

Wrap Your Laundry Bundle Securely

This is an appeal to you for co-operation in a matter to which you haven't, perhaps, given much thought heretofore. It touches upon the wrapping of laundry bundles.

Haven't you often seen folks hustle a few things into a newspaper, tie them loosely with a weak string—and trust to luck that they would stay together until the laundry got them?

Quite often such packages come apart, and when they do we can only guess to whom the pieces belong—it is one of the most frequent reasons why articles go astray.

It will insure the safe arrival and the sure return of all your laundry if you will wrap it securely. A detail, to be sure, but a most important one.

Just try it on your next bundle of family washing—and help us to give you that perfect laundry service towards which for years we have been striving steadily.

Entrust your washday burdens to us. Telephone, and we will have our driver call

The young couple will be at home on Prairie Avenue after November twenty-fourth.

The card party given last Friday evening at Masonic hall by the Mystic Workers was indeed a great success. Over a hundred people attended this affair. A great deal of credit is due the committee in charge, which consisted of Mrs. Clow as chairman, Mrs. Larson and Mrs. Howe.

Announcement is made of the marriage of Miss Carrie Long of Salem, Ill., and Mr. Oscar Lundgren which took place in Salem, Sunday. Mr. Lundgren is the son of Mr. and Mrs. G. Lundgren of Deerfield avenue. The young couple will make their home in this city.

Miss Flossie Schreiber will be hostess to the Friday evening club tomorrow evening.

A farewell party was given Monday evening in the United Evangelical church for Mr. Charles Kuist, who left Tuesday for an extended trip through the west.

The Dorcas Circle of the Evangelical Lutheran church gave a "measuring" party Tuesday evening in the assembly hall. The money will be used for the different church funds. A very good time was enjoyed by all.

The Fraternal Aid Union will give a card party Friday evening, December 5, in Witten Hall, beginning at 8:30. Winners will be given prizes.

DEERFIELD NEWS ITEMS

Friday, November 21, the Everett Social club will give a card party and dance in St. Patrick's hall.

In last week's issue in which appeared the article about Deerfield's home coming, the name of Dr. Cutler was omitted, and as he was the master of ceremonies and gave an address his name was most worthy of a place on the program.

In the Grammar school assembly hall Friday evening, Nov. 21, the Parent Teacher association will present "The Old Maids from Maine," written and directed by Miss Cutler. Among those who will take part are Mesdames Goldring, McDowell, Fred Haggie, W. Galloway, Jordan, Pettis, Becker, Willman, Beecham, Johnston, Goodman and the Misses Sadie Galloway and Josephine Woodman and Mrs. E. Easton.

Mrs. Louisa Osterman of Chicago is visiting Mrs. E. H. Willman. Edith Perry of Lake Bluff was Dorothy Supple's guest Thursday.

Mrs. Hancock and daughter, Pearl of Plano, are visiting Mrs. Ed Brennan.

Mrs. A. E. Sherman left last week to make her home this winter with her brother in Waukegan. She was given a farewell party in the community house Friday evening.

Owing to the coal shortage the C. M. & St. P. railroad is forced to take off some of their trains, those effecting Deerfield being the 9:09 in the morning and the 5:15 in the afternoon.

The Woman's Home and Foreign Missionary society of the U. E. church will give a thank offering program including a missionary drama entitled "Two Masters," Monday evening, Nov. 24, in the church.

The following will take part in the drama: Misses Edna Fritsch, Ethel Merner, Frances Lay and Gladys Goodman, also Mesdames Arno, Milton Frantz and Ed Beckman. No admission will be charged but a collection will be taken.

Mrs. Bruce Blaine gave a birthday anniversary dinner for her brother, Carl Anderson, Sunday evening.

Miss Peggy Patchin who teaches in the Hill Top school near Elgin, was the week end guest of Miss Elizabeth Reichelt.

Mrs. Redheffer is making a survey of the children in W. Deerfield township for malnutrition. She has weighed and measured all of the children in the Wilmot school and gave a talk to the children. This week Mrs. Redheffer will weigh the children in the Deerfield school.

The Woman's Missionary society will meet at the home of Mrs. Fred Meyer Thursday afternoon. The annual offering for the support of a mountaineer girl will be received. The Crusade of Compassion will be studied.

A card party and dance will be given by the Everett Social Club at Everett, Ill., on Friday, November 21. There will be prizes, a good time and good music.

The Dorcas society will hold an all day meeting at the community house on Wednesdays until after the bazaar the first Thursday in December.

Mr. McDowell will speak at the New Era Conference in the Presbyterian church in Highland Park Thursday.

Rev. Earl Morgan of Libertyville preached on Church Extension in the Deerfield Presbyterian church Sunday morning. Rev. McDowell preached in the Libertyville Presbyterian church.

Luella Attridge of Rondout is living with her aunt, Mrs. Lincoln Pettis.

A man and woman in a Ford car were struck by an engine on the C. M. & St. P. railroad crossing north of Deerfield Saturday evening and seriously injured. They were taken to a hospital in Chicago on the 5:08 train. The only information as to their names and address was a card which was found bearing the name of Hewitt of Chicago.

Mrs. E. J. Knickerbocker had as her guest Sunday Mrs. A. Easter and daughter, Clara, Mrs. Welch, and Mrs. Bedell of Chicago.

Irene McCadie of Chicago visited at the F. Peterson home Tuesday.

DEERFIELD SCHOOL NOTES

By Alfred Schwab

Elsie Slotka of the Dorcas Home entered the fifth grade Monday.

We had a false fire alarm turned in for a practice drill Wednesday, and the building was vacated in 55 seconds.

Dorothy and Anna Coleman have donated five interesting books of fiction to the seventh and eighth grade library. We are thankful to the girls for these books.

On Armistice day we were given a half holiday.

This week has been a busy one for us as the upper grades have been writing on the bimonthly examinations. Miss Elizabeth Reichelt of the Bradley school at Rondout spent part of her "visiting day" with us Thursday.

Ella May Gaddis entertained her teacher and school mates at a birthday party at her home on Saturday afternoon.

The grade children will give a bazaar in the assembly hall Monday, November 24, 1919, from 2 to 6 p. m. The articles on sale will be the children's own handiwork. Tea and cookies will be served. The proceeds are to be used to establish an incidental fund for school use.

It is suspected that there are many more moonshine nights than are shown in the old Farmers' Almanac.

After seeing a few football players lamed up for the winter, everyone will be ready for a very jolly Thanksgiving dinner.

Frequently you respond to a telephone call intended for another person, who, when summoned, answers at an extension telephone. Return to the instrument where you first received the call, listen until conversation begins, and replace the receiver on the hook.

Do not replace the receiver too hurriedly, or the subscriber calling will be cut off.

Neglect to replace the receiver at all, however, may put your line out of service.
