SALVATION ARMY DRIVE STARTS NEXT MONDAY

COUNTY'S QUOTA IS $16,300.00

Drive is for $2,250,000.00 of which $1,500,000.00 is to be raised in Cook County

The Salvation Army Home Service drive for the state of Illinois, outside of Cook county, was formally started at a meeting held in the Capitol at Springfield last Wednesday. Representatives from virtually every county in the state were present, as well as district and county chairmen. Mr. John O'Keefe of this city attended the meeting as a delegate from Lake County.

Lieut. Governor Oglesby, in the absence of Governor Lowden, presided and endorsed the movement.

Mr. Peabody outlined the plan of campaign and urged an organization that would cover districts, counties, and precincts. He also said that the object of the drive was to raise $2,250,000 of which $1,500,000 was to be raised in the county of Cook, and the balance in the State; that among other things, the money was to be used for a New Rescue and Maternity Hospital with Training School for Salvation Army Nurses, three new home centre buildings, addition to Young Woman's Boarding Home, Boys' Home and Trade School, a summer vacation home, new Salvation Army Halls, and relief centers all over the State.

Mr. Peabody urged that the Salvation Army organization be made a state institution similar to the Y. M. C. A., Knights of Columbus, Jewish Charities and other great permanent organizations for the benefit of the people. He stated that no more than 6 per cent of all the money heretofore collected for Home Service Work in the Salvation Army organization had been expended for the maintenance of the organization itself, a remarkable record for economical distribution of charity.

Particular attention was called by Mr. Peabody to the personnel of the various state, district and county organizations and the high class of citizens who had engaged in this splendid work. Representative men from the City of Chicago are devoting their time and efforts to the work. Citizens of all nationalities and all religious denominations, as well as the Elks, Knights of Columbus, Y. M. C. A., the Jewish Charities, the American Legion, the labor organizations, in fact every great charitable organization is helping the drive. The returned soldiers must not be overlooked; they too are using every resource at their command, to make the drive a success.

Quotas have been fixed for all the counties in the state, and it is the plan of the campaign directors to award honor flags to the county which reaches its quota, and another to the county making the highest percentage over its quota. The quota for Lake County is $16,300.

15,000 BOTTLES OF BEER SEIZED AT WOODSTOCK

Cases Heaped Together, Saturated with Kerosene and Burned Saturday Night

Cases containing 15,000 bottles of beer, confiscated under the search and seizure act, were burned Saturday at Woodstock, by order of Judge Barnes. The cases were heaped together, saturated with kerosene, and a match applied. The bottles were seized enroute from Wisconsin to Chicago. All the defendants have pleaded guilty and been fined.

State's Attorney James G. Welch of Lake County announces he is perfecting plans to search every automobile, truck, or vehicle of any description crossing the Illinois-Wisconsin state boundary line.

Two guards will be placed on duty at every highway and trail, of which there are more than a dozen. In addition signs, illuminated by red lanterns, will be installed. They will read: "State line of Illinois, south bound motor cars will please stop for inspection by officers in charge. By order of the county board of supervisors."

PLAN A SERIES OF CONCERTS FOR WAUKEGAN

Many Artists Scheduled to Appear at Majestic Theatre, During Coming Winter

Emil Trachsel of Waukegan is planning on giving a series of concerts in Waukegan the coming winter. His plans include some musical events of unusual importance but definite steps will not be taken until he determines whether the city is ready to receive such a series.

Mr. Trachsel reports that he has already received many subscriptions from Highland Park and Lake Forest. He believes that a series of such high standard should receive the support of local people as Waukegan is but a few minutes ride either by train or auto.

For the course he contemplates these attractions:

FLORENCE MACBETH—Oct. 16.—A recent acquisition of the Chicago Grand Opera. One of the greatest coloratura sopranos.

PAUL ALTHOUSE—Dec. 11.—Tenor Metropolitan Opera whom New York critics compare with Caruso.

LEO ORNSTEIN—Jan. 15.—Famous Russian pianist and composer.

LEON SAMENTI—Feb. 26.—Holand's greatest violinist and SLOE-DAD RINDON—The Spanish Coloratura.

CHARLES WAKEFIELD CADMAN & PRINCESS TSIANINA—April 8.—Mr. Cadman is probably the greatest living American composer and authority on Indian music; he will appear in recital with Tsianina, the Indian Princess. (Soprano).

The 8:09 Train

By Burrige D. Butler

When the breakfast dishes rattle in the kitchen pan, Every house in town coughs up a man, Who beats it for the station through street and lane Watch in hand for the 8:09 train.

There's the predatory rich in his motor car Burning up the pike from near and far, But the law-abiding sucker with might and main Rides Shank's mare for the 8:09 train.

The early wesenheimers always there on time Ain't got no place in this here rhyme, It's the everyday piker I quote in this refrain— The guy who always hustles for the 8:09 train.

It's funny every morning how the clocks run down, How they stop and look and listen all over the town, And we hear that all the women are going insane Getting hubby ready for the 8:09 train.

That train for transportation delivers the goods— When you once get aboard you're out of the woods, Though other friends may fail you, I still maintain You can set your turnip by the 8:09 train.

The cozy club car smoker is a real bridge joint, Everybody playing for half a cent a point, Some awful clever shooters with whist on the brain Got their early education on the 8:09 train.

When a new engineer takes the 8:09 out He slides forty rods past the old water spout, Then half way to Ravinia in sun or rain The whole gang runs for the 8:09 train.

The guy who left his ticket at home in his vest Tells a story and the con does the rest, It's fun to see him worry, but he never pleads in vain 'Cause it's one big family on the 8:09 train.

They're a bunch of real commuters and very human still Who gather every morning on the top of that hill, And when you take a longer trip, the fellows who remain Are surely going to miss you on the 8:09 train.

LAKE COUNTY MAY PATROL STATE LINE

MILITIA MAY BE CALLED

Attorney General Brundage Advises States Attorney Welch That Liquor Laws Must Be Enforced

"No deputies have as yet been appointed to patrol the state line near Zion," said State's Attorney Welch following a conference with Sheriff Green yesterday. Unless these deputies are at work within a week, or the hauling of liquor is stopped, Attorney General Brundage will send the state militia here, as he warned Attorney Welch Wednesday.

"It will be necessary to place deputies on each road and there must be both day and night shifts. There are eight roads, and it is necessary to have a deputy at each, with three shifts of eight hours each. This will cost the county at least $96 a day. The general feeling seems to be that the county should not be compelled to stand the expense, because the whole thing is really a state proposition.

The general feeling seems to be that the county should not be compelled to stand the expense, because the whole thing is really a state proposition.

In considering these liquor haulers and their methods, it is interesting to note how many different kinds of attempts have been made. Moving vans, trucks, touring cars, hay racks and what not have been employed to convey the liquor across the border. Railways have refused to accept any transportation of this goods, so it is now up to the haulers to try something new, like airplanes or submarines. The question is, could they be detected and would we have to resort to air police and water police to arrest them?

Even if the officials decide to put on the deputies there will be considerable difficulty in getting men who are willing to do the work. Those informed about conditions claim the class of men engaged in illegal traffic say they are of an element that would not hesitate at lead-piping in order to carry out the scheme of smuggling the liquor into Chicago from Wisconsin. Many of them are professional sluggers who would commit murder if necessary to escape arrest.

JUNIOR R. O. T. C. FAILS TO MATERIALIZE

SCARCITY OF ARMY OFFICERS COMPETENT TO TRAIN STUDENTS IN HIGH SCHOOLS GIVEN AS REASON

Judging from the present outlook it would appear that the proposed plan to inaugurate a Junior R. O. T. C. at the Deerfield-Shields High School can not be realized. Extensive plans had been drafted for this enterprise by the United States government under which arrangement the government would furnish the high school boys throughout the country with uniforms, guns, and equipment. The boys would be trained at government expense under a competent Army officer, and in case of war, would stand a better chance for advancement than the boy without military training. According to the terms of the proposed government plan to train the young men of high school age for military duty, a minimum of one hundred students were to be required for the unit, these boys to be furnished with complete equipment and clothes, including overcoats. Boys under fourteen were not eligible, or at least, they would not be supplied with uniforms.

Until yesterday it was the intention of the authorities of Deerfield-Shields to submit this question of establishing a Junior R. O. T. C. to a referendum vote of the parents and guardians of boy students. Word came yesterday, however, that the plan had been abandoned on the part of the government because of the scarcity of officers to train such high school units. If this situation is indeed true, it will bring about a very grave state of affairs in the high schools all over the country. The probability is they will, in many cases, abandon military training altogether, and revert back to the old pre-war standard where the students had even less exercise than they did last year.

In case the Junior R. O. T. C. fails entirely to be realized, it is hoped that military training at Deerfield-Shields will be resumed under the regime of last year. High schools all over the country will be affected by the failure of the proposed Junior R. O. T. C., and there is every reason to believe that these schools, well knowing as they do the beneficial results of military training, will not fail to establish the same cadet training which they had last year.

MILLION DOLLAR ROAD BOND ISSUE FAVORED

Board of Supervisors Vote to Go Ahead Mapping Out Plans for County Roads

The Board of Supervisors at their meeting last week voted as being in favor of a million dollar road bond issue in preference to one of $700,000 as contemplated some time ago, and the road and bridge committee was authorized to go ahead mapping out a road building program of that magnitude. At the present time the county could go to a limit of $1,400,000 and it was proposed that instead of going ahead with a $700,000 project a number of other roads to be included in the program. It is contemplated to complete the improvement on Green Bay road to the state line, give Newport township a much needed outlet, and to extend other roads which could be contemplated by the expenditure of a few thousand dollars. It was pointed out that the expenditure of $1,000,000 would complete a hard road system for practically every main thoroughfare in the county. There was considerable opposition to the plan of building a half mile of road at each end of the one and one half mile stretch of Sheridan road thru Blon, as it was thought that if the county establishes a precedent of building roads in a municipality, other towns would demand the same thing.

MUST ATTEND SCHOOL UNTIL 16 YEARS OLD

NEW LAW NOW IN EFFECT

Thomas R. Quayle is Appointed Truant Officer for the Deerfield Shields District

A fact of interest in connection with the new school law which is now operative in Illinois and which affects students in Highland Park and Lake County just comes to light and it will interest everybody throughout the county.

It provides that hereafter many young people who have quit schooling when they finish the eighth grade will have to take a certain course in High School instruction. It is not however, as some people who heard about the law believed, that it provides that all students in Illinois must go through High School.

It provides that all children in Illinois must continue in the school until they are sixteen years of age.

Thus, in the past since there have been children who have graduated from High School when they have been between thirteen and fourteen years of age. Now then under the new law, children whether they wish or not will have to engage in the High School work from the time they leave the grades until they are sixteen which will oftentimes mean one, two or three years at High School. Thus in case a child finished the grade schools at thirteen he would have to take three years of High School under the new law because he would have no right to quit school before sixteen years of age. If a pupil finished the grades at fourteen that would mean that she would have to take two years in High School. If she was fifteen when she graduated from the grades it would mean she would have to go one year in High School.

Thus the new law has the one purpose in mind, namely, in keeping children in school until they pass the age of sixteen.

This law became operative this year but its full effect will not take place until two or three years have passed. School authorities throughout the state are taking steps to see that it is to be enforced in due time. It will be up to the authorities in Lake County to see hereafter, that children are kept in school up to the time they are sixteen years of age.

Mr. T. R. Quayle has been appointed truant officer in the Deerfield-Shields district and will see to it that the law is lived up to.

This will be a very radical change from the old plan, for many children have never had anything in mind excepting to finish the grade course and then they feel that their education has been finished. In the course of years children have been graduated from the grades and also from the High School at seemingly younger age than heretofore. Accordingly it seems that the law is desirous to prevent their going to work before they have reached the age of sixteen.
