

So far as heard from President Wilson has made no effort to submit to Mr. Bryan his lease of the White House for the next four years.

One reason why more buildings are not put up is that a lot of people persist in using their hammers for knocking.

ELM PLACE SCHOOL

The Friday movie matinees are again the attraction for after school on Friday afternoon. The children pay five cents for admission and the parents ten cents and in this way the entertainments are self supporting. The aim is to select educational films and, as a rule, to leave the commercial theatre to display story films or serials, as they are called. It is hoped that there may be a margin of profit in these matinees which will make it possible to rent purely educational films for study in classroom periods also. A special committee consisting of Mrs. John Benson, Mrs. Henry Boyd and Mr. Smith have this in charge.

PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH

The Bible school will begin at 9:30. The morning service will begin at 11:00 o'clock.
The Young People's Society will meet at 7:15.
The prayer meeting will be held on Wednesday evening at 8:00 o'clock and will be addressed by the Rev. Dr. Whiting of Korea.

As the result of Thrift Week it is believed that a lot of people will give up the idea of buying a $350 fur coat and will proceed to save for a $1,000 automobile.

Well, anyway, when they enlarge the political committees by taking in a lot of new women members, they don't have to provide any more cupboards.

RESPECTED HOME OF MORGAN

Federals and Confederates Both Re-frained From Damaging House of Revolutionary Soldier.

A subscriber who was interested in the Companion's account of the respect shown to Mount Vernon during the Civil war has called to our attention to another historic place that received similar respect and protection—the home of Gen. Daniel Morgan, of Revolutionary fame.

During the summer of 1912, says our friend, I was visiting in the Shenandoah valley, and in going from Shepherdstown to Harper's Ferry passed a little village called Morgan's Grove. My attention was attracted to a large, two-story stone house, which I discovered to be the old home of Gen. Daniel Morgan, the commander of the famous "Morgan Rifle Corps." At that house Col. Morgan organized his famous regiment of riflemen and marched to Boston, a distance of six hundred miles, to join Washington's army. The men were dressed in deer-skin coats and coonskin caps and were armed with those long-barreled rifles that they used with such telling effect in the battles of the Revolution. At the battle of Saratoga, when Burgoyne asked why the officers of his army who were killed had been shot in the head, he was informed that it was the Morgan riflemen who were responsible. He remarked that it was of no use to fight with such an army and that he might as well surrender.

The old stone house at Morgan's Grove stood unmolested during the Civil war. Both Confederate and Federal soldiers held it in almost sacred reverence. Early's men and Sheridan's swept past it on their raids in the valley, yet the home of the Morgans continued to stand as a noble monument to the memory of the great general who helped to gain our independence.—Youth's Companion.

ORIGIN OF FAMOUS DISHES

Sally Lunn, Who Gave Her Name to Tea Bread, Was a Real Personage—Mulligatawny.

Sally Lunn was a pastry cook who at the end of 1800 used to sell the tea bread which bears her name in the streets of Bath, Stray Stories (London) says.

Sandwich is called after the earl of Sandwich.

Mulligatawny is derived from an East Indian word meaning pepper water.

Macaroni originated from a Greek phrase meaning "the blessed dead," in allusion to the ancient custom of eating it at feasts for departed souls.

Gooseberry-fool is a corruption of gooseberry "fole," meaning milled or pressed gooseberries.

Forcemeat comes from the French "farce" meat. "arce" is stuffing, thus is forcemeat used for stuffing.

Bianc-mange means literally "white eatable."

Julienne soup was invented by a Mme. Deschamps, a Paris market woman who died about 1897, aged ninety-four. She saw the allies enter Paris after Waterloo and supplied vegetables to the Tuilleries during the reign of Charles X and Napoleon III.

Swore by Their Whiskers.

If the beard has any standing in the world today, it is undoubtedly because of the Jews, who held their whiskers to be sacred, and swore by them. Later, the Turks did the same. The sultan's followers used to comb their whiskers after prayers, catch the hairs that came out, break them in two and bury them, on the theory that in some mysterious way the hairs helped to make soft walking to the gates of paradise. This the Turks firmly believed. And they were greatly shocked when, in 1512, Selim I came to the throne without a beard. His smooth face was regarded as a deliberate affront to all the bewhiskered patriots of all ages, and the highest priest was sent to remonstrate with him. Selim could not be made to talk seriously about it. "I have cut off my beard," said he, "so that my vizier may have nothing to lead me by."

Autocrat of the Air.

The miller at the old windmill of a village in Buckinghamshire one year found such difficulty in getting his sails to work through want of wind that he was continually behind with his work. The delay annoyed the farmers, who decided to call a meeting to consider the advisability of getting up another windmill. Uninvited, the miller also attended the meeting, and in the midst of the discussion rose and said: "Ye want to get up another windmill, do ye? Well, it takes all the wind in the parish to keep my old mill a-spin, so you'll have to fish elsewhere for yer wind, that's sartin!" This novel argument gave matters the turn, and to this day the miller has had no opposition.—San Francisco Argonaut.

Creating a Demand.

At the theater a lady's hat obscured a man's view, and he leaned forward and respectfully asked if she would remove it. A stiffening of the neck was the only answer. After a few minutes he repeated his request. Then she turned to him. "There is no demand for my doing so," she said. "No demand?" he echoed. Then he rolled up his overcoat and placed it on his head. In a moment there were shouts of "Take it off!" "Take that hat off!" And instantly the lady drew out her hatpins and removed her hat.

An Egg Mash

That Will Make More Eggs Than Anything You Ever Fed

Vitality Egg Mash is one of the most wonderful egg mashes ever put on the market. It contains eleven different ingredients, including animal, cereal, vegetable and the famous milk protein. It should be fed in a hopper so the fowls can have access to it at all times. VITALITY SCRATCH should be fed in the litter to induce exercise.

THIS FINE HOPPER FREE

To get you to give VITALITY EGG MASH a thoro trial, we give with each 100 lbs. a coupon. When you have four coupons, present them to the dealer from whom you bought the feed and get one of these fine, roomy, sanitary, mice and rat-proof galvanized hoppers. Each hopper holds enough for the ordinary pen one week. This offer is for a limited time only. We know you will be well pleased with the mash, so order some at once and let the hens prove our claim that you will get more eggs than from anything you ever fed.

Only a Limited Number of Ford Cars

There are mighty good reasons why you should buy your Ford car now. But the biggest one is that there are only so many Ford cars—just a specified limited number—allotted to this territory. Those who buy their cars now will be wise. They will have them to use whenever they wish.

Don't put it off—next spring, even next month, is an uncertainty. We cannot take orders for spring delivery. Even now, we must have signed bona-fide orders before our monthly allotment is shipped to us. So the only way for you to be sure of getting a Ford car, is to order it now. Get your name on an order. It is your protection.

Again we tell you the allotment for this territory is limited and you must buy now while deliveries are possible. As ever, the demand for Ford cars is way in advance of production. So, it's first come, first served. Spring, summer, autumn and winter are all the same to the Ford car. It is a valuable servant every day in the year. Rain or shine, it is ready for your demands. Buy now and get prompt delivery. You won't have to store it. You can use it. Buy now while the buying is possible.
