

House Cleaning

THE FATIGUE and unpleasantness of house cleaning may be eliminated by assigning to us the task of cleaning the wearing apparel of the family and the furnishings of the rooms, the rugs, draperies, etc.

Our scientific process will refresh and restore the garments, etc., without the wear and tear which is unavoidably a part of imperfect home method.

SOCIAL ACTIVITY

Miss Ruth Benson was hostess to a number of friends at a kitchen shower last Friday evening in honor of Mrs. Harold F. Smith, whose marriage to Mr. Smith took place recently. Mr. and Mrs. Smith expect to move very soon to Geneseo where they will make their home in the future.

Announcement is made of the marriage of Miss Elizabeth Salyards, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Salyards, to Mr. Dell Edward Reiche, of Dallas, Tex., which took place on Thursday evening, May eighth, at Trinity Church. Mr. and Mrs. Reiche will make their home with Mrs. Reiche's parents for the present.

Last Friday evening the members of the Evangelical Lutheran church gave a reception to Rev. and Mrs. W. F. Suhr, in the assembly room of the church. Mrs. Suhr was formerly Miss Martha Luecke of Fort Wayne, Ind. The young couple were married May 1st in Fort Wayne. The church was prettily decorated in pink and white in honor of the occasion. A number of lovely presents were given Mr. and Mrs. Suhr, by the church members.

Mrs. Samuel Levin will entertain Campbell Chapter Guild this afternoon.

Mrs. Julius Zimmer will be hostess to the Five Hundred Club this afternoon.

Mr. Edward Hintz of Oakwood avenue entertained the Baraca class of the U. E. church on Tuesday night.

LINCOLN SCHOOL

The annual business meeting of the Lincoln School division of the P. T. A. was held last Wednesday afternoon. The officers who served last year were re-elected for the ensuing year with the exception of the secretary, Mrs. Turpin. Mrs. Lowe is the new secretary. Following are the officers:

- Mrs. F. de Anguerra, President.
- Mrs. Shipness, Vice-President
- Mrs. Sanderson, Treasurer.
- Mrs. Lowe, Secretary.

At the general assembly held last Friday afternoon at one o'clock the school was presented a picture, The Canterbury Cathedral, by the North Shore Chapter of the D. A. R. Members of the D. A. R. present were Mrs. Leaming, Mrs. Seyfarth, Mrs. Hawkins, and Mrs. Buchanan. Mrs. Leaming gave the presentation speech. At this assembly some very interesting stereopticon slides which were recently given to the school by Mr. Beatty were shown. The school greatly appreciates these generous gifts of friends.

The people who turned down the Liberty Loan solicitor, except for real misfortune, won't be bothered by his calls any more, and perhaps not by the calls of anyone else.

school convention to be held at Aurora, Ill., Thursday and Friday. Lois and Edna Rehm of Oak Park spent Friday at the John A. Stryker home.

Cook John Jacobs, Jr., stationed at Fort Monroe, Virginia, who is on a month furlough, is visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. Jacobs, and other relatives. Up until last November he had spent three years in the Panama Canal Zone. This is his first furlough in four years.

The Misses Stryker of Oak Park spent Sunday at the home of Mr. I. Stryker.

Laurel Stryker spent the week end at the home of I. R. Rehm of Oak Park.

Deerfield went over the top in the Victory Liberty Loan by more than a thousand, the quota being $33,200, and $43,250 was subscribed which only proved the Deerfield people had responded generously to the appeal to finish the job. Sufficient praise cannot be given to Mr. Arthur J. Ender who labored so hard in the interest of the loan and succeeded in putting Deerfield over the top. He was assisted by Mr. Ira Gardner, Mesdames Eugene Ender, Francis Garrity, Alex Willman and Miss Irene Rokenbach.

At the annual meeting of the Deerfield Grammar School Parent-Teacher Association held in the assembly hall of the grammar school Friday afternoon the following officers were elected:

- President: Mrs. Oscar Beecham.
- V. President: Mrs. William Gaddis.
- Secretary: Miss Sadie Galloway.
- Mrs. Beecham was appointed delegate to the P. T. A. State meeting at Peoria. The pupils gave a brief program:

- Recitation—"Mothers' Day"—Marjorie Garrity.
- Recitation—"The Fellow That Your Mother Thinks You Are."—Alfred Johnson.
- Songs by the first and second grades—Bring the Five.
- Songs by the third and fourth grades—Salvation Lasse of Mine.
- Song—"Mother O' Mine"—Marion Landaw with Pearl Peterson at the piano.

Three games—"Who Stole the King's Keys?" Imitation of bird calls, and one illustrating the correct use of the verb.

Mrs. Grace Williamson Willett of the Chicago Woman's Club gave her talk on Better American Speech for Better Americans.

Mr. McDowell preached on "A Mother Crown" Sunday morning. "Mary, the Mother of Jesus," was the topic of the C. E. meeting.

The Boy Scouts will meet Thursday evening instead of Friday of this week.

The Woman's Missionary Society of the Presbyterian church will be entertained by Mrs. Franc Hempstead Thursday afternoon. Miss Snell, a missionary from China, will speak.

A program will be given in the Presbyterian church Friday evening to which all of the returned soldiers and sailors are invited. A reception will follow in the Community house.

Mrs. Gutzler of Northfield, Ill., Mr. Ed Ritzenthaler of Northfield, Minn., Mrs. Frank Fritsch of Highwood, Miss Ada Fritsch of Highland Park, were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. James Fritsch Saturday.

Mrs. Myron Wright of Denver, Colo., has returned from New York and spent the week end with her father, John A. Reichelt. Three days of this week Mrs. Wright visited Miss Faith Reichelt at Mt. Carroll, Ill.

Miss Irene McCadie of Chicago was the week end guest of Mrs. Frank Peterson.

Mr. and Mrs. Lincoln Pettis had as their dinner guests Monday, Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Whiting, Mr. and Mrs. Almon Powers of Irving Park. Mr. Powers returned Thursday with the 149th Field Artillery of the Rainbow Division after spending almost two years in France. Mr. and Mrs. Powers will leave Thursday for Detroit, Michigan, where they will spend their delayed honeymoon.

Little has been heard of the "No beer, no work" people, since their wives casually dropped some oracular remarks about "No dinner."

UNITED EVANGELICAL
J. H. KEAGLE, Pastor
Mothers' Day was celebrated with proper exercises in the Sunday School and an appropriate sermon by the pastor. The attendance was good and the white flower in honor or memory of Mother was much in evidence. In the evening the pastor preached "A Poem of the Spring Time."—Songs of Solomon, 2:10-13.

Tuesday night the Baraca class held its monthly meeting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Hintz.

The Senior prayer-meeting was held at the Maechtle home on N. Second street and the Junior meeting at the church parlors.

The following is the program for next Sunday:
Sunday School at 9:30 a. m.
Morning sermon at 10:45, subject "With Christ in the School of Prayer." Junior League at 2:30 p. m.; K. L. C. E. at 6:45, subject "The School of God, and its Lessons."—Ps. 119:1-40. Miss Kathryn Grant, leader. The young people of the First Presbyterian church will be guests of the League. Evening sermon at 7:45. Subject, "Our Wonderful Bible."
