Educational institutions now offer courses that teach one to become a convincing talker. Parents should take it so as to be able to argue with their children.

A lot of folks get confidence and conceit mixed, with sad results.

The world is a great counter on which are displayed its products topped by a sign, "help yourself."

However, some generous men allow their wives to look at the spring millinery in the store windows, provided they agree not to go inside.

The Germans went to war largely to control the world's trade, but up to date no one has offered 30 cents for the agency of any "Made in Germany" goods.

The man who can generate inspiration never has to wait for the other fellow.

And the feminine garden costumes look so sweet that the men have about decided to resign the garden to their wives exclusively.

The women gardeners have now taken up the first job of the season which is the purchase of a becoming garden costume.

Being told that they should study the newspapers so as to vote intelligently, many men read every line of the baseball news.

The people who get a four hour working day will be about the same ones who only have one meal daily.

DO NOT "CASH IN" YOUR WAR SAVINGS STAMPS

DUTY TO THE GOVERNMENT

Third Assistant Postmaster Appeals to American Public to Hold Them Until Maturity

To all Postmasters: Regulations of the Postmaster General and instructions to this office heretofore issued have clearly defined the duties in respect to the sale of War Savings certificate stamps and the procedure necessary for their payment. They are not transferable but when stamps are properly affixed to a War Savings certificate, owners of stamps are entitled to payment after ten days' notice in writing—Unregistered War Savings certificates at any money order post office and registered War Savings certificates only at the office of registration.

Many owners of stamps are presenting them for payment, seemingly on the assumption that the Government no longer needs the money received for them. While it is true that the war is practically at an end, it is equally true that a large part of the expenditures of the war must still be met by the sale of War Savings stamps and Liberty Loan bonds.
The sudden termination of the war left the Government involved in expenses that might in part have been avoided if it had been known when the war was to end, but of course it was not possible to anticipate the event. The financial obligations of the war must therefore continue for many months and the National Treasury needs the money received from the sale of War Savings stamps to aid in meeting them. The expenses of demobilizing the army and navy, the return of our boys from France, the care of our sick and wounded soldiers, and other liabilities incidental to the war, all call for a continuance of the same patriotic effort that the owners of War Savings certificates made during the tragic struggle.

Nevertheless the original owners of War Savings certificates with stamps affixed must be paid if payment is demanded, but I urgently request every postmaster to appeal to them courteously to refrain from demanding payment unless their financial condition absolutely requires it. I have full faith that when the people understand the needs of our Government they will defer asking payment until maturity of the certificates.

PUBLIC LIBRARY

Open week days 9-12; 1-6; 7-9
What Do You Want to Know About Gardens?

Come to the Public Library. Here you may find the U. S. government has written directions for your use, books and pamphlets. You may borrow them free, from the public library. A new volume on Strawberry growing, pamphlets and a good-sized volume on mushrooms, the pinching of the items of interest added this week. Every week there is something new. Don't be satisfied with coming once. Come again and again and always you will find a new exhibit of books on some timely subject or new books of charm and utility.

If you cannot find what you want, ask the attendant. If it can be found in the library you may have it for the asking. The special exhibitions of books set out to tempt you to take them home with you this week are:

- In the fiction room—Gardens and gardening China and the Chinese Poultry raising
Seed catalogues
Reconstruction and Public Health League of Nations

In the main room—
New books
Rental books

In the juvenile room—
Nature Study and Birds An unusual set of posters have been aung which the U. S. Children's Bureau has sent us from Washington, dealing with the Back to School drive. The statistics and arguments are of tremendous importance and significance just now.

What do you want to know about Russia? Come to the public library and get a book or two: Trotsky's book and his point of view, Ross' Russia in Upheaval, or some of the old Russian writers who will give the awful condition of affairs in that bewildered country before the Revolution.

Read "Mrs. Wiggs of the Cabbage Patch," before you see the movie this week, or read it afterwards.
How about spring clothes to wear in the new spring gardens? Come to the public library and see the style books and fashion magazines, the Country Life and garden magazines, laugh at Life, and wonder over the London Illustrated News.

The Evanston Woman's Club has become so interested in the library and its tremendous ability to reach every part and person in the community that it has given over an afternoon to the consideration of the public library and its influence in the community in regard to Americanization. Librarians of the North Shore were sent complimentary tickets, and Highland Park was represented by Miss Ridlon. Exhibits of books on "Business Before Pleasure," "How the Library Helps in Our Amusements," and many other charming and interesting subjects were arranged by the staff of the Evanston Public Library in the parlors of the club house. The most significant thing of the afternoon was the way in which the Woman's Club considered itself an integral part of the library and a working part of its support. What could be a wider force for Americanization?

H. P. WOMAN'S CLUB

The next meeting is Tuesday afternoon, April 1, at 2:30, Witten Hall. The luncheon scheduled for this date is postponed until the day of election, April 15. The program for next Tuesday will consist of songs by Miss Tier and music by Messrs. Edward and Frank Gough, two brothers who have returned from overseas duties.

CARD OF THANKS

we could but penetrate it all would be well.
