VOLUME 10

$10,000 APPROPRIATED FOR COUNTY MEMORIAL

TRIBUTE TO SERVICE MEN

County Board of Supervisors Fittingly Recognize the Service of Men From Lake County

The board of supervisors on Thursday afternoon unanimously adopted a resolution which provided for the appropriation of $10,000 to be put into a memorial for the service men of Lake County in a new Victory Memorial hospital to be erected at Waukegan.

"Your Finance Committee to whom the report of the Special Committee on the Victory Memorial Hospital was referred, beg leave to report as follows:

"We recommend that this board appropriate the sum of $10,000 to said Victory Memorial Hospital for a memorial to the soldiers, sailors and marines who served in the late war from Lake County, Ill. We further recommend that this sum be included in the next annual tax appropriation and levy when collected be set aside by the county treasurer in a separate fund to be used when authorized by the Finance Committee these acting together with a committee of the American Legion of Lake County, Ill."

"We further recommend that if the Finance Committee, then acting, deems this amount inadequate to accomplish the purpose for which it is appropriated, then we recommend that a further sum be appropriated to the deficiency, said sum not to exceed a sum equal to $5.00 per soldier, sailor or marine who served in the World War from Lake County, Illinois.

It is seen that the board has thus provided a very substantial memorial to the men in Lake County who went into the service. It is a fine tribute and the plan is to use this money toward the purchase of a bronze tablet on which will be the names and possibly the enlistment, of every man who went into service for the county. The board feels that this is a fitting tribute to pay the boys and this takes the place of a plan considered at a previous meeting wherein it was suggested that some sort of a memorial be erected at the Court House.

It is estimated that in all there were about 3100 men from Lake County in service, all of whose names will appear on the memorial. Thus, if the memorial plates should cost the maximum allowed by the board, $5.00, it would mean that the total appropriation which the board sanctioned would be $15,555 instead of $10,000 as first specified in the resolution authorizing the assistance.

COMPLETES TWENTY-SIXTH YEAR, TUESDAY

Ossoli Club Celebrates Anniversary. Souvenir Booklets Given to the Members and Friends

Ossoli had a birthday party on Tuesday, the ninth, and a most enjoyable occasion it was, too.

Ossoli has completed twenty six years of existence as a club and a souvenir for the members and their friends has been prepared and is ready for distribution.

This souvenir is "The History of the Ossoli Club of Highland Park, its Founders and Presidents 1894-1920," done in an attractive little booklet containing copies of photographs of each president.

The Lyra Trio, Margaret Lester, soprano, Ruth Simmons Worthington, contralto, and Anna Ayers, contralto, accompanied by Wm. Lester, pianist and composer, gave a delightful musical program consisting of trios, duets, and solos after which refreshments were served, the Ossoli executive board acting as hostesses.

"TRIBUNE" ARTICLE HAS NO FOUNDATION

Mere Guess at City's Ideas For Improvement; Plans Have Not Yet Been Announced

"Highland Park gets busy with her vanity bag," so says the Chicago Tribune in last Sunday's issue, the vanity bag being supposed to contain the city plan including parks, boulevards, beach improvements, zoning restrictions and all the other "fix-in's" of a modern suburban city.

"Way back in 1915," says the article, "a city beautiful commission was appointed by Mayor S. M. Hastings. Possibilities of improving Highland Park were studied for several years, and then in September, 1919, architects Edward H. Bennett and William E. Parsons were commissioned to draw up a comprehensive city plan for Highland Park" etc. All this looks like news, but it isn't. One might think, at first blush, that the Chicago Tribune really knew all about our city plan, more in fact than we knew ourselves, but a careful reading of the article discloses the simple fact that it is an article devoid of news.

That the heavy traffic will be "deflected from the residence streets is a pretty good guess, but that it will be diverted to St. Johns Avenue is not so certain. The fact is that our city plan has not yet been made known to the public. When it is, it will contain some large and unique plans, something distinctive in north shore town planning, something that will differentiate Highland Park from other cities of its kind.

Major George A. Drew, One of Oldest Army Officers, Eighty-eight Years Old Last Monday

He served under General Custer and was at Appomattox court house at the surrender of General Lee to General Grant in April, 1865.

FIRST COMMUNITY DANCE BIG SUCCESS

BY COMMUNITY SERVICE

Square Dances to Be Added to Attract the Parents. $13.50 Above Expenses Made Saturday Evening

Propaganda is necessary in some things in order to put it across but you do not have to expend a dollar in advertising a dance; the news travels by wireless.

Just three hundred and fifty turned up at the first dance to be given under the auspices of the Community Center and with the famous Highland Park orchestra on hand a very good time was had; it was not as chummy a dance as has been given in past seasons but it was a mighty good starter; the lady who collected the quarters indicated a grand total of $13.50 in excess of the expenses and that is going some for Highland Park.

Some one has suggested that the Community dance should put on a couple of square dances and for that purpose some of the older men and women should be induced to come up and take a whirl at the Lanciers or the Waltze Quadrille or Money Musk or Old Dan Tucker or the Virginia Reel and with that thought in view a very cordial invitation is extended to the mothers and fathers to come up and join in the young people of the town.

Last Saturday evening a very good representative crowd was on hand of sailors, soldiers and civilians but for some reason they did not mix as well as usual, but then it was the first night and maybe they were bashful.

We have had lots of good music on hand, but our own orchestra held its own and better Saturday night, and if Mr. and Mrs. Citizen do not care to dance they can come up and listen to this music, for it is certainly tantalizing. All local people are welcome to come, and in fact are urged to do so, for it is the town's way of getting together and having a good time.

SNOW DROPS IN FULL BLOOM AT EGANDALE

During the past week the citizens of this city have been very much uncertain as to whether Highland Park would have any spring this year, but yesterday The Press was assured that spring was on its way for word came to the office that Egandale is the proud possessor of snowdrops in full bloom. These little delicate flowers have been known to peep their heads through the snow as early as February twenty-second, but this year they are a trifle late.

"YOU TELL 'EM" AT PEARL THEATRE

TWO ACT MUSICAL COMEDY

Young Men's Club, Assisted by Fair Sex, Appear in Comedy Tuesday Produced by Lester L. Levin

Few folks realize what a rare treat is in store for them when the great musical spectacle, "You Tell 'Em," makes its debut at Pearl Theatre, next Tuesday evening, March 16, at 8:15 p. m. This musical comedy in two acts will be presented by the Young Men's Club of Highland Park with the able assistance of the young ladies acting as hostesses of the Community Center and members of the Y. W. C. A. of this city.

"You Tell 'Em" was written and produced by Mr. Lester L. Levin, one of the club members, and it is needless to say that Mr. Levin's experience on the stage and in directing shows, will only add towards the necessary requisites in making it a real big show. The show itself is a direct copy of the "Tank Corps Follies," which Mr. Levin so successfully introduced in France, while a lieutenant in the Tank corps, A. E. F. "The Tank Corps Follies" ran for 87 consecutive nights in France and was accorded first prize among the A. E. F. shows.

There are many surprising novelties which are scattered throughout the program that will tend to enlighten the hearts of the audience and the songs are all of the latest hits. The first part of the program is a scene in the Cafe de Jazzbo where the strains of jazz music and merriement reigns supreme. There are pretty girls galore sitting around the tables with their escorts watching the entertainers nimbly dancing around in all their beauty. A little spice of life is furnished by the colored waiters whose witty remarks and pranks will permeate the atmosphere with humor. Solo dances and songs will be plentiful in number. The four waiters' parts will be taken by Clifford Moran Harry Eichler, Fred Gallagher and Murray Moon; the entertainers will be Gladys Pearl, Alice Duffy, Hilda Larson, Lucille Rhinehardt, Henrietta Shreve and Florence Shreve.

Miss Alice Johnston will render a solo dance and the Misses Louise McDonald, Marjorie Merritt and Melba Du Brock will provide verbal selections. Miss McDonald is now a student of the American Conservatory of Music, Chicago, and her vocal talents have won for her considerable popularity among music lovers. Her voice is of sterling quality as indicated by the fact that when she entered the contest for teachers under the auspices of the American Conservatory of Music, she was awarded first prize, a gold medal.

The second part of the program is a combination of snappy vaudeville acts. Messrs. Freberg and Keogh will bristle with a few magical illusions and disappearing stunts. Mr. Freberg, better known as "Wallie," has starred in several performances for the wounded men at Ft. Sheridan. Messrs. Gallagher and Heinzenman will entertain in a little musical skit, which will be followed by a comedy hit known as "Parade Rest," to be presented by Irving Brand and R. H. Cytaler. The closing number will take in all members of the show in a grand debacle of dance and song in "Tootie De."

All in all "You Tell 'Em" is deemed to make a hit. There are plenty of good seats available at Levin's jewelry store, E. Central avenue, however, do not wait until the last minute as you may be disappointed.

This week about 2,000 printed programs will be distributed direct by mail to the homes of Highland Park. Two prizes have been set aside in connection with the advertising campaign. An intentional error has been printed in one of the advertisements of the program. To the first one sending in the corrected error with the name of the advertiser, to Levin's jewelry store, 365 Central avenue, a prize of two tickets will be given away free. Another prize of two tickets will be given away to the first one who has deciphered from the greatest number of advertisements printed, spelling out "Young Men's Club" from the letters of the alphabet used in each ad.

The stage is all set. Are you going? "You Tell 'Em."
