UNITED EVANGELICAL

The services at this church were well attended last Sunday. It is gratifying to note the attendance at the evening service in spite of the hot weather. And this is as it should be. If we have any conception of the meaning of such passages as 2 Cor. 5:14,15, and any disposition to exemplify it, we will show our sacrificial love for Christ by keeping His altar-fires burning even in the sultry days of July and August.

The W. M. S. will hold its monthly meeting at the church next Thursday at 2:30 p. m.

The services for the coming Sabbath are as follows:

Sunday school at 9:30 a. m. sharp. The church building is becoming too small to accommodate the growing school and a large tent has been erected in the church yard for the primary department. The children enjoy it immensely. The tent will be used until the cold weather begins, when some other expedient will be used.

Junior League at 2:30 p. m., and Senior League at 6:45. The subject will be "Our Denominational History and Principles" and Miss Lucile Fritsch will lead the meeting.

The pastor will preach at 10:30 and 7:45. The subject of his morning's discourse will be "God's Plan for This Age," and for the evening, "Prophecy." You are cordially invited to these services.

HIGHWOOD PATRIOTIC LEAGUE

July is always the time for outdoor activities. Electric fans and ice-cold lemonade help make even an indoor party successful. But even with these advantages the Patriotic Leaguers preferred a lawn party to the regular bunco party last Tuesday evening. The guests—soldiers from the fort, were taken to Mrs. Kathryn Kelley's where Japanese lanterns made an already attractive lawn a veritable fairyland. There the gypsy awaited them, ready to spin her yarns for a handshake. And there they found games, many games—such games as take one back to his childhood days—(oh not so many years ago at that). And there they found "cats." Yes, this was a real party.

The Monday night club readily adjourned its meeting this past week to Ravinia Park, for they were the guests of a very good friend of the League for the evening. The Senior group of Girl Reserves is to have the same treat this Friday evening.
