ARREST THREE FOR M'BIRNEY ROBBERY

Police Clear Up Another Lake Forest Liquor Case; Bound Over to Grand Jury

Another liquor robbery case was cleared up in Lake Forest last week with the arrest of John Fleming Wallace Hanson and Ed. Atteridge on a charge of burglarizing the Mc Birney home in that city last November.

When examined by the police Hanson confessed and implicated the other two. Atteridge is implicated in other robberies, and was already under a $2,000 bond. The trio were placed under bonds of $2,000 apiece and bound over to the grand jury.

CITY HAS VARIED HISTORY

Trau, Situated on Small Island in the Adriatic Sea, is Place of Unusual Interest.

Trau is a little city, on a little island, in the Adriatic sea. Trau is the Greek name for watermelon, which is the shape of the island, but the people claim that the name is a derivation of Traghlon, whence the Greeks came to Trau in 380 B. C. Many fascinating fictions are fixed beliefs in the minds of the natives of the island. They believe a cypress bush was miraculously planted to shelter a statue of the city's patron saint, Giovanni Orsini, and that the same saint's spirit nourishes it. They also believe that the book which the Lion of St. Mark holds was snatched shut when Venice relinquished the island, rather than that the statue was carved that way. The town has less than 20,000 population and fairly breathes a medieval spirit. The houses are built so close together that vehicle traffic is almost impossible, and the streets are so crooked that pedestrians find difficulty getting around. This was because of military necessity at the time the artistic little city was created.

The father of the Dalmatian history, Giovanni Lucio, was born there. King Bela IV fled there after the Tartars overrun his country, but continued to Kraglievac when the entrenched city was besieged, although it did not fall. Byzantines, Huns, Franks, Genoese and Venetians fought for Trau, the Saracens looted it, Napoleon took it in 1806, and the Austrians gained it seven years later.

MEXICAN OPALS IN DEMAND

Even With Primitive Methods, Our Southern Neighbors Dig Beautiful Stones From Their Mines.

The Queretaro district is the chief source of supply of Mexican opals. All the mines are owned by Mexicans. No foreign capital is invested. Old-fashioned methods of mining are employed, and activity is desultory. If prices are good, work becomes feverish. If prices drop off, few opals are mined.

Most of the best quality stones go to Mexico City. Dealers there market them in other countries. The poorer grades are sold in little shops throughout Mexico or are peddled to tourists at railway stations. Thousands of these cheap opals are sold in towns along the border in the United States. They can be bought for from 30 cents up.

It is this cheap grade of stones that has given Mexican opals a poor reputation among jewelry buyers. The fact is, a fine Mexican opal is a beautiful gem. It differs from Australian opals in that the latter are usually opaque to transmit light, whereas Mexican opals are usually clear. To bring out the soft play of colors in a Mexican stone, artificial backs are often used in setting the gems. Many are backed with their own genuine matrix. The better class of Mexican opals is not so expensive as the Australian or those imported from the famous mines of Australia, but they are far from cheap.

Superstitious Londoners.

In London there is said to be a deep-seated belief among East-end girls in the efficacy of dragon's blood as a love-philtre. Touching on the same subject, a Whitechapel herbalist relates how a girl, after buying some tormentil root of his, volunteered the information that, having been jilted by her young man, she consulted a "wise woman," who told her to get a bunch of tormentil and burn it at midnight on a Friday. The faithless one would then revert to his allegiance. On three successive Saturdays she returned for fresh supplies of the root, when either the charm worked or she grew tired of it, as she ceased her purchases. Mandrake, too, is largely purchased by superstitious cockneys. Every Sunday at a pitch by Petticoat lane a hawkler does a profitable trade in slices of mandrake, which, he assures his audience, will cure everything. On his barrow are a few roots carefully selected for their resemblance to the human form. "Gathered at midnight," he shouts, "and they screamed terrible when pulled out of the ground."

Apes Have Poor Sight.

"Apes are frequently short-sighted and require spectacles as much as human beings do." This is a statement of Prof. Behr, of Kiel.

The professor placed 25 monkeys in a darkened room and after a careful eye inspection found that 18 of the animals suffered from myopia (short sight) in a high degree. The behavior of these monkeys was entirely similar to that of shortsighted human beings in a similar environment.

They approached objects lying on the ground with bowed head and bent back and finally they grasped the articles in their paws and held them close to the eyes to obtain a better view.

A microscope examination of the eye pupils disclosed that among the monkeys the myopic condition was inherited.

A Slight Jar.

"The professor seems a trifle cast down."

"Just a little flabbergasted. He uses very correct English."

"And a slangy salesgirl had to call a floorwalker to interpret for her. Thought the professor was some kind of a foreigner."—Kansas City Journal.

bridge over the period until the legislature gives relief.

In order to provide adequately for the next two years, the Board of Education of District 107 should have $30,000 in addition to its tax returns, and the Board makes this appeal to the people of Highland Park in the confidence that this amount, at least, will be raised. Other towns of this size are raising considerably more. Winnetka is raising $400,000.

The plan is to divide the district into sections, and to have a Captain in charge of each section. Every citizen will be asked to tax himself voluntarily for his fair share of the total quota. These voluntary taxes are payable either in full March 15th, 1920 or one fourth on each of the dates March 15th, May 15th, July 15th and September 15th. If the emergency should still exist in 1921 the subscriber is urged to indicate his willingness to continue his voluntary tax in that year also.

The General Committee supporting this plan to provide emergency funds for the school district will be headed by the Mayor, and Mr. E. B. Metzler, President of the District School Board, will have charge of the canvass.

The Board of Education earnestly hopes that through the success of the voluntary tax campaign, it will be enabled to carry out its plans to meet the pressing needs of the school district. Highland Park should be, and is, one of the most progressive communities in the country. The Board feels that the people would not listen to a plan to curtail the work of the school, such as giving up its teaching of Manual Training, Domestic Science, Music, the Special Classes for Backward Pupils, the Kindergarten, the work being done by the Assistant to the Superintendent and the School Nurse. Highland Park gives lavishly to everything that even indirectly promotes the well being of its citizens. Here is need compared with which all other needs are really secondary. Our schools stand at the foundation of our community and our national life. Our children and our future are one. To do less than our best for our children would not be like Highland Park.

ALLEN TAKES OVER

HULTZ BARBER SHOP

A. C. Allen of this city has purchased the barber shop in South St. Johns avenue formerly owned by Edwin E. Hultz, who mysteriously disappeared some weeks ago.

Mr. Allen started the shop in that location about five years ago, later selling it to Mr. Hultz. Now he is ready for business in the old stand. The interior has been remodeled and several improvements made.

College Professor and Plumber

He spoke in strong terms of the disgraceful underpay of the teachers and educators of this country. The average college professor does not receive as much pay as a successful carpenter or plumber. He cited a man of his acquaintance, a teacher, who, after four years of high school, four years of college, and several years of special training, received only $1600 a year. He told also of the highest salary paid at Harvard to any professor, this being $5500, a salary

$10,000 APPROPRIATED FOR COUNTY MEMORIAL

TRIBUTE TO SERVICE MEN

County Board of Supervisors Fittingly Recognize the Service of Men From Lake County

The board of supervisors on Thursday afternoon unanimously adopted a resolution which provided for the appropriation of $10,000 to be put into a memorial for the service men of Lake County in a new Victory Memorial hospital to be erected at Waukegan. The supervisors did this after a special committee of H. C. Meyer and James O'Connor presented a resolution as follows:

"Your Finance Committee to whom the report of the Special Committee on the Victory Memorial Hospital was referred, beg leave to report as follows:

"We recommend that this board appropriate the sum of $10,000 to said Victory Memorial Hospital for a memorial to the soldiers, sailors and marines who served in the late war from Lake County, Ill. We further recommend that this sum be included in the next annual tax appropriation and levy when collected be set aside by the county treasurer in a separate fund to be used when authorized by the Finance Committee, these acting together with a committee of the American Legion of Lake County, Ill."

"We further recommend that if the Finance Committee, then acting, deems this amount inadequate to accomplish the purpose for which it is appropriated, then we recommend that a further sum be appropriated to the deficiency, said sum not to exceed a sum equal to $5.00 per soldier, sailor or marine who served in the World War from Lake County, Illinois.

"It is seen that the board has thus provided a very substantial memorial to the men in Lake County who went into the service. It is a fine tribute and the plan is to use this money toward the purchase of a bronze tablet on which will be the names and possibly the enlistment, of every man who went into service for the county. The Board feels that this is a fitting tribute to pay the boys and this takes the place of a plan considered at a previous meeting wherein it was suggested that some sort of a memorial be erected at the Court House.

It is estimated that in all there were about 3100 men from Lake County in service, all of whose names will appear on the memorial. Thus, if the memorial plates should cost the maximum allowed by the board, $5.00, it would mean that the total appropriation which the board sanctioned would be $15,555 instead of $10,000 as first specified in the resolution authorizing the assistance.

DIES SUDDENLY AT HOME IN RAVINIA

Coroner's Jury Finds Death Due to Natural Causes; Funeral Will Be Held Next Sunday

Frederick Lindholm died very suddenly at his home in Ravinia Sunday evening shortly after ten o'clock. He had been in poor health for about six months, but was well enough to go to work Sunday evening as usual. About 8:15 he returned home and was found stricken outside the door by Mrs. Lindholm.

An inquest and autopsy was held Monday morning at eleven o'clock by Coroner J. L. Taylor of Libertyville, and death was found due to natural causes.

Mr. Lindholm was born in Sweden in 1853. He came to New York in 1870 and worked as conductor on the elevated railway in that city for twenty-two years. Then, after a few months visit at the old home in Sweden, the Lindholms came to Ravinia, where they have lived since. Mr. Lindholm was night foreman of the railway gatemen in this division.

There are no children living. A grandson, Paul Lindholm, who lived with his grandparents all his life, is employed in Detroit.

Funeral services will be held next Sunday at the Prior undertaking parlors, and interment will be in Memorial Park cemetery.
