M. Fish as his food agent. Mr. Fish must be careful and do no beefing.

The builders of the Hog Island ship plant deny they were slow, and they seem to prove their case by the speed with which they spent the money.

And the farmer who kicks on the hard conditions of the dairy business is often the same one who thinks you can produce milk in a hog pen.

Some people's theory of relieving possible hard times is to create a vast number of new government positions to be paid for by the taxpayers.

Don't move, Daddy--- you look so funny"

Daddy certainly does look funny peering over his reading glasses every time he wants to see objects more than a few feet away.

Thousands of men and women are in the same "fix." They, too, wear glasses for near vision only.

KRYPTOK GLASSES THE INVISIBLE BIFOCALS

combine NEAR and FAR vision in one lens. Through the lower part you can read the smallest print; through the upper part you can see distant objects with equal clearness. Their surfaces are clear, smooth and even, which give them the appearance of being single-vision glasses.

KRYPTOK (pronounced Crip-tok) render unnecessary the continual removing of your glasses—the over-top squinting—or fussing with two pairs. They keep your eyes young in looks as well as in usefulness.

Your eyes are important; therefore, it is important to grind glasses to fit them. We do that.
