"PRESS" LEADS IN THE BOWLING TOURNEY

The wise ones were right in picking the Highland Park Press to beat the Garnetts which they did to the tune of three straight. The poor rolling of Frye was responsible for most of it.

Rasmussen Shoes took two from the Majestics.

Palace Cash brought home the bacon and took two from Harders Hardware. Tony's Barbers "massaged" the Reliable Laundry for two out of three.

Bowman Dairy took three from the Steffens Tires.

IT'S A GIRL AT HOME OF JUDGE C. C. EDWARDS

Judge and Mrs. C. C. Edwards of Waukegan are the parents of a girl baby, born Sunday at their home on North Genesee street. Judge Edwards never mentioned his family's addition at the court house Monday and it wasn't until Friday that the news became generally known about the county building. The new arrival makes a family of three for the judge, two girls and a boy.

BREAK GROUND FOR SALVATION ARMY HOTEL

Ground has been broken on the site where the Salvation Army soldier and sailors home will be located, corner of Clayton street and Sheridan road in Waukegan. In beginning the excavation about four feet of frost was encountered. Work on the construction of the building will be rushed as soon as it will be possible to start in the spring.

A comparison of the statement of resources and liabilities with those of previous years will disclose the establishment of a new record. Deposits were increased during the year $238,324.25. After setting up proper reservations the net earnings for the year were shown to be $14,310.31, of which sum $4,800.00 was disbursed to stockholders in dividends. A small part of these net earnings were derived from the bank building, the income therefrom having been largely consumed in improvements. These improvements comprise a new roof, enlarged and improved vaults, and the fitting up of a rear room for increased banking quarters.

Loans made and securities purchased were passed upon by the directors at their regular monthly meetings. In their commendable efforts to build a bigger and stronger bank the officers in charge of the business had the loyal co-operation of a corps of competent employees.

Twice during the year the bank was examined by a representative of the Auditor of Public Accounts as required by law, and in both instances a very satisfactory condition was disclosed.

As in the past I urge upon you—who are in fact partners of the business—to favor your bank with that support and patronage which it desires and deserves.

Respectfully submitted,
FRANK J. BAKER,
President.

JUROR'S FATHER DIES; 11 MEN TO FINISH CASE

While J. A. Masonic of Lake Bluff, station agent for the Northwestern railroad at Lake Forest, was sitting in the jury box in circuit court last week trying the case of Frank Jeffers, a wire mill striker, he received a wire from Minnesota telling him of the rather sudden death of his father.

It was a rather serious situation as the case was over half tried and to have obtained a juror to take Masonic's place would have necessitated the going back and repeating of all the testimony. On the other hand the court did not desire to insist that Mr. Masonic remain until the end of the case.

Judge Edwards held a conference with the state's attorney and the counsel for Jeffers. They both expressed a willingness to excuse Mr. Masonic and proceed with eleven jurors. This plan was followed.

OFFICERS ELECTED BY ROYAL ARCANUM

At the regular meeting of the Highland Park Council No. 1066, Royal Arcanum, held Monday evening, the annual election of officers was held. The following were elected:

James H. Duffy, regent; Orson B. Brand, vice-regent; Robert W. Schneider, orator; Fred A. Tucker, past regent; William Grant, secretary; F. K. Maechtle, collector; E. H. Kuehne, guide; E. A. Duffy, warden; Stephen Sienerth, sentry; Frank B. Green, chaplain; Herman Denzel, treasurer; trustees, H. M. Prior, Albert Larson and William Guyot.

PNEUMONIA IS FATAL TO OFFICER'S WIFE

Mrs. Helen Stewart Fuller, whose husband is a colonel in the army, died early Monday morning at the Fort Sheridan hospital, following a short period of illness due to pneumonia. Before coming to Fort Sheridan the Fullers lived at Fort Sill, Okla.

SMALL FLU OUTBREAK AT NAVAL STATION

Strict Quarantine in Effect Tuesday to Prevent Spread of Disease

Because a few cases of flu have broken out at Great Lakes in the 13th regiment, orders were issued by the executive officer Tuesday ordering restrictions which were taken as a precautionary measure and not because there is any real acute situation at present. The whole station is, in reality, under strict quarantine, effective.

The new order provides:

1. No liberties to be granted at the station, covering the whole reservation.
2. No entertainments of any sort; no movies.
3. Visitors will be allowed as usual on the station on Wednesday but will not be allowed inside any building excepting hostess houses.
4. No skating to be allowed.

The medical department is losing no time in taking all steps necessary to prevent the spreading of the flu.

Holiday Furloughs Fatal

An officer at the station stated that the situation at Great Lakes is not serious through the outbreak of the flu, adding, "We are taking the steps as a precautionary measure to protect nearby towns—that is why the station is quarantined. The boys brought it into the station when they came back from other places after the Christmas holidays and if we tie things up here now the neighboring towns will not be able to say later that we sent it out to them. It's a case where we got it from them rather than taking it to them."

It is stated that in all there are not over half a dozen cases of flu on the whole station which now has about 3,500 men.

PARENT-TEACHER ASS'N.

The Parent-Teacher association of the high school invited the grammar school associations of the district to meet with them last Thursday evening. The high school orchestra and chorus furnished music, and the Gerrick club gave a short play, "The Obstinate Family." In the play the following took part: Mrs. Harwood, Mary Kimball; Mr. Harwood, Lucius Hine; Mrs. Hartford, Gwendolyn Paddy; Mr. Hartford, Marshall Carquville; Lucil, the maid, Mildred Gollie; James, the butler, Eugene Tremaine.

The part of Mr. Harwood was originally cast for James Stevens, but a broken canal in his ear made it necessary for another to take his part at the last minute. Lucius Hine did this very creditably considering that he had but a few hours' notice and little preparation. The other parts were all well taken.

PUBLIC LIBRARY

DO YOU LIKE STORIES?

Come to the Story Hour at the Public Library

Friday, at four (every Friday afternoon, at four o'clock) you are welcome at the story hour at the public library. The story hour is primarily for children, and the stories are those which children like. Another story hour will begin this week, on Saturday morning at eleven o'clock. Miss Dent will read King Arthur stories on Saturday morning, and tell a few shorter stories. She also plans to read some of Lucy Fitch Perkins' "Twins Books" and later the stories of Robinhood and other much loved books. The children's room is full of welcoming sunshine all morning, and the children are urged to make use of it all Saturday morning and after school hours every other week (except Sunday). Mrs. Leo will return this week, I hope, to continue her charming stories on Friday afternoon after school. If she is unable to come this week, Miss Ridlon will tell fairy tales, and Mrs. Leo will surely be with us next Friday. Half past three is so soon after school that we have returned to our former hour—four o'clock. After this there will be two story hours each week—Friday afternoons at four o'clock and Saturday mornings at eleven.

Mary Raymond Shipman has always a devoted following of readers who are eager to know about every book she writes. A new publication is "Joy in the Morning," ten short stories written in the war mood.

Upright Pianos
Exceptionally Suitable for Suburban Homes

The Lyon & Healy Piano and the Washburn Piano are two of the handsomest productions of the piano builders' art. In tone they are full, rich, and supremely satisfying.

Terms: A small payment down and monthly installments.

Lyon & Healy
Wabash Ave. at Jackson Blvd. Everything Known in Music

"The Bells of Joan" by the author of "Six Feet Four," Jackson Gregory, is a western scenario-novel of the better type which stages a pretty girl surgeon on the southwestern border. There is also a villain who proposes to loot the town, and an aggressive young sheriff.

"The Great House" by Weyman has a mystery in the plot which has to do with some missing documents, England in the time of the Corn Laws and a fascinating heroine.

Other recent acquisitions are: Perkins, the Scotch Twins. Atherton, The Avalanche. Chisholm, The Land of Strong Men (a western story).

Conrad, Nostramo, (considered by some as his best).

Curwood, The River's End (adventure).

Gibbs, The Street of Adventure.

Hope, The Secret of the Tower (a regular Anthony Hope novel).

Hueaton, Leave it to Doris.

Jacobs, Deep Waters (deliciously entertaining harbor-sea yarns).

Lockhart, Fighting Sherperdess.

McKenna, Midas and Son.

Putnam, Believe You Me (written in language NOT for the ultra high-brow).

Thurston, David and Jonathan (this author also wrote The City of Beautiful Nonsense).

Sax Rohmer, Dope (speaks for itself for those who know his books).

Sax Rohmer, Tales of Secret Egypt (equally thrilling).

The public library is open every morning except Sunday from 9 to 12, every afternoon except Sunday from 1 to 6 and every evening except Sunday from 7 to 9. The public library
