Board Meeting Tuesday Morning
The monthly meeting of the Board of Directors will be held next Tuesday at 10 a. m. Plans must be made for the annual meeting of the Association, which will occur in January. It is hoped that this meeting will prove to be one of the most important events of the year, for it is at this time that reports of the past year's accomplishments in every phase of the work will be presented, and plans laid for the work of the coming year.

New Enthusiasm in Clubs

Bluebirds
Plans for a program to be given at the Presbyterian Home were made at a meeting of the Bluebird Club on Monday evening. The girls will begin rehearsals on two short plays, and hope to complete their preparations within the next few weeks.

Girl Reserves

Renewed enthusiasm was shown in the first meeting of the new year in the Girl Reserve Fourth and Fifth corps Monday afternoon. The girls reported on the work they have accomplished during the past month, and several were delighted to find that they are now Third or Second class Girl Reserves, as they have won over 80 points from their lists of honors to be gained in health work, service at home and at school, knowledge, and spiritual development.

The Second and Third corps of Girl Reserves are completing their work in first aid, and will be given a written examination on the various kinds of bandages and how to apply them, and on what to do in case of accidents and injuries.

Mothers' Club

A very interesting talk to the mothers was given by Mrs. T. E. Quayle on Tuesday evening. Mrs. Quayle related some of her experiences in France where she was engaged in Y. M. C. A. work. She told many things of the life in France, which were especially interesting to the mothers, some of whom had boys in overseas service.

Miss Isabelle Crawford gave several delightful vocal solos. Refreshments were served, and everyone declared that the evening had been a most enjoyable one.

The mothers of all Y. W. C. A. girls are urged to attend these monthly meetings.

New Club Formed

A new club of young women was formed at the Association rooms on Wednesday evening, Jan. 7. Ten girls who are employed as bookkeepers, stenographers, and in the various other occupations in Highland Park and in the city, decided to form a new club. The personnel of the club, the officers, and the plans for the work which will be carried on, will be announced next week. The club will be glad to receive new members among the girls of the community who are interested in the privileges and opportunities offered in club work.

Aster Club Thursday

The Aster girls will meet Thursday evening, Jan. 8, at eight o'clock, to begin rehearsals on a short play which they wish to give. Every girl should be present at this meeting so that the cast of characters may be arranged, and the play rehearsals started in the best possible manner.

Will Assist At American Legion Dinner

Eight Y. W. C. A. girls will assist at the American Legion dinner which will be given at the Fort Sheridan hostess' house on Tuesday evening, January 13. It is expected that one hundred boys will be served.

Vesper Notice

The regular Vesper service will be held on next Sunday afternoon at 4 o'clock. All girls are invited, and especially those who are away from home, and would enjoy meeting with other girls for an hour of thought concerning the most worth while things of life.

Theatre Party

Mrs. C. G. Alexander entertained her eighteen club girls at a "movie" party, at Pearl Theatre, last Friday evening.

CHRISTIAN SCIENCE

Subject for next Sunday's Lesson Sermon, "Sacrament."

Services are held in this church every Sunday morning at 10:45. Sunday school meets immediately after the morning service, and is open to pupils up to the age of 20 years. The Wednesday evening meeting, which includes testimonies of Christian Science healing is at 8 o'clock.

You are cordially invited to make use of the reading room at 387 Central avenue, which is open every week day from nine o'clock in the morning until six o'clock in the evening.

PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH

The Bible school will begin at 9:30 next Sunday morning.

The regular morning service will be held at 11 o'clock.

The Young People's Society will meet at seven fifteen. Lucius A. Hine, Jr. will lead on the subject, "Church Unity."

The Woman's Missionary Union will hold its regular meeting in the church parlors. "Americanization" will be the topic for the meeting.

Prayer meeting will be held Wednesday evening at 8 o'clock.

When the school children go on strike, it is time to spank the parents.

NATIONAL THRIFT CREED

"I believe in the United States of America.

"My opportunity and hope depend upon her future.

"I believe that her stability and progress rest upon the industry and thrift of her people.

"Therefore I will work hard and live simply.

"I will spend less than I earn.

"I will use my earnings with care.

"I will save consistently.

"I will invest thoughtfully.

"To increase the financial strength of my country and myself I will buy Government securities.

"I will hold above barter the obligations my country thus incurs.

"I will do these things to insure the greatness of America's future."

Holding that the successful solution of the economic and financial problems of the year 1920 demands the concentrated effort of every American citizen, the savings division of the United States treasury department has issued the above creed. This creed was built on suggestions sent to Washington from all the twelve federal reserve districts.

"Only the most determined efforts toward thrift, economy, saving and simple living," said William Mather Lewis, director of the savings division, "will bring about a reduction in the high cost of living, the stabilization of national industry and commerce, and the continuation of prosperous conditions."

Before the eloping couples skip out so hastily, they should at least offer the old folks one chance to give their blessing.

The railroad trains that used to run over cows that didn't know enough to get off the tracks, are now running over automobile parties. About the same degree of intelligence displayed in both cases.

FORD HEADLIGHT CHARMS RABBITS

Recounting his experience with his Ford car, George Ambler, Detroit, Mich., tells the following: "It was in July last year. My wife and I were over in Canada. Travelling one morning at two o'clock on the road between Ridgeway and London, the glare from the headlights blinded two fat rabbits who remained in the direct path of the car. I promptly picked them up and Oh Boy! how we enjoyed our rabbit dinner."

This is just one more achievement credited to "The Universal Car."

CAN YOU READ AND WRITE?

The above is one of the most important questions the census taker must ask. There is much to make one think that illiteracy has increased since the last census was taken, when something over 7 per cent of illiterates was shown. The number of soldiers who could not pass reading and writing tests must have been much more than that.

Probably many foreigners claim to the census taker to be able to read and write, when they can do so only very poorly.

The real test of literacy is not whether a man can barely manage to write his name or read English in a stumbling way. It is whether he can read and understand English so easily that he can assimilate American ideas. The census takers could hardly have time to investigate the situation in this thorough way. Hence figures of illiteracy that they collect should be regarded as greatly understating the amount of this kind of ignorance.

"Do you enjoy your meals?" asks a patent medicine ad. Considering the way the majority of people bolt them down, they must be popularly regarded as a painful and disagreeable duty to be put through as quickly as possible.
