MUSIC, BIRDS AND FLOWERS

Music, Birds and Flowers are things that keep a fellow young. I happen to remember seeing the Snowdrops and Crocusses blossom in my father's old fashioned garden 48 years or so ago. I will never forget the fragrance of that garden, the big gnarled old beeches and Oaks on the place. I hope to grow old gracefully, but before I die I also hope to see our wonderful Suburb the talk of all the people of the United States.

Other towns had enough initiative to forge ahead in business, or like Pasadena, Portland, Kansas City, or Minneapolis, by beautifying their towns. It is up to you.

Latent in most of us is appreciation of the beautiful. We cannot all afford to gratify our desire for loveliness in our gardens, but do not forget we can come together, pull together and by hard work create a real model and lovely suburb.

I invite our garden lovers and public spirited citizens to attend my lectures this summer and see colored lantern slides of civic improvements in other towns. These lectures will be delivered in my Sales Yard, (so called,) after my busy season is over. I will show for the interest of our younger set a comical movie also. The lot adjoining my salesyard, belonging to the Y. W. C. A., has been leased to me for the purpose of seating my audience. The slides and films shown will be mirrored in my (to be created) large pool, a double attraction and novelty. Mr. Fred Steindel will entertain us with Bach's and Liszt's selections on a Steinway. All I ask is co-operation, the good will of the community and enough financial help to keep the home fires burning. Do I ask too much? I sincerely hope you will be with me.

The slides I show are very fine. It took me a life-time to collect them. Now please come and see them. There is no charge.

I am yours for things beautiful, clean and fragrant.

Convention Echoes Tuesday
Do you know that the biggest event in Association life in the last few years is the Cleveland convention which occurred last week?

All Y. W. C. A. girls and their mothers and friends will be anxious to hear about the convention and to gain some of the inspiration, and the new ideas which were given there.
On Tuesday evening, May 4, Mrs. Carl Pfantstiel, Mrs. O. L. Olesen and Mrs. M. W. Searcy will tell of the biggest things which were discussed at the convention.

There will be music, and an informal good time after the messages are given. Do not miss this meeting, for it will be very worth while.

Mothers' Day
All Y. W. C. A. girls and their mothers will be interested in the Mothers' Day program which will be given at the Association rooms on Sunday afternoon, May 9, at 4 o'clock. The program will be a delightful one appropriate to Mothers' Day. Every girl will be urged to bring her mother to the meeting.

Special Board Meeting
A special meeting of the Board of Directors was held at the rooms on Monday afternoon. Reports of the national convention were heard, and plans were made for the mass meeting to be held next Tuesday evening, and for the Mothers' Day program.

The next meeting of the Board will be on Tuesday, May 11, at 10 a. m.

Girl Reserves Entertain Friends
The second corps of Girl Reserves entertained a group of their girl friends at a game party last Friday evening. The evening was a jolly one, for the girls wore costumes and acted their parts. Refreshments were served, and a wide variety of games made the party a big success.

TRINITY CHURCH

The parish reception held last evening brought together a large number of people and gave an opportunity for the older parishioners to become better acquainted with those who have recently come into the parish. A musical program was rendered and refreshments were served.

It is intended to hold such receptions more frequently in future for the purpose of stimulating the social life of the parish and getting our people together in an informal way.

The young people's society, known as "Gamma Kappa Delta," had an interesting meeting last Sunday evening. Supper was served in the parish house by the entertainment committee to about thirty members and seven guests. Later in the evening Dr. Wolcott spoke to the company upon the subject of telepathy and hypnotism, continuing his address of the previous week. Meetings are held every Sunday evening after Evensong in the church.

The services next Sunday, May 2, will be the Holy Communion at 7:30 a. m., Church school and confirmation class at 9:30 and 10 o'clock a second celebration of the Holy Communion with sermon at 11 o'clock. Evensong at 5 o'clock.

Bishop Anderson is to preach and to confirm. All are invited to come.

The Episcopal church is not taking part in the Interchurch World Movement for the reason that it has only recently completed its Nation-wide campaign, which was organized before the other was begun, and is at one with it in its plan and scope. It is in complete sympathy, however, with the larger undertaking.

4 Minute Talks on QUALITY by L. D. ROBAR

The First of a Series of Talks on the Question of Quality Bread Making

I WONDER how many of you housewives of Highland Park have ever stopped to think of the quality of ingredients that go into bread? Do you ever think of the cost of those ingredients?

Frankly it's the difference in the cost of ingredients that makes the difference in quality and taste of bread. You can't expect to buy a quality loaf of bread unless the ingredients used are quality ingredients.

Flour alone has jumped $3 and $4 a barrel. And that's only one item. Every other baking ingredient has gone sky-high in price.

If you want quality bread—a loaf that contains pure ingredients—that contains the most nourishing, wholesome and appetizing food values—you can get the quality home-made loaf in a Federal Bakery.

There are so many things I want to say in connection with quality bread and scientific baking, that it would take a whole page to tell the story. For this reason, I want you to drop into our bakery the next time you are down this way and I'll tell you all about Federal Home-Made Bread. Come in any time.
