Spending The Corset Dollar

EVERY woman realizes that this is the day of the "fifty-cent dollar." If you spend your corset dollars for a garment that does not wear well, that does not give you satisfaction, it is an extravagant corset at any price. You can spend your corset money so every dollar will have its full purchasing power of 100 cents if you will be very particular about the corset you buy.

"GETTING your money's worth" in these days of increasing costs and the diminishing value of dollars, as it applies to corsets, is not so much in the price you pay as in the garment you buy. The corset you discard after a few uncomfortable wearings or the corset you continue to wear at the expense of your appearance, health and peace of mind, is the corset you cannot afford. We assure you that every is worth every cent you pay for it—worth it in style; worth it in comfort; worth it in wearing service.

There is not a corsetiere in our corset department but will take a personal interest in helping you spend your corset dollars wisely.

YOUNG WOMAN'S LEAGUE

Thursday afternoon the second corps of Girl Reserves enjoyed a hare and hound chase. The hares led the hounds a merry chase but they were forgiven when the end of the trail disclosed a large bon-fire and plenty to eat. This corps is very proud to have three of its members, Ethel Swan, Alice Curley and Ellen Hammarslund, carry off various honors in the school contest at Deerfield Friday.

Saturday afternoon the May party for the younger girls was well attended. Games were played, many new ones being introduced, and refreshments were served.

Miss Elizabeth Torreyson of Lake Forest was unable to teach her folk dancing classes on Monday.

Thursday evening, May 6th, the Royal Neighbors will meet at the community house.

Saturday afternoon at 2:30 the Council of the Young Woman's League will hold its monthly meeting at the community house.

Saturday evening at 7:30 there will be a program for the mothers of the community. Every girl is urged to come and bring her mother. The program will be given by the girls themselves and will be appropriate to Mothers' Day.

LINCOLN SCHOOL

The Parent-Teacher association of the Lincoln school held its annual business meeting Wednesday afternoon. Mrs. W. C. Shipnes was elected president for the coming year. The other officers of the organization are: Mrs. R. R. Taylor, vice-president; Mrs. Rositer, secretary; Mrs. Sanderson, treasurer. At this meeting the mothers were given an opportunity to see the annual exhibit of the fine and industrial art work done by the children during the year. The annual exhibit of school work has usually been held the last week of the school year but this year it was thought best to show the work at this time rather than during the busy closing week of school.

The children of the third and fourth grades of both the Lincoln and Ravinia schools "hiked" along the beach Monday afternoon under the leadership of Miss Goddard. A camp fire lunch added interest and comfort to the trip.

The work on the new athletic field east of the school under the direction of Mr. Fritz Bahr, is progressing slowly on account of the rainy weather.

May 1 has brought the usual number of new pupils to take the place of those who have recently moved from the district.

HOME, SWEET, PORTABLE HOME

The following poem was written by Mr. J. P. McEvoy, writer of the "Slams Of Life" column of the Chicago Tribune, and appeared in the Sunday, April 25th edition of the Tribune. (With acknowledgement for title to B. L. T.)

Mid cities and suburbs
Though we may roam,
And wear out our bunnions,
We can't find a home.
And so we're going to build one,
And though it's not so swell,
We'll tell all the landlords
To politely go to grass.

Chorus:
Home, home, sweet, sweet home,
Be it ever so portable,
There's no place like home.

We will buy on installments,
For that way is the best;
We'll pay five bucks down
And we'll stall them for the rest,
We'll put it on wheels
And we'll tie it to a tree,
And if no one steals it,
How happy we will be!

Chorus:
Home, home, sweet, sweet home,
Be it ever so portable,
There's no place like home.
