BAKERY IMPROVEMENT MEETS HEARTY APPROVAL

New Show Window and Rearranged Interior of Geary's Sanitary Bakery is Most Attractive

Mr. C. E. Geary of Geary's Sanitary Bakery has fallen in line with the trend of general improvement on W. Central Avenue and enlarged his store, put in a fine new store window. and rearranged the interior in a most attractive manner.

Geary's Bakery has been running along in ou midst for many years, yet few people realize the extent of the butsiness of this bake shop. An is the output, not to mention a relative number of cakes, pies, cookies, doughnuts and all the other pastry novelties which adorn the window and invite the passer-by.

The Geary Bakery supplies the Exmoor Club, the Lake Shore Club, and the Fort Sheridan Exchange. They employ five bakers and make all the bread by hand. "But who ever heard of making any other way except by hand-" exclaim the uninformed. But wait! The Schultz bread in Chicago, for instance, is all made by machinery, which naturally makes a vast difference in the quality of bread and the number of hands it requires to turn it out.
