Chicago talks it over with Seattle

Good morning, Western friend! How go those shingle mills these days? It's your good red cedar that covers so many house-tops here. And your oriental trade? Is it looking up? Smoke an Owl, won't you?

Thanks, replied Seattle, for the Owl—and other things. Thanks for your fine fresh meats. Thanks for your iron, your steel. And your railroads bring my ships many a fine cargo.

Great travelers, these two cigars, Owl and White Owl. Well known and well liked all over the old U. S. A. The reasons? Mellow fragrance and new dependability. You'll find pleasure in the proving.
