

The only votes changed recently by the senatorial discussion on the peace treaty are the votes of the constituents at home who are tired by too much talk.

President Wilson is told to keep his mind off public matters, but reading of the Congressional Record about 10 p. m. is one of the best insomnia cures in this country.

The fact that anyone can get all the sugar he wants to put in dyspepsia making candy, does not prove that he can get any to put up health preserving fruits and vegetables.

After many days of arguing, each party to the Labor Conference seems at last to have reached the point where it is willing to give up all unimportant non-essentials.

Husbands and Flowers

You may think that "Say It With Flowers" is something real new, but it isn't; it is a very very ancient form of delicate expression. Even in the very earliest ages men found that spoken words were not at all times the most adequate forms of expressing feelings of delicate significance.

To convey sentiment through the Gift of Flowers dates back long before the pyramids of Egypt were started and the language of Flowers found early development among civilized Races, so in Ancient Rome the Laurel Wreath was bestowed upon Caesar when returning Home as Victor. The same was the custom in Greece. The Victor Palm branch in Asia Minor and Northern Africa, in Asia the yellow Chrysanthemum, "the Golden Badge of Courage," and the Wreath of Oak Leaves and Acorns in Northern Europe and we behold in our own Country now on the Soldier Medals or Memorials Laurel, Palm and Oak Sprays as tokens of valor.

The more gentle language of Flowers and Plants is just as ancient as the Victor Wreaths or sprigs of Oak—there is no language more universal, so delicate, so deep, so easily comprehended as the mute penetrating appeal of the Flowers.

So it came to pass that when the Knight of old said Fare-thee-well to his Lady Fair she gave him a Forget-me-not, the Rose spells Love, the Ivy Friendship, the Pansy, thought, the Lily of the Valley unconscious sweetness, the Heliotrope devotion and the Jasmine amiability—when words fail you, "Say it with Flowers," let them carry your message.

Whether sickness or sorrow, in trials or difficulties, in joy and triumph, in love or friendship, "Say it with Flowers." It is the fine, the unfailing better way and for the best Flowers, the most courteous treatment, do it right and say it with BAHRS' Flowers.

Please come over and let us show you through our Home of the Blue Ribbon Flowers. It will be well worth your while. Or, why not let us send a few for your Home to cheer things up, maybe for the Dining Room or the sick; make more use of Flowers on your journey through life. It will be more pleasant for it, that is what God made them for.

"The true lover brings home a bunch of Posies every once in a while, even after the youngest is in the eighth grade." He has us send a Box of Roses on the morning of her birthday, he doesn't let the Wedding Anniversary go by without a few Flowers from BAHRS—does that hit you, brother?—Wake up—Home and a few friends never meant more than they do today. Flowers are beautiful for the departed but it takes the living to enjoy them—think it over—think of someone you know who would appreciate to be remembered by you with such a Gift—spread happiness and real sunshine. We all need it badly and you can't do better than "Say it with Flowers."

While there naturally will be a great rush of husbands on Friday morning ordering flowers to be sent Home, after reading this ad, we shall be well prepared to meet the demand, nor will it interfere in the least with our Landscape Department. It is still time to plant Shrubs, Perennials, and Bulbs for next Spring's flowering. We are busier in that line than we ever have been but not so busy that we can't do anything you wish to have done. 85 is the number to have Central give you. It is the Flower Phone.
