IF YOU OWNED OUR SAFE DEPOSIT VAULTS

you would not enjoy any more protection for your valuables than you would get for $3.00 a year as a box renter. Few, if any, individuals or concerns in this community would feel that they could afford to have, for their own exclusive use, a place of safety for their valuable papers, anywhere near as absolutely fireproof and burglar-proof as our safe deposit vault.

The fact that our vault is so arranged that many persons can use it with perfect safety and privacy makes it possible for each of them, at very small cost, to get as much protection as if they owned the whole vault.

WOMEN FIRST

The financial report of the Community Shop published in the last week's issue of The Press presents a picture of very excellent work well done. Although the Community Shop is only six months old, its donations to various worthy enterprises already amount to nearly four thousand dollars.

WHAT WILL WE DO WITH THE CENTER?

The "Center" is here to stay. Let who will disparage its usefulness, this tiny little beginning of a community house is too valuable for us to lose. There are too many people in Highland Park who appreciate its importance in this community, to permit it to become a thing of the past.

Someone objects that there is no longer any necessity for such an institution. Let them drop in and take a look around on any Saturday night. They will find that the two large rooms are not adequate to hold the crowd and furnish them with elbow room to move about.

This is a narrow philosophy, but, for the sake of speculation, let us follow it up to its logical conclusion. Suppose we do live only for ourselves, and refuse to see the lack of advantages of the young people of our town.

While we are considering the future of the Center, while we carefully weigh its advantages, it is well not to be too sentimental. Let us look the matter straight in the eye. And let us not forget that, during the entire period of the war, Highland Park never had reason to complain of the conduct of the thousands of men in service, who, when off duty, made this town their home.

WESTERN UNION HAS MADE SALARY RAISE

Local Manager Notified that Fifteen Per Cent Increases Have Been Granted to Employees

In common with thirty-two thousand of their fellow employees in other cities, the local employees of the Western Union Telegraph company, who have been six months or more in the service of the company will participate in salary increases totaling over five million dollars a year, commencing January first.

Manager A. Z. Heldermon of the local office states that these increases are in pursuance to an agreement reached some time ago between the management and the employees. Employees who have been a year or more in the service of the company will receive a 15 per cent increase, and those who have been between six and twelve months in the service will receive a 10 per cent increase.

ARCADY FARM IS SOLD AT $2,500 AN ACRE

Arcady, the Arthur Meeker summer home in Lake Forest, has been sold to B. L. Behr. The consideration is said to be $225,000, bringing $2,500 an acre for the dwelling and grounds, which cover 100 acres.

The place was formerly known as Arcady farm and was noted for dairy experiments, a score of thoroughbred cattle being stabled there. Mr. Meeker recently transferred his dairy interests to another farm.

Barber shops say there is nothing new in the Community Center idea. They have been providing this feature of modern enlightenment and intellectual exchange for many years.

$150,000 HOME BURNS IN LAKE FOREST

Robert C. Chatfield-Taylor Residence Is a Total Loss; Many Antiques Burned

The palatial residence of Robert C. Chatfield-Taylor, valued at $150,000, located at Mayflower and Deerpath East avenues, Lake Forest, was totally destroyed about 3 o'clock Tuesday morning, the origin of the fire being a mystery.

The residence was unoccupied but all the fine furniture and many antiques which had been in the family for many years were destroyed. The house had been occupied by the Robert McGann family until work of remodeling it was begun a short time ago. Mr. Chatfield-Taylor, who is a magazine writer, has been residing in Chicago the past winter but at present is in the East and until he can be communicated with the extent of the loss regarding the furniture and antiques cannot be learned.

The residence was one of the finest on the North Shore. It was built in 1870 by Senator Farwell.

Mrs. McGann is a daughter of Mrs. Chatfield-Taylor, who died a short time ago.

An army of volunteer fire fighters co-operated with the fire department but the blaze had taken possession of almost the entire house before it was discovered, and it was seen from the beginning that the fight was hopeless.

MARGARET ANGLIN AT THE POWERS THEATRE

Margaret Anglin, the distinguished dramatic actress, is the new attraction at the Powers Theatre. Miss Anglin's new play, "The Woman of Bronze," bids fair to become her greatest success. It is thought a worthy successor to her long and unbroken list of triumphs in the theatre, among whom may be easily recalled "The Great Divide," "The Awakening of Helena Ritchie," "Green Stockings," "Lady Windermere's Fan," and "Billeted." Not to mention profitable incursions into Shakespeare and the Greek classics. "The Woman of Bronze" is the work of Henry Kistmaecker and Eugene Delard and when first produced caused a sensation in Paris, where it ran uninterruptedly for months. The play is entirely modern in its theme and abounds in brilliant dialogue. It gives Miss Anglin a chance again to undertake a great emotional role. The company includes Fred Eric, Edna Walton, Langdon Bruce, Harriet Sterling, Gerald Hamer, Nina Morris and other players whose names insure interpretation of unusual excellence.

The year that has fled comes not again,
The days that are gone no life renew;
But e'en from the rust of this canker chain
One golden link is glimmering through.

That to him who leaves from errors past,
And turns away with strength sublime
And makes each year undo the last
There is no wasted time.

—Maude Erskine.
