YOUNG WOMEN'S LEAGUE

The sewing class in charge of Mrs. Oleson meets every Friday afternoon at 4:00. The girls are making aprons for themselves and they are already planning more elaborate articles when they have mastered the art of taking "little stitches."

For several days, groups of girls and boys have been seen whispering in corners and the word "surprise" was in the air. On Saturday afternoon at 3:00, the usual game hour took place and the mysterious actions were then explained. It was a surprise party on Miss Swindell and a table full of packages disclosed delicious cookies, cakes and fruit.

Monday evening at 7:45 there was an open meeting for the girls and women of Highwood Community House. The constitution was read and accepted and the council and new officers of the Young Women's League were elected. The officers are Miss Esther Johnson, president; Miss Mildred Lange, vice-president; Miss Mary Esther Krueger, secretary and Miss Lillian Wahlman, treasurer. The next meeting of the council will be on March 15 at 8 p. m. at the Community House.

Tuesday, after school the seventh and eighth grade girls met to form a Girl Reserve club.

Sunday afternoon at 3:30 the Business Girls' club will entertain the wounded soldiers from the front.

WAGES AND PRICES

When a generous minded and liberal employer, under last year's conditions, found that he was making a good deal of money, his first thought was to give his help a voluntary increase in pay. It was a just and necessary step in many cases. Yet there were many instances where a better effect would have been produced on the country as a whole by keeping wages where they were and reducing the prices of the goods.

Capital and Labor often agree very harmoniously on very high rates of wages and pass the full cost on to the public for some one else to pay. This has left large classes of people, who have not had their full advances in pay, restless and dissatisfied.

A raise in pay always makes things temporarily smoother in the industry where it is effective. But it creates friction in every other industry where the people have to pay the higher cost for the product.

EDUCATING THE WOMEN IN INTELLIGENT VOTING

Federal woman suffrage was ratified by the 31st state the other day. The chances that women will vote everywhere at the fall election for president are growing stronger. If so, here is a big job in the states that have not had woman suffrage, to educate the women to take up for the first time the responsibilities of the franchise.

The majority of women in non-suffrage states have not so far taken a deep interest in politics. This has been perfectly natural since they had no direct method of expressing their convictions.

Clubs and other organizations of women in the non-suffrage states should take up this matter at once. They should assemble just as many women as possible to consider the fundamental problems of citizenship, also the history of political parties and political methods. The effort should be made to interest every woman in her prospective new duties. Only in that way will they be able to vote intelligently.
