FIND OLD FORD RACER IN SAN FRANCISCO

"999" Beat Mile-A-Minute Record in 1904. Proved Great Attraction At Automobile Show

Ford Racer "999", which in 1903-04 started the Ford reputation toward success by beating the "Mile a Minute" record in the hands of Barney Oldfield and Henry Ford himself, was recently discovered and bought by W. L. Hughson, Ford dealer in San Francisco. The car was cleaned up, shined and insured for $25,000.00 and sent on an exhibition tour. It was shown at the San Francisco auto show and proved to be a great attraction.

This car made its debut in 1904 when Henry Ford drove it to success at a speed of one mile in 39 4-5 seconds on an ice track built on Baltimore Bay. The "Ford Times" of July, 1903, referring to "999," says: "It won race after race in every part of the country. Its performance was a real sensation, not only here, but abroad, and did as much to make known the name of Ford as any other circumstance."

This same article, after boasting of the 20,000 Ford owners—there are now more than 3,000,000—goes on to tell why racing was discontinued: "In the early days of the industry, racing undoubtedly stimulated business and was a benefit as a trade bringer for a new product. Today it is unnecessary to engage in races and stunts to awaken interest—the interest is wide awake and the problem is how to best provide for that interest which a growing demand for cars evidences. There was a time, though, when no entry list was considered complete until the Ford entry was in, and the records of these four and five years ago are replete with triumphs of Ford cars, guided to victory by such experts as Henry Ford, Frank Kulick and by Barney Oldfield.

Pageant Practices

On Thursday evening, April 22, another pageant practice will be held. All the girls who are to take part in the "Dance of the Maidens" and all who have speaking parts in the play will rehearse.

The practices are very successful and the performance promises to be an attractive one. The costumes are elaborate, as there are fairies, elves, brownies, and all the rest of the characters who help to make the fairy story which will be represented.

Mothers' Day

All Y. W. C. A. girls and their mothers are asked to keep in mind Sunday afternoon, May 9, when a Mother and Daughter meeting will be held. Further notice of the meeting, and the program which will be given, will be announced next week. The meeting will be one which none of their girls and their mothers will want to miss.

Sunday School Lessons

For the next few Vesper meetings the Sunday school lessons will be presented. Last Sunday, Miss Hedwig Gieser gave the lesson, and all of the girls gained a great deal from her helpful talk. Vespers will be held again Sunday at 5.

Game Party

About twenty girls and young men enjoyed a game party at the Association rooms last Wednesday evening. Among the hostesses were the Misses Myrtle Nelson, Gertrude Stein, Belva Whyman, Hazel and Carolyn Bean, Ida Benson, and Janet and Esther Swanson.

COMMUNITY SHOP

The thrift department announces that they have a supply of comforters, pillows and sanitary couches with pads that will be disposed of at very reasonable prices.

The sale of last week was most successful and the shop is now ready for consignments of every description.

There is a great demand for trousers of all shapes and sizes and people doing their spring housecleaning are advised to look over their things to see what they may wish to dispose of.

A full line of baby clothes, beautifully embroidered, are on hand.

The bakery department is well supplied with cakes and kisses and is ready to take orders for cakes of all kinds, or most anything in the bakery line.

Tea is served every afternoon and luncheon is served to a limited number, from 12:00 to 1:00 daily.

Some folks on the North Shore are so absorbed in enjoying the golden sunshine and balmy zephyrs of spring that they have forgotten all about the heaps of rubbish in their back yards.

It is great fun looking over these books containing plans of houses estimated to cost $4250 each, and can be built for only $13,795.

Always Worth Par

A Savings Account in a Good Bank

If you have invested in stocks and bonds, you know about the fluctuations of the market. You are accustomed to shrinkage in values and you have experienced the disappointment in taking a loss when you had to sell.

Not so with a savings account in a good bank. There is no shrinkage; on the contrary the account grows with the interest earnings. When you need your money it is never below par, it is always available and you get 100 cents on the dollar always.

Over a half million in savings accounts is carried in this bank.
