Deerfield Grammar School Notes

By Miriam Stryker
A drive for better and more American speech has been observed this week. The object is to develop in America a respect and pride for good English. Foreigners have in the past learned to know our English as a mixture of slang, profanity and loosely spoken words. It is time that the American people awakened to the fact that in order to teach our foreign friends a respect for our country and our language, we must learn to speak it correctly. Good American Speech is a credential that young America must possess today. Parents may help a great deal by being careful of their English and by correcting the child's language. Good books, lectures and a careful study of English books are essentials that help towards the use of good English.

The faculty spent the "visiting day" at schools in the following places: Miss McWilliams at Highland Park; Mrs. Davenport at Oak Park; Miss Marsh at Brodhead, Wis., and Miss McNamara at Burlington, Wis., and Antioch.

On Friday evening, Nov. 7, the pupils will give the following program under the auspices of the P. T. A.:

1. A Squirrel's Thank You... Primary Grades
2. Our Thanksgiving Menu... Primary Grades
3. Group of Dances... 3rd and 4th Grades
4. One Act Play—The Magic Voice... Upper Grades

The program will begin at eight o'clock sharp. Miss Esther McWilliams of Bloomington, Ill., who spent the past week in Chicago as secretary for the grand commandery of the Knights Templars of Illinois, spent the week end with her sister, Miss McWilliams.

There have been several Halloween parties this week at which the pupils have been guests. On Wednesday evening Mrs. McDowell entertained the Light Bearers. Friday evening, Miriam Landau entertained her schoolmates and Miss Amelia Peterson also entertained the same night for the C. W. Class.
