

The Lady Who Went to the League Meeting

"Do you know, Margaret, I heard a most instructive lecture on child welfare at the League session yesterday."

"Yesterday—and I was here at home superintending the laundress. How could you? I thought—"

"Sh-h-h, I can tell you just what you were going to say. You were about to remark, 'I thought it was your wash day, too.' It was, my dear—but I've found a better way. I send our family bundle to the laundry now."

And so, also, can you. The broadening opportunities that are opening to women can be yours if you will allow us to assume for you the burdens of the family washing.

Ours is the modern laundry way—washing in water as soft as a spring rain; ironing that gives all your things a charmingly pearly finish; buttons in place; everything fresh and spotless, and delivered on schedule at your kitchen door.

Send us your family bundle. Let us give you this perfect laundry service and leisure for some of the finer duties that are calling women.

TRINITY CHURCH

Trinity Church school resumed its sessions after the vacation, on last Sunday. Teachers and pupils began the school year by joining in the Church's great act of worship, the Holy Eucharist, thus sounding the note for the work of the year which is beginning. The sessions of the school begin at 9:30 o'clock and all pupils are urged to be in church at that time for the opening service.

On Sunday morning next, September 28, Mr. E. A. McIntosh, a devoted layman, who for five years, has been in charge of the remote mission at Tanana Crossing, Alaska, will speak briefly of his work at that outpost in the field of wilderness. Great credit is due the ladies of Trinity Guild, who under the leadership of Mrs. James L. Martin planned and served the luncheon on Monday to the clergy of the Deanery in the parish house. The luncheon was excellent and was daintily served and both merited and received the enthusiastic approval of our guests.

Are You Giving Your Trees and Shrubs Proper Care?

A LITTLE expert advice now and then may not only save them from dying, but may help to preserve their beauty. Let me give you premises a little personal attention. I can furnish men by the hour or by the day or will take the work by contract.

I am specializing at this time in the beautifying of driveways by placing ornamental shrubbery so as to add to the general appearance of the premises.

Your work will receive my earnest and careful attention.

This is the time of year to have your lawn graded or resurfaced, as my men are busy at this line of work I will greatly appreciate receiving your order as soon as possible.
