ARDEN SHORE CAMP TO OPEN SUNDAY, JUNE 29

BUDGET THIS YEAR $25,000

The Big Drive Will Be Launched
Next Week, Between June
Twenty-third and Thirtieth

Arden Shore Camp will open on June 29th, at which time the management announces, it will be in complete readiness for the accommodation of its five hundred guests. There is a new dining room and a new administration building which constitute the latest improvements in this rapidly growing city of summer campers.

Seventeen hundred and twelve mothers and children of Chicago enjoyed last year the much needed rest and recreation which this great summer camp affords them. This year it is estimated the budget will require $25,000 to carry on the work, the high cost of living having very seriously affected the running expenses here as elsewhere. The Association raised $19,181 last year, but it would have faced a deficit of over $3000 had it not been for the balance from the previous year. A carefully balanced ration is planned for the summer guests and the buying is done so economically that the 1918 guests were kept well and strong on a per capita cost of twenty-six cents a day.

The Board feels it very imperative, if the camp is to survive, to increase the number of subscribers. Pursuant to this necessity Mrs. J. J. Liddall of Wilmette worked out a campaign of publicity which consisted of talks before the woman's clubs, running an illustrated slide at the movies for a week, and posters in the stores. At a recent luncheon for the main at a recent luncheon for twenty leaders, maps employed in the Liberty Loan drives were requisitioned, and the women present took one or two blocks in their respective neighborhoods for a house to house canvass. This plan during their one week drive in Wilmette trebled their yearly subscription. This plan was presented at a meeting of local chairmen which took place at the residence of Mrs. James Simpson in Glenview, and was very enthusiastically received by all the women present.

Arden Shore Camp is now doing work on a colossal scale for the education of both mothers and children in the every day problems of life. Women are taught to cook wholesome food for their families, to shop with new efficiency, to renounce the embroidered lace trimmed dresses and buy the durable fabrics for their children. They are given daily lessons under the direction of trained nurses in the bathing of their babies, in their feeding, the preparation of their bottles, and their various needs. Every working hour at the camp has lessons for the guests, either formal or otherwise, from the setting up exercises for the boys and their tooth-brush drill at six thirty a. m. to the later camp inspection when every bed is supposed to be made, every tent put in order.

To meet the pressing needs occasioned by the increased cost of living, a luncheon of Arden Shore leaders was held at the Moraine Hotel on Friday last, June 13th. Mrs. F. Wiegand who is the local chairman of Highland Park, was not able to preside, and asked Mrs. George A. Mason to act as vice-chairman on this occasion. Among those present were Mesdames George A. Mason, George R. Roberts, John Tuttle, W. W. Whitts, Chas. McNear, Frank Pitt, A. E. Tyner, Henry Doty, Henry Ghilden, Robert B. Gregory, Miss Charlotte G. Yoc.

The plan so successfully worked out at Wilmette had been presented to some of the interested women who were unable to be present at the luncheon, but who had nevertheless pledged their hearty support. They were Mrs. J. McGregor Adams, Honorary president, Miss Edith Boynton, Treasurer, Mesdames Alexander Carqueville, Fayette Munro, Merrill Williams, James Martin, Edward Smith, Sellar Ballard, Everett Miller, Donald Boynton, and Wm. S. Forest. Mrs. W. A. Alexander will have charge of publicity.

The big drive for Arden Shore will be launched next week, beginning on the 23rd, and lasting till the 30th. Last year Highland Park gave $3221.

POSTAL RATE WILL DROP JULY FIRST

Two Cent Rate on Letters and One Cent Post Cards to be Resumed

Postmaster Wm. M. Dooley has received a notice from the Postmaster General which officially fixes the re-adoption of pre-war postal rates on July 1. From the first of the coming month on, the rates on all first class mail will drop from three cents to two cents an ounce. Drop letters as well as those going out of the city will be two cents while postal cards will be one cent.

The notice from the postal headquarters also states that those owning three cent stamped envelopes or two cent stamped cards will have the privilege of returning them to the postoffice and getting them exchanged for two cent envelopes and one cent post cards. No money will be refunded on stamps but stamps of smaller denominations will be given in exchange. The exchange of the stamps will be closed after August 1st. All persons wishing to exchange their stamps or envelopes will have the privilege only between July 1 and August 1.

Due to the falling off in mail and huge increase in the cost of handling mailed material, the Government found it imperative to raise the rates on first class mail matter. With the end of the war however foreign mail has increased and sufficient help is again available to handle all of the mailed matter. The law which was passed ordering the raise in mail rates provided also that the rates should be dropped to normal six months after the termination of hostilities. As the armistice was signed early in November and peace is now assured the rates have been ordered to their pre-war basis again.

The committee as a whole will meet at the City Hall Monday evening at 7:30 o'clock. All citizens of Highland Park are welcome to attend this meeting whether a member of this committee or not.

COMMUNITY SHOP TO OPEN NEXT SATURDAY

WILL BE A HOME EXCHANGE

All Kinds of Handiwork Will Be Sold at Prices Less by the Sellers Less 15 Per Cent

The busiest place in Highland Park next Saturday will be the new Community Shop. It will be opened at 358 Central Avenue by a representative committee of women in this city. Everything will be for sale at the shop, particularly articles of handiwork and baked goods of all kinds.

The Community Shop is not a charity by any means, but merely a place for bringing buyers and sellers of useful things together, and to afford the opportunity for citizens to help themselves, and to develop the talent of the town in art and practical work of all kinds, by finding a good market for their products.

All kinds of handiwork will be sold at the prices set by the sellers. Second hand furniture, used clothing, etc., will be given to the shop to be sold at nominal prices to those who can find good use for them. Buyers are requested to file their wants at the shop for these products. One order for ten apple pies was sent in yesterday to be delivered Saturday morning. Everything in the food line can be ordered in advance by housekeepers.

It is desired to get the names of seamstresses who can work at home and will take orders for children's dresses, underclothing, and similar work, or to do mending. The shop will charge 15 per cent commission on the price set by the seller and a portion of the proceeds will be given to the charity for blind soldiers. The women who will run the shop are all volunteer workers. A tea garden will be conducted on the lawn east of the shop where ice cream and other refreshments will be served Saturday afternoon.

Those who have handiwork to sell, or wish customers in advance for the same should telephone Mrs. Burridge Butler 358.

Those who wish to take orders for cooking, baking, or have these articles for sale, should telephone Mrs. Wm. J. Lunderback, 89.

Mrs. Bradshaw Egan has charge of the used articles department. Patriotic citizens should search their garrets and clothes closets and telephone Mrs. Egan, 205.

Highland Park has never failed to make a success of any fine community efforts such as this shop can be made to be. If it pays financially, it is intended to enlarge the scope of its work to meet other community needs that may dispense with tag days.

The shop will be open daily from ten to four o'clock in charge of volunteer women.

This shop is not a society stunt or a charity, but a get-together movement to help, and cater to every man and woman and child in Highland Park and vicinity. Every reader of The Press is urged to take an interest in the work and help develop the community spirit the shop stands for.

AUTO STAG PARTY MEETS SAD ENDING

An automobile stag party returning home from Shermerville last Saturday afternoon came to a sad ending when the Overland car belonging to John Davis of Highwood, turned turtle on South Green Bay Road throwing the merry party into a ditch. The occupants of the car, Willis Dever, Bud Jerome, John Davis, Claude Brace and "Blondy" Smith, all of Highwood, were fortunate enough to escape with a few bruises, with the exception of Dever who received a compound fracture in his left leg and will be laid up for several months. Prior's ambulance was called immediately after the accident and assisted in taking the injured men to the Highland Park hospital.

A large and enthusiastic crowd gathered in the club rooms of the Young Men's Club, Tuesday evening, it being the first meeting since its reorganization, and initiation of fifty new members. At this meeting twelve new additional members were accepted and it is quite certain that in the very near future the club will have demonstrated its success in every manner and purpose.

President, Edward Gourley; 1st vice-president, Walter Joyner; 2nd vice-president, John Udell; secretary, Leslie Grant; treasurer, Martin Hart; captain of the life saving crew, Mr. John Mooney. During the summer months the life saving crew will be perfected and all the members are urgently requested to be on hand at the large front this coming Saturday and Sunday in order that the Captain of the crew may start organizing the crew. RAVENSWOOD MAGNETS DEFEAT LOCAL TEAM

The Highland Park baseball team lost to the Ravenswood Magnets last Sunday afternoon with a score of 5 to 11. The loss of this game is attributed to the fact that the team is newly organized and regular positions for the men have not been assigned. Hessler, the local team's pitcher, was unable to play Sunday owing to injuries received when hit by the ball at the previous game. The grandstand will be completed Sunday and it is hoped there will be a good attendance at the next game.

MRS. STRANG RELEASED UNDER $25,000 BOND PENDING TRIAL

RETURNED TO HER HOME IN HIGHLAND PARK MONDAY

Prominent Men of Highland Park and Deerfield Township Sign Names to the Bond Which Returns Accused Woman to Her Family for Summer Months.

News of the release of Mrs. Herbert Strang from the Lake County jail finds a welcome audience among the people of this community where she lives. She returned to her home here Monday evening, released under a $25,000 bond which was approved and accepted by Police Magistrate Walter Taylor. Considering the alleged seriousness of this case, the size of the bond is regarded as very moderate. It is understood that the defendant waived examination and relieved the State's Attorney from substantiating, at this time, his prima facie case, and that, in return for this concession on the part of Mrs. Strang, the State's Attorney consented to a release on bond.

It is reported that the State's Attorney has employed James McQueeney, a Chicago detective, to secure evidence in order to bolster up the weak charges against the accused woman. McQueeney is known to be interviewing possible witnesses in Highland Park and Highwood. In consideration of her anxiety on behalf of her children, members of the family and friends of Mrs. Strang are understood to have advised her to pursue this course in order to bring about an earlier reunion with her four children, from whom she was so abruptly separated two weeks ago. From present indications the case promises to be another criminal case and, like the Orpet trial, to create a vast amount of sensation at the expense of the tax payers. The question naturally arises, is it to be a race for justice, or for "winning the case?"

Ten of the most prominent men of Highland Park and Deerfield Township, property owners and holders of official positions, signed their names to the bond which guaranteed the good faith of Mrs. Herbert Strang. Anticipating the trial in October, Mrs. Strang, together with her children will spend the intervening summer months with relatives out of the city.

GET READY FOR THE GARDEN SHOW

Garden Club Plans Annual Event to Take Place This Fall. Prizes Will Be Awarded

The oldest inhabitant has never seen a finer growing season than this for flower gardens and vegetable patches, and the Highland Park Garden club is laying great plans already for its fall show.

The show will be held at the Highland Park club as usual, and the competition for ribbons promises to be keener than ever.

Everybody is bragging about flower and vegetable prospects this year but it will be the gardeners who will carry off the Garden Show ribbons later on, who may well feel proud.

The Club will run the show but entries are solicited from the public generally.

PRESBYTERIAN AUXILIARY HOLDS ANNUAL LUNCHEON

The annual auxiliary luncheon of the Presbyterian Old People's home was given at the home Monday, the sixteenth. Many churches of the Chicago Presbytery were represented. In all a company of about one hundred and fifty was there. Miss Borden, chairman of the Auxiliary Board, presided. Rev. Mr. Pitt spoke most ardently on the good work being done. A musical program was given by Miss Helen Daniels and Miss Charlotte H. Brinkman, both being pupils of Madame Dotti of Chicago, formerly of Cincinnati, who is preparing them for grand opera. Their career will be of interest to all who heard them. A charming group of songs was sung by Miss Brinkman and Miss Daniels presided at the piano. The meeting ended in a social hour for those in the home and the guests of the afternoon.

BOTTLE THROWN IN LAKE FOUND A YEAR LATER

Highland Park Boys Get Word of Finding From Colon, Central America

Have you ever thrown an empty corked bottle into the lake or river and wondered just how far it would float before its journey ended? That same idea entered into the minds of three of our Highland Park boys and so they conceived an idea by which they thought they might solve this problem.

On June 13th, 1918, Dwight Moorp, Richard Sandwick, and Edward Stuppel wrote their names and addresses on a slip of paper with the request that the finder of the bottle in which the note was placed, return the note and notify them where he had picked it up. A year passed and nothing had been heard from the note, but finally, on June 16, 1919, the anxiety of the boys was relieved for the bottle had been picked up by a Naval officer who was commander of a submarine chaser off the coast of Colon, Central America. The route which the bottle pursued was presumably from Lake Michigan to the Drainage canal, and from thence to the Mississippi river to the Gulf of Mexico, into the Caribbean Sea and was on its way through the Panama Canal when picked up.
