DEATHS

Newton Clarence Maechtle
The youngest son of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Maechtle, named Newton Clarence, died at their home on Second Street on Sunday morning, April 13th. He was born March 24, 1906. For over a year his health failed him. While under the doctor's care most of that time he also had the affectionate attention of his folks at home. In school he was sincere in his efforts to acquire an education. As a member of the United Evangelical Sunday school he was earnest, and it seems sad to have a young life broken down. Members of several boys' classes in his Sunday school served as pallbearers. Quite a large number of people gathered for the burial service on Tuesday afternoon. Due to the temporary illness of Pastor J. H. Keagle, Rev. H. H. Thoren of Chicago, a former pastor of the family, came up for the service. The family has the sympathy of the people in their bereavement. Interment was at Northfield cemetery.

John Reetenwald

John Reetenwald, infant son of Mr. and Mrs. John Reetenwald, died Tuesday as the result of spinal trouble. Funeral will take place at one o'clock today at the residence with burial in Sacred Heart cemetery.

PLEDGES FOR Y. W. C. A. IN CHURCHES SUNDAY

People Urged to Help the Association Who in Turn Help the City's Young Girls

In order to support the Y. W. C. A. for the coming year, the ministers of the city have arranged to give people of Highland Park an opportunity to pledge their financial support next Sunday morning in all the churches of the city.

Because of the large amount of extra work involved in the war activities which the Association has been carrying on, aside from all the regular activities, it is absolutely necessary that the people of this city give their financial aid. The Y. W. C. A. is partially self supporting, through the membership fees, but one of the essential principles of the organization is dependence on the friends who are anxious to have a part in carrying on the work among the girls of the city.

Pledge cards providing for quarterly payments will be passed in all the churches, and it is the earnest hope of the Board of Directors that all who are interested in the work will respond generously.
