M. E. CHURCH
Last Sunday's Services
The S. S.—
One hundred and three were present at the Sunday school. This is the best record since the beginning of the present pastorate. In connection with our children's and young people's work our second service and entertainment for children under thirteen years was given Monday at 6:30 to 8 p. m. A much larger number was present than previously, and more mothers and S. S. workers attended. A second entertainment for the young people over thirteen will be arranged for in the near future. We invite all young people of the community to attend these services and shall appreciate the cooperation of the older people.
The Morning Service—
During the two previous Sundays two five-minute women representing the W. F. M. S. spoke at our morning services. Mrs. Bickham of Wilmette introduced the series with a very inspiring address. Mrs. Brumley followed with a message on the theme of missionary enterprise in a manner that made us all feel we wanted to have some part in this great work. Mrs. Brumley is the president of the Chicago Northern Dist. Auxiliary and Mrs. Stoker is the corresponding secretary.

The general immediate effect of the talks has been to prepare us all for the following service.
The Evening Services—
The Epworth League has been having most profitable services. The attendance has averaged 28. We have missed some very familiar faces. Every leaguer needs to be on the job now if ever. "Win One" is the slogan.
The church service was in charge of a gospel team of Chicago business men led by Mr. Gresham, general manager of the Munson Supply Co. A member of the Carson, Pirie Scott force was present and a third gentleman engaged in the chocolate business. These men did not preach. They gave plain business talks on religion as viewed by a business man. Their testimonies were very inspiring and made a deep impression. The service resulted in five persons taking a decided stand for Christ and the church.

This Wednesday at 7:30 another team of business men will be at the service. Beginning next Sunday evening and continuing throughout the week we will be assisted by a team of these business men. Every man and woman in the community should hear these men's talks on this supreme question. It answers conclusively the argument that a man of affairs, a man engaged in the every day labors and subjected to all the trying situations of such a life; that the man of the office, store and factory, or what not; that such a man can live the Christian life joyfully and more successfully than the man who is not a Christian. Of course, the religion of these men is the most vital force in their lives. It is not a matter to be put on or off at convenience. It is not even a matter merely of Sunday respectability. It occupies all their time and strength. It is their "meat and drink to do the Father's will." It does not appear to make any difference whether he is a millionaire (for there are many millionaires among them) or a man of the most ordinary means, he is a brother and is treated as such. The carrying of the heaviest business responsibilities and confronted by the gravest problems that are common to men of large affairs these men find time to go out to various churches to conduct such services as these. They are even organizing to carry their message to the men on the streets of the city.

And yet these men are as sane about this matter of religion as they are about their business. They are simply applying the same laws to their religious life that they apply to their business. This, all will concede, is consistent. It is the only remedy for the disease that threatens the life of the social organism today. Come to these services.

It is noted that the man who is always finding fault with his home town can do a lot to improve it by moving somewhere else.

Some one has written a novel picturing a husband and wife as living together in peace and harmony, but it will never become one of the Six Best Sellers.

Since so many girls take their breakfast in bed, Gladys feels pretty virtuous getting down at eight a. m. To eat the stuff Mother has been cooking since 6:30.

late in getting into the war, and apparently it is going to be about three years in getting peace signed.

The politicians should not be opposed to the League of Nations as it will have a lot of jobs to distribute.

Her Bank Account

A good old joke is told of the woman who, when asked by the banker to indorse her husband's check so it could be cashed, wrote on the back: "I heartily indorse this check. Your loving wife, Mary." Whether that incident is true or not, it happens frequently in real life that some woman, left alone by her husband's absence or death, finds herself in woeful ignorance of how to manage her money affairs. Thoughtful farmers and other business men these days are opening bank accounts for their wives—as told in a splendid article in the next issue of

The COUNTRY GENTLEMAN

This bank encourages such accounts for farm wives, and it is glad at any time to receive them and to give to the women the same careful instruction in the use of all its banking facilities that it gives to their husbands. Many women hardly know what to do with their butter and egg money. Deposit it with us! And incidentally, you may rapidly increase the amount by following the instructions to be found weekly in the poultry and vegetable and dairy and beekeeping and fruit pages of THE COUNTRY GENTLEMAN. Let us send in your subscription for a year of the Great National Farm Weekly—52 big, interesting issues for only $1.00—and then watch the bank account grow!
