Y. W. C. A. NEWS

Patriotic Service
Are there any groups of women or girls either in the Y. W. C. A. or other organizations or churches who would be interested in spending a portion of an afternoon a week at Fort Sheridan in the exhibit and lecture room putting the finishing touches on articles made by the patients in the Occupational Therapy and also in doing the monotonous job of preparing rags for the looms?

Weaving is coming to be a very special part of the curative work at the Fort. It is impossible for the workers to prepare the rags and it is more than can be expected of the patients in most cases.

So the plan of having one group or organization come one afternoon each week to help out with this work is being suggested.

They should go to Building 82, Ward 29, just south of the Red Cross house, and if any more information is required, the Y. W. C. A. secretary will cheerfully give it if phone 675 is called.

This is a splendid work and should appeal to all women and girls who have one afternoon a week to devote to a service of this nature.

The Hostess House Committee of the National Y. W. C. A. have opened a cafeteria in Fort Sheridan under the able management of Mrs. Greene who has had charge of the Y. W. C. A. cafe in Camp Dewey at the Great Lakes Training station for the past year. The temporary quarters are located near the north gate at the entrance of Ft. Sheridan.

As soon as the permanent hostess house which is being erected west of the Red Cross Building is completed the cafeteria will be moved into it.

A weekly rummage sale is being conducted at the Association Wednesday morning.
