Do not be impatient when you get the Busy signal over the telephone. It simply means that someone has gotten the line you wanted to use, first. No one is at fault.

Wait a minute or two and then repeat your call.

There is no way in which to get a message through over a line that is already in use.

COMMITTEE ORGANIZED TO ASSIST RED CROSS

Organization to Keep in Touch With Affairs at Fort Sheridan

Headed by Mrs. James A. Patton of Evanston, as chairman, a Red Cross committee of women from the North Shore towns has been organized by Ralph' A. Bard, Director of Military Relief, Central Division, with the assistance of the Chicago Chapter, to co-operate in the Red Cross work at Fort Sheridan Hospital, which work is carried on under the direction of Red Cross Field Director Van B Eyerly and a force of assistants. The following are members of the com-

Mrs. James A. Patton, Chairman, 1426 Ridge Ave., Evanston.

Mrs. M. C. Beymer, 622 Maple Ave., Mrs. Grant Ridgway, Kenilworth.

Mrs. Wm. C. Boyden, 725 Pine St., Mrs. A. E. Tilroe, 978 Oak St.

Hubbard Woods. Mrs. Henry Bingham, 520 Greeneaf Ave., Glencoe.

Mrs. Eugene Bournique, Central Ave., Highland Park. Mrs. Charles T. Atkinson, Lake

Forest. Mrs. John MacMahon, 5426 E. View Park Ave., Chicago.

Mrs. E. G. Kynock, Lake Bluff. This committee which will be known as the Fort Sheridan Auxiliary, will keep in constant touch with the situation at the hospital, and will co-operate at all times with Field Director Eyerly and the director of military relief in supplying emergency articles that may be necessary from time to time but which cannot be easily purchased.

The committee has in each of the north shore towns a Red Cross Representative who will be in close touch with conditions at Fort Sheridan and will be an authority t whom anyone in that particular com munity may refer for authentic information as to the needs at th hospital. Their sources of informa tion will be such that they will competent to answer and to quickly ascertain the facts regarding an inquiry that may arise or dispose o any rumor that may be circulated.

In announcing the organization of the auxiliary committee, the Cen tral Division headquarters of the Red Cross issued the following state

"The circulation of rumors th had no foundation in fact have caused some well meaning people to undertake to raise funds to provide articles which are constanly on hand at the Red Cross warehouse, Fort Sheridan or which are immediately supplied by the Red Cross whenever necessary. The Red Cross desire is to provide everything that may be necessary at Fort Sheridan, either from our own supplies, by purchase in the open market, or acting thru the newly formed women's auxiliary

"It will not be necessary for anyone to solicit funds to help take care of the situation at Fort Sheridan and we sincerely hope that before any individuals undertake to do anything of the kind, they will communicate with the Field Director for the Red Cross at Fort Sheridan or with one of the committee of the Fort Sheridan Auxiliary.

"Only a small proportion of the returned wounded at the Fort Sheridan hospital are confined to their ward entertainment. A complete program of entertainments for each night in the week has been arranged and suitable ward entertainments will be provided for those unable to attend the others. There is an ample supply of phonographs and records on hand in the wards and rec stantly available; there are now si reation rooms and more will be ad- itors will be provided for the wards and more will be supplied constant- have the patients visited, except of ly.
